AWFUL SKIN HUMOR

My little daughter's head and face broke out in bleeding sores. One of her ears was so affected we thought it would slough off. Her suffering was intense, getting no rest unless under opiates. The physician tried every known remedy, but instead of getting better, she got worse. Distracted with her condition, I was advised to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. Before the first week I noticed that the little sufferer was beginning to get relief, and in less than two months was entirely cured.

MAMMOTH WAR LOAN

Issue of One Billion Pesetas is Decreed.

Spain to Borrow From Internal Sources.

France and Spain Have a Secret Alliance.

Such is the Belief of the London Chronicle --American and Britain Must Get Closer.

LONDON, June 1.—A special dispatch from Madrid says a decree has been published there authorizing the issue of an internal loan of 1,000,000,000 pesetas at 4 per cent.

MADRID, June 1.—The attention of the public today is absorbed in the condition of the Bank of Spain, which is considered more serious than any reverse of the war, inasmuch as the impossibility of the bank to help the government means impossibility to continue the war.

There was a long procession at the bank during the day. All classes of people were represented and many women were in line waiting their turn to change notes into silver, fearing the notes would soon be subjected to discount.

If the run continues there is danger of the bank's stock of silver becoming exhausted, which would compel the government to resort to a forced currency, issuing notes of small denomination. It is hoped, however, that the panic will subside, leaving the bank a margin of silver.

The financial outlook of Spain is rather dark. The government has entrusted the bank of Spain with the negotiations for a loan of 1,000,000,000 pesetas at 4 per cent., which sum to be increased as and when required. The bank will endeavor to raise the loan at home and abroad.

FRANCE AND SPAIN IN SECRET ALLIANCE.

LONDON, June 1.—The London Daily Chronicle thinks the general situation is grave and says the "rumors of a secret arrangement between France and Spain continue with singular persistence and the report of French designs upon the Canary islands and Ceuta are gathering strength."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "In commercial circle it is perfectly well understood that Great Britain will regard France's taking the Canaries or Ceuta as an unfriendly act and also that if France helps Spain, public opinion here will demand that we assist America."

The Pall Mall Gazette devotes much space to the Anglo-American relations, and while disowning its belief that any treaty of alliance exists, says:

"There will be something better, the recognition of our unities, and the rapidly consolidating sense of common interests and brotherliness. Henceforth Great Britain and America will approach these lines in the right spirit, and Anglo-Saxon solidarity will become more and more a force to be reckoned with."

SPANISH TROOPS IN CUBA ARE WELL.

MADRID, June 1.—11 A. M.—In regard to the reported illness of the Spanish troops in Cuba, the inspector general of the sanitary department says the health of the army in Cuba is excellent.

According to the last reports received the sick list has been reduced one-half "as the forced marches have ended and the food has improved."

SPAIN BUYING CATTLE AND GRAIN IN MEXICO.

MEXICO CITY, June 1.—It is reported that the agents of the Spanish government are buying cattle and grain here, hoping to smuggle it out of the country in tramp steamers, which will endeavor to run the Cuban blockade. The matter will be looked into by the government which is determined to maintain a strict neutrality. The Spaniards are working very secretly in the matter.

Mexico has begun the export of wheat to Europe.

WIDE OPEN.

Trans-Mississippi Exposition Inaugurated.

President McKinley Touches the Button in Washington and Makes a Speech by Telephone.

OMAHA, Neb., June 1.—Amid the music of 100 bands, the cheers of 100,000 people, the blasts of many whistles and the waving of innumerable flags, the trans-Mississippi and international exposition was dedicated today.

Everything contributed to the smoothness of the final hours of preparations and nothing occurred to mar the occasion. At 9:30 a. m. the great civic parade started on its march from the center of the city to the grounds. The National Marine band led the splendid pageant and 100 musical organizations from the various states of the middle west contributed to the occasion.

The parade was three miles long, consisting of the officers and guests of the exposition, carriages, the semi-military organizations and all the secret societies of this and adjacent states. Early the special trains had begun to unload their crowds until the railroad men estimated that at least 100,000 people had arrived. The arrivals united with the citizens of Omaha and formed one solid phalanx along the routes of the parade for ten miles.

Rev. Dr. Nichols, of St. Louis, opened the exercises at the grounds with an appeal to Him who "doeth all things well, to shower his blessings on the enterprise and the people of the trans-Mississippi region, especially on the president, G. W. Wattles." Hon. John L. Webster, of Omaha, and Hon. John N. Baldwin, of Council Bluffs, were eulogized.

President McKinley addressed the assembled multitude by long distance telephone, touched the magic button and the exposition was dedicated. The weather could not have been more propitious and not a particle of dust was in evidence. This afternoon the Marine band will give a concert at the grounds and tonight a pyrotechnic display on the most elaborate scale will enliven the occasion.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—President McKinley today formally opened the trans-Mississippi and International exposition at Omaha, Neb., by touching an electric button at 1:30 o'clock in the telegraph office in the white house.

A few moments before 1 o'clock the president sent the following telegram of congratulations to the president of the exposition, Gordon W. Wattles:

"Hon. Gordon W. Wattles, President Trans-Mississippi Exposition, Omaha:

"The cordiality of the invitation extended to me to be present at the opening of your great exposition is deeply appreciated and I more deeply regret that public duties prevent me from leaving the capital at this time. The events of the memorable half century which the trans-Mississippi and International exposition commemorates are interwoven with the history of the whole nation and are of surpassing importance.

"The mighty west affords most striking evidences of the splendid achievements and possibilities of our people.

"It is a matchless tribute to the energy and endurance of the pioneer, while its vast agricultural development, its progress in manufactures, its advancement in the arts and sciences and in all departments of education and endeavor have been an inestimable contribution to the civilization and wealth of the world.

"Nowhere have the unconquerable determination, self-reliant strength and sturdy manhood of our American citizenship been more forcibly illustrated. In peace or war the men and women of the west have ever been in the vanguard.

"I congratulate the management upon its magnificent enterprise and assure all who participate in this undertaking of the deep interest which the government has in its success."

RECEPTION FOR TROOPS.

Honolulu Preparing to Welcome the Soldiers en Route to Philippines.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—The steamship Moana arrived here today from Australian ports via Honolulu. At the latter place everything was in readiness for the reception of the troops on their way to Manila and the most elaborate preparations had been made. The cruiser Charleston had not arrived at Honolulu when the Moano left and none of the transports were sighted on the trip to this city.

BOYS TO THE FRONT

Old Third Regiment Has Left Camp Thomas.

Fort Wayne Companies in the Detachment.

Will be Hurried on to the Tampa Camp.

General Miles and Staff Reach Tampa--Adjutant General Corbin Fixing Apportionment of Second Call.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 1.—The first of the volunteer infantry left Chickamauga for Tampa today. The regiments which left were the One Hundred and Fifty-seventy Indiana, First Ohio, First District of Columbia and Second New York. Tomorrow the Third Pennsylvania, First Illinois, Fifth Maryland and Sixty-ninth New York will leave.

The second New York, under Col. E. C. Hardin, left camp at 5 o'clock and marched five miles to Rossville station. This regiment has been in camp in Chickamauga since May 20.

The regiment is composed of companies from Troy, Cohoes, Schenectady, Saratoga, Hoosac Falls, White Hall, Mohawk, Poughkeepsie and Amsterdam.

The next regiment to leave camp was the First Ohio, which started on a nine-mile march to Ringgold, Ga., at 6 o'clock. The regiment has been at Chickamauga since May 15. Col. D. B. Hunt is in command.

The One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Indiana left camp at 9 o'clock and marched to Ringgold. This regiment has been in camp in Chickamauga since May 16.

The companies are from South Bend, Angola, Auburn, Waterloo, Fort Wayne, North Manchester, Ligonier, Elkhart, Plymouth, Knox and Goshen. Col. George M. Studebaker is one of the youngest colonels in the army, being but thirty-five years of age.

The First Regiment, District of Columbia left camp and marched to Rossville. This regiment is composed of 1,050 men from Washington under Col. George H. Harries. It has been camped in the park since May 23.

The First Illinois cavalry arrived this morning on three trains.

The command numbers 1,018 officers and men under Col. E. C. Young.

There are still 43,000 troops here. The order issued to recruit all the regiments to the standard of 1,307 men will largely increase the number and with the constant arrivals will keep the army near the 50,000 mark.

General Breckinridge continues his inspection and is doing much toward getting the various regiments in serviceable condition.

GENERAL MILES REACHES TAMPA.

TAMPA, Fla., June 1.—General Nelson A. Miles, accompanied by his entire staff and a force of clerks, arrived in Tampa at 6:30 this morning from Washington over the Florida Central and Peninsular railroad. General Miles was accompanied also by his wife, daughter and son.

General Miles was tired out from his long dusty journey and retired to his room shortly after his arrival. He refused to discuss the plan of campaign in any way. General Miles is apparently beginning to feel the terrific strain he has been under for the past few months. There is no less elasticity in his step and his sturdy figure is as upright as ever, but the lines of his face have perceptibly deepened and his hair is whiter. Lieut. J. D. Miley, of General Shafter's staff has returned from an inspection of various points along the east coast of Florida.

A firing drill of the whole brigade of light artillery of ten batteries of four guns each, was held along the beach at Port Tampa today. All the artillery manouvres were gone through with and the enthusiasm was intense. For an hour the artillery men dashed up and down the long beach through shallow water and over the hammers of Picnic Island wheeling the guns into line at command and firing. The noise of the firing at times were deafening.

FIXING THE QUOTAS UNDER SECOND CALL.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Adjutant General Corbin is engaged in making up the apportionment of troops which each state is to be asked to furnish under President McKinley's second call for 75,000 men. Because of an excess over their quota under the last call, some of the states will not be asked for any additional men at this time. So far as is possible the existing regiments will be recruited to their maximum strength. Some of the state governors in their communications with the war department have manifested a decided opposition to filling up the existing regiments, preferring to recruit entirely new organizations, and in some of these cases it is likely the department may yield, although no one will make any official statement to the effect. There is a disposition on the part of the war department to avoid unseemly wrangle over the matter, but instead to yield a point for the sake of appearances.

Ample authority, it is said, exists under the volunteer act for the war department to proceed on its own responsibility with the work of recruiting without any call on the governors to assist in that work.

MASSING RATIONS AT JACKSONVILLE.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The war department is massing rations for thirty days for the troops that are assembling at Jacksonville, Fla., under command of Major General Lee. The officials decline to say how many men are to be concentrated there or whether they will stay at that place for the full thirty days for which the rations are provided.

EARLY REGIMENTS TO BE RECRUITED ANEW.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—An order was issued by the war department today which provides that the organizations accepted and mustered into the United States service under the president's first call for troops will be expanded from the 75,000 men asked for under the second call so that each regiment shall consist of twelve companies (troops, batteries,) and each battalion (squadron) of four companies, and of the the maximum enlisted strength provided by the volunteer army act.

Regimental and independent battalion commanders are to select a recruiting party to obtain recruits in the locality where the organization was raised. Additional companies necessary for the completion of regiments and battalions are to be mustered by the same rules that obtained under the president's first proclamation.

WHAT TO SEND.

The Things Sick and Wounded Soldiers Need.

Food Delicacies, Linen Bandages and Sleeping Gowns Advised by Surgeon General Sternburg.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1.—Surgeon General Sternburg, of the army, has received numerous letters from patriotic ladies asking what articles would be most acceptable for the use of our sick and wounded soldiers in the field or in hospitals.

For the purpose of answering in a general way these inquiries, he has prepared the following memorandum, which will be sent to persons communicating with him on this subject:

"Money may be sent to the surgeon general of the army as a contribution to the hospital funds of hospital ship 'Relief' and of the United States general hospitals. This will be sent to the surgeons in charge, to be expended for delicacies for the sick, such as canned soups, jellies, lemons, oranges, etc.

"Shirts and drawers are provided by the government but will be accepted and can be given to convalescents upon their being discharged from the hospital. Pajmama made of tigh gingham will be useful for the sick in hospitals and on the hospital ship, as they can be worn by convalescents who are able to be out of bed.

"Long night shirts of light muslin can also be utilized.

"Broad bandages of light flannel to protect the abdomen are highly recommended and may be worn to advantage by our soldiers in the field.

"Those who prefer may contribute canned soups, clam broth, orange marmalade, ginger ale, biscuit, water crackers, and similar articles in hermetrically sealed cans, for use on the hospital ship "Relief," and at the United States general hospitals at Key West, Fla., Fort McPherson, Ga.; Fort Thomas, Ky., and Fort Meyer, Va.

"Bandages, lint and other surgical dressings are not desired, as these can now be obtained from the manufacturers sterilized for use and of the quality which experience has shown to be best suited to our purposes.

"The articles mentioned may be sent direct to the surgeon general of the army or the surgeons in charge of the general hospitals named."

THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—When the war revenue bill was taken up the absence of a quorum was suggested and fifteen minutes were consumed in assembling the requisite number of senators. Mr. Chandler, republican, of New Hampshire, assuming, he said, that the majority of the finance committee would insist upon its proposition to coin the silver seigniorage, said that the republican minority would press its bond proposition, thought it proper to offer some remarks upon an amendment which he had offered to the pending bill. The amendment follows:

"And it is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States not to commit the country more thoroughly to the gold standard, but that the efforts of the government in all its branches shall be steadily directed to secure and maintain the use of silver as well as gold as standard money, with the free coinage of both under a system of bimetallism which will insure the parity in value of the coins of the two metals, furnish a sufficient volume of metallic money and give immunity to the world of trade from violent fluctuations in exchange.

ATTACKS THE FORTS

Schley Makes an Assault on Santiago.

Spanish Fleet Keep Out of the Battle.

Land Batteries Were Badly Damaged.

Details of the Engagement Very Difficult to Procure--Havana Claims Spanish Victory.

NEW YORK, June 1.—An Evening Journal special from Cape Haytien says:

The torpedo boat Porter arrived at Mole St. Nicholas at 1 o'clock with dispatches for Washington. She left immediately. But before going to sea the following story of the bombardment of Santiago de Cuba, the refuge of Cervera and the Spanish fleet was obtained by your correspondent at the Mole:

The American squadron, augmented by the torpedo boat Porter, the auxiliary cruiser St. Paul and the protected cruiser New Orleans, approached the entrance to the harbor of Santiago at about 12:30 p. m., the Iowa leading.

Inside the entrance to the harbor was seen one of the warships of Cervera's fleet, stripped for action. As the American fleet drew near the New Orleans was detached and steamed forward, ahead of the Iowa, Texas and Massachusetts.

One of the forts opened fire on her and she replied, the other two ships directing their fire at the battery on the Punta Gorda within the harbor and to westward of the position occupied by the Spanish ship.

The latter replied to the fire and immediately became a target for all the American ships engaged in the battle.

The Spanish fleet took refuge behind a protecting headland and was not seen again during the engagement.

The Iowa, directed by Captain "Fighting Bob" Evans: the Massachusetts, Capt. F. J. Higginson; the Texas, Capt. J. W. Phillip, and the New Orleans, Capt. W. M. Folger, kept up their terrific fire against the Morro, Socapa and Punta Gorda forts for two hours, their projectiles, of enormous size, doing tremendous damage to the defenses of the harbor.

The masonry on Socapa and Morro was battered almost into dust, and the forms of Spanish artillerymen and infantry could be plainly seen flying to safety behind the neighboring hills.

The auxilary cruiser which joined Schley's fleet just before the battle took place was hit by shells from the forts, and it is thought she was seriously damaged. After seeking the protection of a jutting headland the Spanish warships continued to fire projectiles over the hills toward the fleet, but they had no range, not even directing their shots, and they fell harmlessly into the sea.

That the number of killed and wounded on the Spanish side is enormous, no one doubts, for time and again the American shells hit the batteries squarely and made the flying masonry and dismantled guns of the enemy easily descried.

The damage done to the American fleet cannot be learned, but it is not thought any person was killed—if, indeed, anyone was wounded.

(Copyright 1898, by the Associated Press.)

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, June 1.—8:50 a. m.—The following additional details have been received here, from a Spanish source at Havana, of the engagement reported off Santiago de Cuba yesterday:

The Spanish batteries at first answered the fire of the American squadron in a lively manner. After twenty minutes of firing, directed in a superior manner upon the part of the American fleet, the Spanish batteries began to weaken their fire and the American ships concentrated a violent fire upon El Morro, destroying it completely.

The fort at Cocapa and Punta Gorda fired the last shots.

The Spanish losses must have been considerable. Details are lacking as to the American losses.

The Spaniards pretend to have struck the American vessels several times, but this information is accepted here under reserve.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the American squadron ceased firing. At that hour there was no Spanish vessel in sight.

No news has been received here from the Spanish boats.

HAVANA REPORT OF THE ENGAGEMENT.

(Copyright 1898, by the Associated Press.)

HAVANA, June 1.—The following Spanish account of the reported engagement off Santiago de Cuba has been issued here:

The American fleet, consisting of the Iowa, Massachusetts, Brooklyn, Texas, New Orleans, Marblehead, Minneapolis and another cruiser, in addition to six small vessels, took up a position on May 31 on the western side of the mouth of Santiago de Cuba channel, opening fire from the first five vessels.

The Spanish cruiser Cristobal Colon was anchored toward Punta Gorda and could be seen from the open sea. The fire of the American fleet was answered by the Morro, Socapa and Punta Gorda batteries and by the cruiser Cristobal Colon.

The American fleet fired seventy shots, "with projectiles of 32," without causing the least damage.

The bombardment lasted ninety minutes, and the American fleet retired with a trans-Atlantic steamer (auxiliary cruiser) damaged. Two shells were seen to explode on the Iowa's stern and there was fire on board another battle ship. Several projectiles fell inside the harbor, near the Spanish warships.

There is great enthusiasm at Santiago de Cuba and here.

CONFLICTING REPORTS ARE HEARD IN LONDON.

LONDON, June 1.—This city is bewildered by the conflicting reports from Santiago de Cuba which are reaching here from all sources.

"The Spanish fleet destroyed or surrendered," alternates with "reported battle discredited at the navy department." on the news placards.

Some of the special dispatches have seemingly minute details as to how "the Brooklyn was standing well in shore, opened the battle yesterday afternoon and how a heavy fire was concentrated by the whole squadron on Morro and the other defenses, to which they replied furiously."

Another report says: "Commodore Schley, after exploding many mines in the channel ran the Texas far enough into the harbor to engage and sink the Reina Mercedes."

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO BAIT THE FLEET.

KEY WEST, June 1.—12:05 P. M.—Another ship just from the blockade reports that on Sunday morning a small Spanish gunboat came out of Havana and ran along the line of batteries, close in shore.

Yesterday she again came out, venturing over two miles from land. She was chased and one shot was fired at her, whereupon she scudded back to port. On Monday night a warship of the blockade squadron approached within five miles of Havana, clearly distinguishing whole rows of lighted streets, thus contradicting the rumors of Havana being in darkness. The commander of the warship said new fortifications are in course of canstruction on Morro Heights. A steamer carrying earth and sand is running night and day.

NAVY DEPARTMENT HAS HEARD NOTHING.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The navy department had not heard from Commodore Schley up to noon today concerning his reported engagement at Santiago yesterday, and the officials continued to treat with scepticism the accounts coming from Hayti as to the extent of the action.

At the same time official advices are anxiously awaited, for while the Haytien accounts contain a number of statements discredited by the authorities here, yet there are so many circumstances from different points indicating that some sort of action has occurred that they are accepted as roughly suggesting what the official reports will show with more accuracy and detail. Secretary Long remained at home during the morning, as he is slightly inconvenienced by a strained muscle.

Had any important dispatches arrived they would have been speedily sent to him, but nothing beyond the regular morning mail was laid before him up to noon.

STOLE FLOWERS.

Officer Pageler Finds the Persons Who Have Been Molesting Flower Beds.

Officer Pageler this morning located the persons who have been invading yards and taking flowers. The vandals are a young girl aged eleven years and her small brother aged eight years. The officer found many of the flowers and a few jardinieros which had been taken. The children were taken to the police station and held for a time but were not locked up. Superintendent Gorsline will give them a lecture and allow them to go inasmuch as the mother is a poor widow.

FIGHT AT SANTIAGO.

Madrid Reports the Best of the Engagement.

Official Reports Confirm Rumors of Attack.

Spanish Tales Say Schley Was Severely Repulsed.

Marine Minister Aunon Says There Was an Attack on the Forts, But Declines to Give Details.

MADRID, June 1.—5 P. M.—The following official dispatch from Havana has been received here:

"The American squadron, commanded by Commodore Schley, composed of large iron clads and cruisers, attacked the fortifications at the entrance of Santiago de Cuba. Our iron clad, Cristobal Colon, closing the mouth of the port and supported by the fire of the forts, repulsed the attack, causing damage to the enemy.

"SEN MANTEROLA"

Admiral Mantorola is the officer in command of the regular Spanish fleet in Cuban waters.

MADRID, June 1.—11 A. M.—The minister of marine, Captain Aunon has received a dispatch saying the American squadron has suffered a check before Santiago de Cuba.

The fire from the Spanish forts and the fleet of Admiral Cervera is alleged to have repulsed the American ships, which are said to have retreated and to have been damaged. The Spanish fleet, it is claimed, did not suffer.

AUNON STOPS DETAILS ON THE BOMBARDMENT.

MADRID, June 1.—5 P. M.—The minister of marine, Captain Aunon, on leaving the palace this afternoon after a visit to the queen, said:

"The American squadron has bombarded and tried to force the Santiago forts, which replied vigorously. The Cristobal Colon advanced to the mouth of the harbor, exchanging shots with the enemy, who fired seventy shots against the forts. The damage done is not reported. The Colon hit an auxiliary American ship, damaging it. The Colon was not hurt. Further details are withheld."

CREW OF BELVIDERE WERE ALL RESCUED.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The passengers and crew of the freight steamer Belvidere, which was wrecked off Cape Mayst, Cuba, are on the Norwegian steamer Kong Frode from Port Antonio, which will reach this city about noon today.

The Belvidere sailed from Kingston for Boston on Wednesday last and was wrecked the following day. The Kong Frode passed Reedy Island in the Deleware Bay at 8:30 this morning, and signalled all well.

THE UNCAS DESTROYS A SPANISH BLOCKHOUSE.

KEY WEST, June 1.—8:30 A. M.—The United States auxiliary gunboat Uncas arrived here this morning from the Cuban coast. She reports that on Monday last, when about a mile and a half west of Matanzas light house she sighted a Spanish blockhouse, on shore.

Taking up a position about 600 yards off shore, the Uncas fired two shots at the house and the two shells went clear through the building, which was wrecked.

During the firing the auxiliary gunboat Leyden came up and also fired a couple of shots. It is not known whether any Spaniards were killed, but they probably fled at the first shot. The blockhouse made no reply.

This action upon the part of the Uncas and Leyden is in accordance with the policy of the patrol boats in shelling any blockhouses they may come across. The crews enjoy this target practice very much.

All was quiet on the Havana blockade when the Uncas left last night.

THE PORTER PUTS IN AT CAPE HAYTIEN.

CAPE HAYTIEN, Hayti, June 1.—8:45 P. M.—The United States torpedo boat Porter put into the harbor of Mole St. Nicholas at 1 o'clock this morning in all probability with dispatches for Washington, and left there again at 2 o'clock.

VICE PRESIDENT CAPOTE IS SAFE.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The Norwegian steamer Kong Frode reached her dock in this city at 12:35 this afternoon. She had on board twenty-four passengers and the crew of forty-one persons from the wrecked steamer Belvidere. Vice President Capote of the Cuban republic is one of the passengers.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT OF CAPOTE'S CAPTURE.

KINGSTON, Jamacis, June 1.—There is no probability of truth in the report that Vice President Capote of the Cuban republic, who was a passenger on the wrecked steamer Belvidere, has been captured by the Spanish. There are no Spanish garrisons in that part of Cuba, and the Spanish gunboats that were formerly patrolling off Mayasi are now shut in blockaded harbors or staying close for fear of capture.

It is not certainly known whether the Belvidere's passengers were rescued by the Ethewood (not Ethered,) of the same line.

YANKEE DEWEY.

Taught Prince Henry His Manners at Hong Kong.

American Commander Left the Prince's Banquet Table Because United States Was Slighted.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Charles N. Post, vice president of the Lyon & Healy company, who has just returned from an extended tour of the orient, met Admiral Dewey in Hong Kong March 25. Mr. Post tells of a social passage at arms between Dewey and Prince Henry, brother of Emperor William, commanding the German squadron at Hong Kong.

Prince Henry, immediately after his arrival at Hong Kong, gave a banquet to the higher officers of the other fleets, among whom was Rear Admiral Dewey.

At the feast the prince proposed a toast to his own country, then to Great Britain, then to all the other great powers except the United States. Finally, just before the dinner was over, the royal host proposed a toast to this country.

When Rear Admiral Dewey saw that apparently his country was to be slighted he left the banquet [illegible] out ceremony. The next [illegible] representative of Prince [illegible] a roundabout apology to [illegible] can commander.

Dewey sent word back [illegible] porer's brother that he would [illegible] nothing but a written or [illegible] apology from the prince.

The latter then called upon [illegible] and apologized, saying that in [illegible] confusion of the dinner he, [illegible] prince, thoughtlessly neglected [illegible] put the American toast in its proper place on the program.

While Mr. Post was at Hong Kong Prince Henry gave a ball, but Admiral Dewey, although invited, did not attend it. The banquet incident was not allowed to get out and Mr. Post received it first-hand from one of the officers of the American fleet.

THE COURTS.

Commissioners Discuss Changes in the County Precincts.

There Will be an Increase of Several at the Coming Election--Items of Interest.

The county commissioners this morning discussed changes to be made in the voting precincts. The law requires that the precincts shall be determined in June preceding the election and the commissioners wish to dispose of the matter as soon as possible. Last election there were eighty eight precincts, but inasmuch as there has been an increase in the vote it will be necessary to increase the number of precincts by four or five.

Township Assessor M. V. Walsh, of Wayne, yesterday turned over to the county treasurer $1,266, representing the dog tax collected in the township. This sum exceeds that collected last year by $482. The increase is not due to the new canine generation, but to the new law, which gives the assessors the authority to collect the tax.

Cyrus T. Paine, administrator of the estate of James D. Paine, has entered suit against Jonathan and Marietta Snyder, to foreclose mortgage. Demand, $1,200. Suit is also entered against Martin and Christian Hoelle, to foreclose an $800 mortgage. P. A. Randall is attorney in both cases.

Lemuel C. Paine commenced foreclosure proceedings against the Fort Wayne club, to satisfy a claim for $5,500. P. A. Randall is attorney.

THERE is something in a name—of times much. Schley's name is pronounced as if spelled s-l-y.

THE great problems of state which are presented to this nation are not of the war with Spain, but questions which grow out of the war and must be solved when the war is over. New and radical policies may be forced upon the United States which will alter the whole destiny of the country.

THE new torpedo boat destroyers will be lighted with electricity throughout and furnished with one searchlight. Each is to have two conning towers, the forward one of which will be made of one-half inch nickeled steel plates. The battery will be composed of seven rapid fire guns, to be mounted on deck and on the conning towers, and there will be mounted on the midship line two twenty-foot torpedo tubes, to carry seventeen-foot torpedos. Berth space will be required to accommodate sixty men and four officers and provision space for twenty days. The torpedo boats will also have two conning towers, on the deck of which will be mounted three fifteen-foot torpedo tubes. Accommodation will be required for twenty-six men and three officers.

THE dispatches from Madrid speak with magnificent nonchalance of the "second reserve fleet" and the "third reserve fleet" and their readiness to come over the water and blow the western hemisphere to kingdom come after Cervera has been sent down to share with Montejo the hospitality of Davy Jones. The fact is that pretty nearly all of Spain's navy that is fit to cope with modern warships is now cooped up in Santiago bay. The fighting ships at Cadiz, with one or two exceptions, are antiquated iron hulks, ill-fitted with machinery and unequipped with modern armament. Vessels of the Indiana and Iowa kind would have but poor sport in an engagement with the ships Spain has at home. When this war is over Spain will be eliminated from the naval powers of the world.

IN Spain one can understand the dissatisfaction which prevails. A constant series of disasters is reported, unredeemed by a single beam of comfort save such as is derived from the proved valor of the Spanish sailors at Manila, declares the London Daily Mail. Yet even this consolation is marred by the growing conviction that these gallent men offered themselves up, as it were, as a sacrifice to the incapacity and criminal negligence of successive administrations in Spain. To the ignominy of defeat are added the terrors of impending famine. In Alicante, in Barcelona and elsewhere the bakers' shops are being looted, as they were in Paris on the eve of the revolution. And the politicians at Madrid—for it is not the government only that is at fault—stand powerless, with no help in their hands. We could almost wish for the Spaniards to gain some slight advantage at sea, that their government might be encouraged, by the satisfaction of their honor, to sue for peace. As was foreseen before hostilities broke out, there can be but one end to the struggle, and its prolongation can only spread misery and anarchy in Spain without the faintest prospect of modifying the inevitable result. America has proved stronger than was anticipated, even by those who wished her best, and Spain has shown herself weaker than even her severest critics suspected. At this moment the Spanish politician who could find resolution enough to say "This war must stop" would be the truest friend of his country and not improbably its most popular figure.

SOME notion of the cost of the war may be gained from the fact that Commodore Schley has been employing a couple of the big American liners now of the auxiliary navy for dispatch boats between his fleet and the cable stations in Hayti and Jamaica. The cost per day of maintaining one of these wonderful ocean grayhounds, including $2,500 lease fee every twenty-four hours, coal, pay of officers and men, etc., amounts to some $6,000 or $7,000. So when Commodore Schley wants to inform the naval strategy board that "Cervera's fleet is in there and will never get home—am going to breakfast," it means that Uncle Sam is diving into his pocket for a couple of days' pay for that ship, not to speak of the cable tolls.

THERE has been some anxiety and, indeed, complaint, because the public has heard so infrequently of late from General Gomez of the Cuban army. But this cause of discontent has been removed. General Gomez has adopted the American idea, namely, that if you wish to do business you must advertise, and it is announced that Las Villas, the official organ of the Cuban army, is to be published weekly from headquarters, two issues having already appeared. In what may be called his salutatory, General and Editor Gomez informs the troops that they are no longer insurgents, but regular soldiers of the Cuban republic, and that they are to carry on war after the manner of civilized men and not in the style of the brutal Spaniards, and so conduct themselves as to win the good will and respect of their brethren of the United States. There can be no doubt that Las Villas will supply a long felt want and meet with the circulation and patronage it deserves.

Abolish the Canteen.

[Indianapolis News.]

The establishment of "canteens" at Chickamauga is, we are convinced, aside from all moral considerations, which we do not here discuss, a mistake. There are many things in which our raw troops must be drilled before they can be effective soldiers. There are some things in which they must be tried and not found wanting before they can be good soldiers in a hot climate. One is abstemiousness. They must control their appetites, both for food and drink, especially for drink. The only safe stimulant in hot climates is coffee, which the government provides in ample quantity and of excellent quality.

Each soldier receives daily three pints of clear, strong coffee. That is stimulant enough for any man, and it is the finest stimulant for activity in a warm climate. It is the one stimulant that races living in hot countries rely on. There are no troops in the world whose stamina is greater or whose courage is higher than the Turks. Their only stimulant is coffee. The "canteen" is a mistake, and the sooner it is abolished the better.

For our boys, accustomed to alcoholic drinks to a greater or less degree, to carry their habits with them to the hot countries where they are going, is simply to invite death.

King alcohol is more potent than King Alfonso. The correspondents of some French newspapers, seeing our troops at Washington, Key West, Tampa and Chickamauga, have written letters about them, in which they recognize both good and bad qualities. But they all agree that the greatest danger that threatens the volunteers is alcohol, and surprise is expressed at the impunity with which whisky is sold in the camp. It seems to us that the government will be derelict if it does not lay a heavy hand on this traffic.

We repeat that we are not discussing it as a moral question. We are discussing it as a sanitary question. To place before our boys the opportunity of alcoholic drink is simply to fool with death, to invite suicide. Not only ought the "canteen" to be abolished, but severe penalties should be prescribed and enforced for any indulgence in alcoholic drink by the troops. Total abstinence is the only safety for men who have to work or fight in a hot climate.

THE SAILORS' FRIEND.

Originator of the "Plimpsoll Mark" is Dying at an Advanced Age.

LONDON, June 1.—Samuel Plimpsoll, known as "The Sailors' Friend," originator of the famous "Plimpsoll mark," to prevent the overloading of ships, is said to be dying at Folkestone. He was at one time president of the National Amalgamated Sailors' and Firemen's union of Great Britain and Ireland and is the author of "Our Seamen" and "Cattle Ships." He was born at Bristol in 1824 and went into parliament for the express purpose of helping the sailors.

Another Game Chalked Up in the Wrong Column.

New Castle Had Little Trouble Winning the Third Game From Fort Wayne--The Other Games.

Fort Wayne dropped one peg nearer the bottom of the percentage column yesterday. Alloway was in the points for the Hoosiers and the Novacastrians had no trouble hitting his curves. His support was not gilt-edged by a long ways, however. Clarence Smith tossed the ball for the New Castles and Sharp was the only member of the Fort Wayne team who hit his curves with any degree of effectiveness. The game was lost because the Hoosiers were unable to solve Smith's curves. The team plays in Youngstown today and the fight for the tail end will be on. There is one consolation. Youngstown must win four games (which is an impossibility) to head off our own. Score:

GIVES ARMY A HOSPITAL.

Mrs. L. Z. Leiter Purchases a Hotel Near Chickamauga Park.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Mrs. L. Z. Leiter has purchased and presented to the government for use as a military hospital the Chickamauga park hotel at Crawfish Springs. The purchase price was $10,000. Dr. Nicholas Senn, of this city, now an assistant surgeon general of the army, conducted the negotiations for the transfer of the property, and will have personal charge of converting it into a hospital for sick and wounded soldiers. Dr. Senn found the government's arrangements for taking care of its invalided men very meager and he happened to mention the fact to Mrs. Leiter.

That lady's heart was instantly touched and she authorized the famous surgeon to purchase a building and draw on her for the amount expended. Dr. Senn purchased the Chickamauga Park hotel, and on Sunday night Mrs. Leiter wired her husband, who had come to Chicago to witness the closing of his son's wheat deal, about the transaction. Mr. Leiter promptly wired the doctor to draw on him for any amount he needed to carry out his wife's philanthropic enterprise. Mr. Leiter said yesterday that the hotel will be instantly prepared for the reception and care of patients and that there will be no presentation ceremony.

MUST TEST MILK.

Dairymen May be Compelled to Get Certificates.

An Effort Will be Made to Have the Council Pass an Ordinance--Councilmen Favor the Law.

The board of health is making an effort to have only the purest milk sold to the consumers of Fort Wayne and with this idea in view the council will be importuned to pass an ordinance compelling every dairyman who sells milk to Fort Wayne citizens to have his cattle tested for tuberculosis and receive a certificate of health for his dairy. Members of the board have talked with one-half of the councilmen and they all express themselves as in favor of such an ordinance. In the recent examinations Drs. Meyers and Drayer found more than $1,000 worth of cattle who were unhealthy and they did not examine every head. The board is going to push the matter and it is expected there will be no opposition from the councilmen.

BOARD OF WORKS.

At the regular meeting of the board of works yesterday afternoon, the engineer submitted plans and specifications for sewers as follows:

In the alley west of Barthold street, from Third street to the first alley north of High street; in the alley north of High from Barthold to Wefel; in the alley south of Third, from the alley west of Barthold street to the west line of Clark's addition; in the alley west of Wefel street, from the alley south of Third street to High street; in the alley between Third and Fourth streets, from Barthold street to the west line of Clark's addition. The plans were approved, and the board immediately passed resolutions, declaring the resolutions necessary, and work will commence as soon as bids are received.

The board approved the sewer builders' bond of Louis Areon, and the bond of Roman Zoeller, for relaying a sidewalk on the south side.

Some time was devoted to a discussion of contemplated improvements in other parts of town, but no further action was taken.

O. E. Guelick, agent for the Alcatraz Construction company, reported that work had commenced on the pavement of south side streets, and would be pushed.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

The council committee of the whole will meet at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, at the corner of Broadway and Taylor street, and proceed over the proposed route of the South Wayne sewer. It is desired that every member of the city council attend, as the matter of annexation of property adjacent to the southern part of the city is one of the utmost importance.

The police and fire departments were paid off in orders today.

The board of works has received the shipping bill for the two new LaFrance fire engines, which are en route here from Elmira, N. Y.

Contractor Guelich put about sixty men to work on East Creighton avenue this morning and as soon as the work is fairly started he may double this force.

The board of safety met last evening, but transacted no business of importance. Weighmaster Butke did not resign and Captain Reese was therefore not elected to fill a position in which there is no vacancy.

A beautiful and impressive marriage ceremony was last evening solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Foster, No. 19 Lavina street. The contracting parties were Will Sweany, the popular young druggist, of Monroeville, and Elanore, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kethcart, formerly of this city, but now of St. Louis, Mo. At 5 o'clock, to the familiar strains of Tannhausen, with Miss Maud Weingardner at the piano, the bride in a becoming gown of gray and mouseline de soie, attended by Miss Lola Foster, in white silk and lace, entered on the arm of the groom. A beautiful ceremony was preformed by Rev. C. C. Cissel, after which immediate friends were served a wedding dinner by Mrs. Foster. Covers were laid for ten. The floral decorations were carnations and smilax. After June 5 Mr. and Mrs. Sweany will be at home to a large circle of friends at Monroeville, Ind.

Walter Carey, a Western Union telegraph operator, while riding his wheel last evening met with an accident which might have resulted seriously. At the corner of Harmer and Wayne streets a dog chased after his wheel and suddenly tried to dash between the wheels of the bicycle. The hind wheel struck the dog and Walter was thrown several yards into the air and alighted on his face. He went to Carl Rastetter's drug store and an examination showed that his face was badly scratched and bruised, but there was no serious injuries. Walter is carrying his face around in a sticking plaster today.

THE RIVALS.

Schley and His Antagonist at Santiago.

Men and the Fleets That Confront Each Other--Americans are Superior to the Enemy.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Admiral Cervera and Commodore Schley are the commanders of the Spanish and American naval forces now in and around the Bay of Santiago de Cuba.

The situation is very like that which prevailed in Asiatic waters before the fall of Manila. It was a Spanish admiral versus an American commodore there also. The Spaniard was in his own bay under the protection of his own guns. But it must be said that Schley has not the first-class, deep and wide entrance to the enemy's waters that Dewey had in Manila. Neither is Schley's squadron as remarkably superior to the Spaniards, in Santiago de Cuba bay as was Dewey's to those in Manila bay.

Spain's four cruisers have neither the thickness nor the toughness of the Iowa and Massachusetts in armor plate.

The perforation power of their guns is not as high as that of the Americans'. The tonnage of the Massachusetts, Iowa and Brooklyn is in total 30,969. That of Spain's ships is in total 27,840. Spain's four ships can throw a total at one discharge of 9,900 pounds. Schley's armored ships can throw one-half again as much.

If the power, measured in metal, of the Harvard and the New Orleans, which will soon be a part of the squadron, be added to Schley's forces, the Americans will nearly double the Spaniards in fighting strength.

Then, speaking of the armored ships alone, the American plate is thicker and tougher, for it is believed that the armor of the Vizcaya, Oquendo, Teresa and Colon is of the "composite" kind, while ours is nickel steel. The belt armor of the Spaniards is ten to twelve inches thick, while that of the American battleships is eighteen inches thick. So much for the armored ships.

In unarmored ships the Spaniards have the Pluton and Furor, two torpedo boat destroyers, to the Americans' Marblehead and New Orleans, protected cruisers; the Harvard, unprotected cruiser; the Dupont, torpedo boat, and the Eagle and Vixen, destroyers.

It certainly looks like an uneven match, but that fact is comforting to the Americans. Still, if the Spaniards can shoot at all they should certainly be able to avenge the disaster in Manila Bay on some of our unarmored ships if they go within range of the big eleven-inch guns on the Spanish cruisers, providing, of course, the Spaniards' attention is not distracted by the fire of the American battle ships, a provision that probably has already been arranged by Commodore Schley himself.

Taking it all around the outlook from any point of view is not pleasant for Admiral Cervera. He may prove the Montejo of Schley, an incident of the war that the American people can contemplate with perfect complacency.

Vermont and the north have their Dewey, Maryland and the south may have their Schley.

The appellate court has rendered a decision which will be of interest to the people of cities, to the effect that city councils have no right to grant permits to any individual or concern for any purpose that will in any manner obstruct a highway to the traveling public; that the streets belong to the people, and no one can occupy them for the vending of any article, though even a permit for a consideration has been secured from city authorities. This will shut out street fakirs and sidewalk stands.

POLICE NEWS.

Superintendent Gorsline Asked to Locate Frank J. Geiger.

Friends in Switzerland Have Not Heard of Him for Eight Years--Police Court.

Superintendent Gorsline is in receipt of a letter from the Swiss consul at Cincinnati, asking him to locate Frank J. Geiger, who at one time resided in Fort Wayne. Twelve or fifteen years ago Geiger was employed in a hotel or restaurant in this city and since 1890 his relatives and friends in Switzerland have not heard from him. The superintendent is making diligent inquiry about the man today, but finds nobody who remembers him under that name at least.

PRISON AWAITS ALL.

British Consul at Havana Warns Correspondents Away.

KEY WEST, Fla., June 1.—W. H. J. Taylor, the British consul here, has received a cablegram from Alexander Gollan, British consul general at Havana, in the following terms:

"Please warn British correspondents of newspapers who may be in Key West, with the intention of coming to Cuba, to avoid attempting to do so, and especially by the means adopted by Knight, Robinson and Whigham, all of whom were arrested and are now in prison.

"It is needless to say that this recommendation applies with still greater stringency to correspondents who are American citizens. Give all possible publicity to this."

The tree correspondents named in the dispatch crossed to Cuba in newspaper tugs and landed from small boats, only to be immediately captured.

Knight, who represents the London Times, is in Fortress Cabanas, at Havana; Phil Robinson, of the Pall Mall Gazette, and H. J. Whigham, who represents the London Standard, are in the Matanzas jail.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Wallen M. E. church will give a social in the church parlors next Saturday night.

A Gunshot Wound

From Which Dangerous Blood Poison Results.

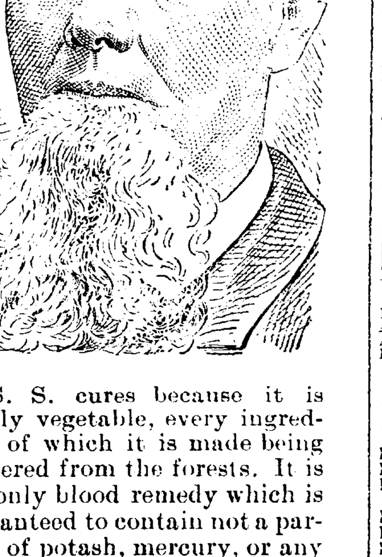

It matters not how blood poison is acquired, whether by inheritance or accident, it is a stubborn, obstinate disease and one which the doctors find themselves unable to successfully treat. Whenever there is the slightest impurity in the blood, any accident which produces even a trivial bruise or contusion of the flesh, is likely to result seriously. Chronic sores and ulcers often result from such causes, and in many cases they are so obstinate that it takes years to get rid of them.

The doctors are unable to cure such cases because potash and mercury (the only remedies which they ever prescribe for the blood) tend to shut in the poison and dry it up in the blood. Here it lies dormant for a while, only to break out in a more aggravated form than before. This treatment is continued and the same conditions exist for years, the old sore or ulcer becoming a constant companion to those whom it afflicts.

Capt. J. H. McBrayer, the well-known distiller of fine Kentucky whiskies, had just such an experience, and he is so delighted to find a cure after many years of suffering that he wants everybody to know just how to get rid of these horrible chronic sores. He now resides at Lawrenceburg, Ky., and writes:

"Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. The place was slow in healing and became much swollen, increasing in size and becoming quite angry-looking and inflamed. Before long it had developed into a running sore, and gave me a great deal of pain and inconvenience. I was treated by many doctors, and took a number of blood remedies but none did me any good, and did not seem to check the progress of the sore. I had heard Swift's Specific (S.S.S.) highly recommended for the blood, and concluded to give it a trial, and the result was highly gratifying. S. S. S. seemed to get right at the trouble and forced the poison out of my blood: soon afterwards the sore healed up and was cured sound and well. I am sure S. S. S. is by far the best blood remedy made."

It is easy to explain why S. S. S. is so successful in curing all manner of blood troubles, it matters not how deep-seated they are. It is a real blood remedy and goes down to the very bottom of the blood and forces out every impurity, acting on the correct principle of eliminating the poison, rather than shutting it up in the system like mineral remedies do.

S. S. S. cures because it is purely vegetable, every ingredient of which it is made being gathered from the forests. It is the only blood remedy which is guaranteed to contain not a particle of potash, mercury, or any other mineral. S. S. S. will cure the most obstinate blood disease, which other remedies can not possibly reach. Valuable books on blood diseases will be sent free to any address by the Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

A BARBAROUS RELIC.

Spanish Muleta, Found in a St. Augustine Fort, Sent to Secretary Alger.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Secretary Alger has received from Ocean Springs, Miss., a Spanish weapon known as a muleta, which is said to be used by the torradors in bull fights. It was sent by Newcomb Clark, of that place, who said that the weapon had an interesting history, having been made in the eighteenth century. The sender recalled that in dismantling a Spanish fort in St. Augustine early in the civil war in one of the casements there was found the remains of a dozen men, who, unquestionably, had been imprisoned there.

Among other things discovered with their skeletons was the muleta sent to the secretary. It came into the sender's possession in 1864 from a soldier who reported that he had found it at the place indicated. The weapon is about fourteen inches long, made of twisted hide which on the ends is fitted into a cylinder of iron or steel.

Attached to the iron cylinders are a number of small rings which presumably serve for the purpose of attaching to the thongs with instruments of torture at their end. The curiosity will be presented to the president by Secretary Alger.

Messrs. John Bass, jr., and E. C. Crampton have returned from an extended sojourn in the south.

The Crippled Pennsylvania Engines Taken in for Repairs.

Naval Recruits Will Pass Through the City Tonight—Local and Personal Gossip.

Passenger engine 143 and freight engine 317, which collided near Lima yesterday morning, were brought here last night and this morning taken into the shops for repairs. The freight engine escaped serious damage, but No. 142 had both cylinders and her smoke box smashed in, her cab demolished and frames broken. Engineer Tony Kelker, who was on the limited, said to a SENTINEL reporter this morning that he succeeded in stopping his train and if he had had a few more seconds, would have gotten out of harm's way. When the freight train was only a few yards away Mr. Kelker jumped from his cab, but did not get far enough away. The side of the cab fell out and struck him on the back and shoulders, inflicting painful bruises.

Tonight there will be 130 naval recruits on a special train which will pass through this city at 8 o'clock. The men are en route from Chicago to Norfolk, Va.

Martin B. Didion, who had been on a wedding tour, resumed his place in the Pittsburg lumber yards this morning. He and his bride are now housekeeping on Laselle street.

Engineer Al Becker, the greatest of the Nickel Plate fisherman, has taken a week's vacation, which will be devoted to efforts at enticing bass and pickerel from the streams hereabouts.

J. Collins and M. Hughes, machinists in the Pittsburg shops, are working again. The latter, the reader will remember, had a hand terribly mangled several weeks ago. Mr. Collins had been sick.

William Bryant, caller at the Pittsburg round house, and his wife returned home last evening. They had been visiting relatives in New York and New Jersey and say they had a most pleasant time.

Theodore N. Kucher, assistant master mechanic of the Pennsylvania shops at Allegheny, returned to that city yesterday, after spending Decoration day with his mother and brothers on Savilla avenue.

The men killed at Wabash yesterday, as noted in these columns, proved to be Samuel and William Jenks, residents of that city. The young man was a mute and the older one very hard of hearing.

Foreman I. Wise, of the Pittsburg tank shop, returned home this morning. He had been to Mansfield, where his brother now lies a victim of paralysis. The unfortunate man is in a precarious condition.

The shops of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern will today begin running sixty hours a week. For three years they have been running but forty hours a week. These shops now have 600 men on the pay rolls.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Stoner yesterday moved from Fostoria, Ohio, to this city. Mr. Stoner is a Nickel Plate employe and for some time was engaged as a switchman. He will take a place as brakeman in the through freight service.

The Pennsylvania, on Saturday, put in effect its summer time table from Philadelphia to Atlantic City and other New Jersey seaside resorts. The road from Philadelphia to Atlantic City is double track its entire distance, is laid with steel rails weighing ninety pounds to the yard, and the running time of several of the express trains has been shortened.

A Baltimore and Ohio train last Sunday covered the distance between Cumberland and Washington, 152 miles, in three hours and five minutes, breaking all previous fast run records between those points. The train carried the St. Louis base ball club.

Foreman William Madison, of the lathe department of the Pittsburg machine shop, will accompany his son, Frank, and wife as far as Chicago on their way to Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madison have been visiting here for two or three weeks.

The Indianapolis Journal thus compliments the general manager of the Pennsylvania company: "Mr. L. F. Loree should be gratified over what he, with his subordinate officers, have been able to accomplish in the increasing of the net earnings. The fact that the net earnings of the lines west of Pittsburg in the four months ending April 30 increase $519,200, while those of lines east of Pittsburg increased but $57,000, is a statement that any general manager may well be pleased with."

TRIES TO POISON WATER.

Soldier at Jacksonville Frustrates an Attempt by an Unknown Man.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 1.—An attempt was made early yesterday morning by an unknown man to poison the water supply here.

The guard detail for the day was from the First North Carolina regiment, and much praise is due Private A. J. Phelps, of Company M, for his strict vigilance. He was on the 2 o'clock detail, and noticed a suspicious character trying to climb the wire fence on the eastern side of the reservoir. The man was just about to throw a package into the water, when he was ordered to halt. He did not do so and the guard immediately discharged his piece. This so frightened the man that he turned and ran.

It was not possible to learn whether he was white or black. A white man was arrested today. He is a suspicious looking character and was found loitering near the new Duval hotel. He could give no satisfactory account of himself and was ordered to jail for five days pending a thorough examination by the authorities.

CRAMPS' BIG CONTRACT.

To Construct $15,000,000 of Warships for the Russians.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Information was supplied in this city from an authoritative source that the contracts secured by Charles H. Cramp from the Russian government amounted to $15,000,000.

The contracts call for the construction of twelve vessels—one first-class battleship, one first-class cruiser and ten torpedo-boat destroyers.

These vessels are to be finished throughout at Cramp's with armaments, guns, cannons, etc., and are to be turned over to the Russian government complete and ready for action.

When Mr. Cramp returned from Europe a fortnight ago he announced that the contracts called for one battleship and one cruiser.

Subsequently, when reports were received that the contracts included additional vessels and thorough equipments, Mr. Cramp declined to supply any more details, saying that the news must come from the Russian government.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION.

Tar Paper Factory Wrecked and Many Men Injured in New York.

NEW YORK, June 1.—A terrific explosion occurred early today in the tar paper factory of Tobias New & Co., on East Nineteenth street, in which a number of persons were seriously injured, the entire plant was wrecked and thousands of dollars of damage was done. No one was killed, but it is feared that some of the injured may die. The injured are:

Tobias New, the proprietor; Philip Greenfield, engineer; Victor Rosche, chief engineer; John O'Neill, engineer; Joseph Lamende, rag picker; unknown Italian woman, Leo J. Kahn, Solomon Kahn, Thomas Ryan, John Judge.

New, Rosche, Greenfield and O'Neill were in the engine room when the explosion took place. The firemen think the explosion was caused by an accumulation of tar gas.

TORNADO IN MISSOURI.

Many Houses Demolished, but No One Seriously Injured.

KING CITY, Mo., June 1.—A destructive tornado passed across the country south of this place last evening. The village of Orchid, seven miles distant, was struck and the houses of J. B. Harper, William Owens, D. E. Moore, Alvis Price, Horace Gilbert and Henry Garratt were demolished.

No one in the village was seriously injured, as the people had taken warning from the condition of the atmosphere and the threatening clouds and sought places of safety.

At Berlin, eight miles east of here, the storm was accompanied by a heavy hail, which drifted two feet deep in places and which caused incalculable damage to crops and seriously damaged buildings.

TOM KEENE IS DYING,

Tragedian Fails to Rally After the Surgical Operation.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Thomas W. Keene, the tragedian, who was compelled to bring his Canadian tour to a sudden end last week because of appendicits and was operated upon at the Smith infirmary, Staten island, is failing to rally from it and is now at the point of death.

A PLEA FOR SPAIN.

Political Situation Discussed by Hannis Taylor.

The Former Minister Hopes the United States Will be Generous When Concluding Peace.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Hannis Taylor, recently United States minister to Spain, discusses in the June number of the North American Review the political future of Spain.

Mr. Taylor considers historically the circumstances out of which have risen the two leading political parties in the peninsular kingdom, which have been equally resolute in resisting the republicans on the one hand and the Carlists on the other, since the re-establishment in 1874 of the present dynasty.

United, Mr. Taylor says, these parties are more than a match for all their opponents.

"No matter what may happen in the external politics of Spain; no matter if she is stripped of all colonial possessions; no matter if Romero and Weyler do try to stir up civil war for their own selfish ends, Spain is safe so long as conservatives and liberals stand together to preserve social order under the existing constitution."

Mr. Taylor is strongly of the opinion that the time has not come for Spain to depart from monarchical institutions. This being the case Mr. Taylor asks why "the present dynasty should be overthrown, why the wise and devoted queen regent should be driven out on account of national misfortunes, for which neither she nor her son is in any way responsible."

"The most priceless possession of Spain," says Mr. Taylor, "is Maria Christina, because she alone bars the door to a renewal of civil war which at this moment would be destructive to the country. In this dark hour of Spain's misfortune her pure womanly character shines forth like a light in a dark place, round which all patriotic Spaniards should gather. As monarchial institutions surviving her overthrow means the accession of Don Carlos, who, apart from his utter and admitted worthlessness as a man, represents a set of mediavial ideas and aspirations that would set Spain far into the past—at least a century."

As confirming his belief that Spain is not ripe for a republic, Mr. Taylor thusreters to the attitude of Emilio Castelar.

"If anybody clearly comprehends and loves Spain, he does," says Mr. Taylor. "In his mighty brain is stored away her whole history as a part of the history of Europe. In his heart is an unselfish and filial love of country as lofty and unselfish as ever ennobled a patriot. Convinced years ago that Spain was not prepared for a republic he resolved to retire from the political arena and to transmit his aspirations to another channel."

Mr. Taylor expresses the hope that the United States in their dealings with Spain at the end of the present war will follow a course consistent with their own moral dignity, and in the hour of victory remember that justice and generosity should characterize their dealing with a friendly nation.

"When the end comes," he says, "let us resolve to be just and generous, not only to Cuba, but to Spain too."

CADIZ FLEET A PAPER ONE.

Vessels of an Antiquated Type and Lacking in Machinery.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The frequent reports from Spain through other countries to the effect that a formidable fleet is being prepared at Cadiz to sail for West Indian waters in aid of Cevera causes little apprehension here. Naval officers, through private means of communication, have pretty well satisfied themselves that the Cadiz fleet is a paper fleet. In other words, its offensive power is altogether illusory.

More than half of the vessels whose names appear so frequently in the press dispatches as formidable war craft are of antiquated type and in a sad state of disorder.

The old Numancia is an examplo. She is rated as a battle ship of the first-class. In her day she was a battle ship, but she has not a turret or a sponson, and would be little more than sport for a modern ironclad.

In addition to being antiquated, most of these vessels are broken down in engines and boilers. In their reckless disregard of the simplest precautions for the preservation of the complex machinery of a war ship, the Spaniards are excelled by no people, and it is well known that they have been obliged to hire British engineers to run their engines whenever they did run.

There are some vessels at Cadiz, although a very few, of modern type, but they are not numerous or powerful enough to give our navy any serious concern.

PREPARING FOR EMERGENCY

England Buys 120,000 Barrels of Flour for Kingston.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 1.—The British government has purchased in the United States for delivery here 120,000 barrels of flour for the navy and army stores.

The order was placed with a Minneapolis company. The flour will be transported here by the Atlas Steamship company.

The transaction is significant as showing British preparation for an emergency.

Tomorrow afternoon the Home Missionary society of St. John's Lutheran church will meet at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lapp, about three miles south of the city. Friends wishing to go should meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Rothenberger at 1 o'clock. Should the weather be disagreeable, society will go the next day at same hour.

BILL SCOTT HURT.

The Candidate for Treasurer in a Runaway Today.

His Horse Frightened and He Was Thrown to the Ground, Receiving Quite Serious Injuries.

William Scott, a prominent Lafayette township farmer, and candidate for county treasurer, was quite seriously injured in a runaway this morning.

Mr. Scott and Mrs. Putt were driving to the city on the Bluffton road. When near school house No. 8, Wayne township, a peddler came along the road from the city with a push cart. The horse frightened at the horseless vehicle and started to run away. Mr. Scott and Mrs. Putt were thrown to the ground and the buggy completely demolished. Jas. Cunniston, who lives near by, caught the horse. An examination showed that Mrs. Putt was uninjured. Not so with Mr. Scott, however. He was badly bruised about the face, side and arm, the injury to the side being especially painful. Assessor Thomas Greer happened along shortly after the accident and he brought Mr. Scott to the city. The injured man was taken to the home of his daughter, on Shawnee avenue, where he is being cared for. While the injuries are quite painful they are not considered at all dangerous.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The Day Was Quiet and the Usual Number of Callers Appeared.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The usual contingent of callers from congress were at the white house today. There were numerous inquiries as to the bombardment of Santiago, but up to late in the forenoon there was no official information to impart to them. Senator Jones, of Arkansas; Fairbanks, of Indiana; Thurston, of Nebraska; Money, of Mississippi; Daniel, of Virginia, and Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, were there early in conference.

Matters were very quiet at the white house and there was little indication of an important stage in the war situation.

Senator Davis and ex-Assistant Secretary of War Grant, of Minnesota; Senator Sewell, of New Jersey; Senator Foraker, of Ohio, and the Louisiana delegation in the house, who urged some staff appointments from their state, were also among those who came to talk over army matters. Representative Grosvenor, accompanied a large delegation of officers of the Seventh Ohio regiment, mostly men from his district, to pay their respects to the president. The men are in camp at Camp Alger.

OLD SETTLERS' MEETING

Postponed on Account of the Ill-Health of Elder William Walker.

The old settlers of Allen and Wells county have decided to postpone the picnic which was to have been held at Seimon's grove, Zanesville, Friday afternoon in honor of the ninety-second anniversary of the birth of Elder William Walker. The postponement is necessary owing to the ill-health of Mr. Walker.

DECREE PUBLISHED.

French Government Provisionally Extends Benefits of Minimum Tariffs.

PARIS, June 1.—A decree was published today provisionally extending the benefits of the minimum tariff to various American products.

LOCAL LINES.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Manor, of Detroit, Mich., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Denny Ryan, of Ceesse. Mr. Manor will return to Detroit and Mrs. Manor will remain two or three weeks and renew old acquaintances.

Mrs. W. C. Patterson, of No. 61 Thomas street, will entertain the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Firemen and their friends at tea Thursday evening, from 2 till 6, assisted by Mesdames Hays and Wells.

After an absence of six years John A. Morton, formerly a resident of Marion township, but now of Logan county, Ohio, has returned to visit his relatives and friends, and is the guests of his sons, William Morton, of Grace avenue, and Richard Morton, of Bass street. Mr. Morton, sr., was born in Marion township sixty years ago, and made his home in Allen county until he moved to Ohio. He is still hale and vigorous and is enjoying his vist among familiar scenes and old friends. Mr. Morton will remain in the city until after the democratic county convention in order to renew old acquaintances. For many years Mr. Morton has been a reader of THE SENTINEL and is still a subscriber to his favorite newspaper.

Little Noise in Berlin.

Berlin, of all big cities, has most successfully dealt with the problem of keeping noises down to the minimum. Railway engines cannot blow their whistles inside the city limits. Hucksters, newsboys and street peddlers are not allowed to bawl their wares. A wagon that makes an unnecessary rattling is stopped and its driver is lucky to escape a fine. The courts never hesitate to impose a pecuniary penalty on people that make useless noise, and they have a wide discretion. Even piano playing is regulated in a town noted for its music-loving inhabitants. Before a certain hour at night no one is at liberty to indulge in practice, and mere pounding on a piano is unlawful at all hours.

ETIQUETTE OF STATE.

Rigid Rules of Precedence Govern the Social Events of the Administration.

"The wife of the president makes and returns no visits. The wife of the vice president pays first visit only to the wife of the president," writes Mary Nimmo Balentine in an illustrated article on "Women of the United States Senate" in The Woman's Home Companion.

"The wives of senators make first calls on the wife of the president, the wife of the vice president, the wives of the embassadors, the ladies of the supreme court and upon each other in the order of the length of service of their husbands in the senate. The wife of the vice president holds receptions on Wednesdays, cabinet day, because her husband is a member of the president's cabinet, while the day of receiving for senators' wives is Thursday, between the hours of 3 and 6 in the afternoon. These receptions begin after the 1st of January and continue to be held until Lent begins. Some ladies observe the day for receiving all the time congress is in session. The customary preparations for holding an afternoon reception are to station one man at the drive to open and shut carriage doors and call carriages and another at the hall door to admit callers and take cards. The hostess receives the visitors standing near the door of the entrance and is dressed in a high necked gown, which may otherwise be as elaborate as taste may dictate. Visitors may be announced by name to the hostess by an usher or may speak their names themselves.

"Any person is at liberty to make the visits at the homes of senators, and all persons are cordially received. Those leaving cards expect their visits to be returned. Resident and nonresident sightseers who call without introduction of any sort do not leave cards. A large proportion of the official folk owe first calls to the ladies of the senate, the ladies of the cabinet, the wives of foreign ministers and the wives of the members of the house of congress. These are termed 'duty calls' and must be returned in person. A woman whose husband is in the 'upper house' can be quite as exclusive as any lady of private position if she so desire. The women of the cabinet could not close their houses to the public, however much they might wish to do so."

No Wonder.

"I say, waiter, this salmon cutlet isn't half so good as the one I had here last week."

"Can't see why, sir. It's off the same fish!"—Punch

Mamma Could Swim.

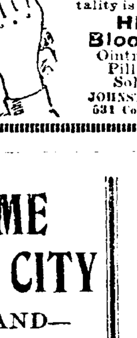

There was no little excitement in the vicinity of the Pacific Mail wharf shortly after 1 p. m. yesterday. Two native children, aged 5 and 6 respectively, jumped into a boat up near the king's boat house, and noticing that it was tied, started to have a good time. The jumping about of the children loosened the line, and the boat, aided by the wind, started out the channel. The children were powerless. The mother appeared on the walk leading from the king's boat house to shore, and immediately jumped into the water. She caught the boat off the marine railway, kissed the children, then spanked them, and rowed the boat back to position.—Pacific Commercial Advertiser.

Immortality for a Cent.

When the pedestal of the statue of Blair, which Missouri has presented to statuary hall, was standing in that hall the other day awaiting its bronze figure, some one noticed that in the center of the stone block was a small square hole. The Missouri delegation was present to watch the placing of the statue, and one of the congressmen fishing through his pockets found a cent. He put the coin in the square hole, and also deposited a bit of paper with his autograph. The example was contagious. Every member of the delegation put in a cent and his name, some curious bystanders did likewise, and by the time that the statue was placed in position there was almost enough copper in the pedestal to sheathe a ship.—Washington Post.

From the Wrong Quarters.

"Hello, Mike! What are you doing there?" shouted the riding instructor to an Irish recruit who had suddenly parted company with his mount. "You are not training to become a broom. You are wanted as an ornament for one of the cavalry regiments." "Faix, sorr, Oi know that, but it was the animal's fault intoirely." "Well, you had better get on that horse again," said the good-humored instructor. "Everything is regulated from headquarters, and if you want to roll about the ground you must get permission. I don't think you received orders from headquarters to lie down there, did you?" "No, sorr," replied the recruit, entering into the spirit of the joke, "it was from hindquarters, sorr!"

Worship by Telephone.

Three churches in England are now using telephones to reach the aged members, those who are ill, and doubtless some of the lazy. The plan is soon to be tried in our larger cities. A transmitter will be placed in front of the pulpit and another before the choir. These will be connected by a main wire to a point where, on diverging wires, the volume of sound will be distributed to the different subscribers. Some of our livelier pastors will be obliged to stand still if they wish to be rightly interpreted. This is the only difficulty which the plan presents.

FIFTY YEARS

Have Mr. and Mrs. Short Been Married.

The Venerable Couple Celebrate Their Golden Wedding, Surrounded by Children and Grandchildren.

Fifty years ago today, in an humble home in a sparsely settled portion of Starke county, Ind., occurred a ceremony which united in marriage Miss Lydia Whited and Mr. G. H. Short.

Today, in their commodious and pleasant home at 53 Elm street, this estimable couple is commemorating that event. Surrounded by their children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters and a few old friends, they repeated the vows of a half-century ago, pledges which have been sacredly observed during the many intervening years. Rev. G. E. Davies officiated today, speaking the words spoken by the clergyman at the original wedding and performing the quaint marriage service then in vogue. At its close congratulations were showered upon the aged couple and shortly afterward the entire party sat down to a repast, such as has gained for that venerable pair an enviable reputation for good cheer and hospitality.

At the dinner table three generations were represented. Mr. and Mrs. Short occupied the heads of the table and ranged on either side were the children, relatives and friends. Only one chair was vacant, J. C. Short, of Pasadena, being unable to get here in time for the celebration. The children present were Dr. R. B Short, of Union Mills, Ind.; F. A. Short, of Kankakee, Ill.; H. A. and T. E. Short, of Fort Wayne. William H. Whited and Stephen Whited, of Argos; Mrs. Maria Croco and Mrs. P. Goddell, of Plymouth, brothers and sisters of Mrs. Short, are also here, participating in the golden wedding.

Mr. Short is seventy-three years old and his wife is sixty-six. They are still healthy and active and bid fair to live to celebrate their diamond wedding. For many years he worked at house building, but for the past decade he has lived a retired life.

My little daughter's head and face broke out in bleeding sores. One of her ears was so affected we thought it would slough off. Her suffering was intense, getting no rest unless under opiates. The physician tried every known remedy, but instead of getting better, she got worse. Distracted with her condition, I was advised to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. Before the first week I noticed that the little sufferer was beginning to get relief, and in less than two months was entirely cured. MAMMOTH WAR LOAN

Issue of One Billion Pesetas is Decreed.

Spain to Borrow From Internal Sources.

France and Spain Have a Secret Alliance.

Such is the Belief of the London Chronicle—American and Britain Must Get Closer.

LONDON, June 1.—A special dispatch from Madrid says a decree has been published there authorizing the issue of an internal loan of 1,000,000,000 pesetas at 4 per cent.

MADRID, June 1.—The attention of the public today is absorbed in the condition of the Bank of Spain, which is considered more serious than any reverse of the war, inasmuch as the impossibility of the bank to help the government means impossibility to continue the war.

There was a long procession at the bank during the day. All classes of people were represented and many women were in line waiting their turn to change notes into silver, fearing the notes would soon be subjected to discount.

If the run continues there is danger of the bank's stock of silver becoming exhausted, which would compel the government to resort to a forced currency, issuing notes of small denomination. It is hoped, however, that the panic will subside, leaving the bank a margin of silver.

The financial outlook of Spain is rather dark. The government has entrusted the bank of Spain with the negotiations for a loan of 1,000,000,000 pesetas at 4 per cent., which sum to be increased as and when required. The bank will endeavor to raise the loan at home and abroad.

FRANCE AND SPAIN IN SECRET ALLIANCE.

LONDON, June 1.—The London Daily Chronicle thinks the general situation is grave and says the "rumors of a secret arrangement between France and Spain continue with singular persistence and the report of French designs upon the Canary islands and Ceuta are gathering strength."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "In commercial circle it is perfectly well understood that Great Britain will regard France's taking the Canaries or Ceuta as an unfriendly act and also that if France helps Spain, public opinion here will demand that we assist America."

The Pall Mall Gazette devotes much space to the Anglo-American relations, and while disavowing its belief that any treaty of alliance exists, says:

"There will be something better, the recognition of our unities, and the rapidly consolidating sense of common interests and brotherliness. Henceforth Great Britain and America will approach these lines in the right spirit, and Anglo-Saxon solidarity will become more and more a force to be reckoned with."

SPANISH TROOPS IN CUBA ARE WELL.

MADRID, June 1.—11 A. M.—In regard to the reported illness of the Spanish troops in Cuba, the inspector general of the sanitary department says the health of the army in Cuba is excellent.

According to the last reports received the sick list has been reduced one-half "as the forced marches have ended and the food has improved."

SPAIN BUYING CATTLE AND GRAIN IN MEXICO.

MEXICO CITY, June 1.—It is reported that the agents of the Spanish government are buying cattle and grain here, hoping to smuggle it out of the country in tramp steamers, which will endeavor to run the Cuban blockade. The matter will be looked into by the government which is determined to maintain a strict neutrality. The Spaniards are working very secretly in the matter.

Mexico has begun the export of wheat to Europe.

WIDE OPEN.

Trans-Mississippi Exposition Inaugurated.

President McKinley Touches the Button in Washington and Makes a Speech by Telephone.

OMAHA, Neb., June 1.—Amid the music of 100 bands, the cheers of 100,000 people, the blasts of many whistles and the waving of innumerable flags, the trans-Mississippi and international exposition was dedicated today.

Everything contributed to the smoothness of the final hours of preparations and nothing occurred to mar the occasion. At 9:30 a. m. the great civic parade started on its march from the center of the city to the grounds. The National Marine band led the splendid pageant and 100 musical organizations from the various states of the middle west contributed to the occasion.

The parade was three miles long, consisting of the officers and guests of the exposition, carriages, the semi-military organizations and all the secret societies of this and adjacent states. Early the special trains had begun to unload their crowds until the railroad men estimated that at least 100,000 people had arrived. The arrivals united with the citizens of Omaha and formed one solid phalanx along the routes of the parade for ten miles.

Rev. Dr. Nichols, of St. Louis, opened the exercises at the grounds with an appeal to Him who "doeth all things well, to shower his blessings on the enterprise and the people of the trans-Mississippi region, especially on the president, G. W. Wattles." Hon. John L. Webster, of Omaha, and Hon. John N. Baldwin, of Council Bluffs, were eulogized.

President McKinley addressed the assembled multitude by long distance telephone, touched the magic button and the exposition was dedicated. The weather could not have been more propitious and not a particle of dust was in evidence. This afternoon the Marine band will give a concert at the grounds and tonight a pyrotechnic display on the most elaborate scale will enliven the occasion.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—President McKinley today formally opened the trans-Mississippi and International exposition at Omaha, Neb., by touching an electric button at 1:30 o'clock in the telegraph office in the white house.

A few moments before 1 o'clock the president sent the following telegram of congratulations to the president of the exposition, Gordon W. Wattles:

"Hon. Gordon W. Wattles, President Trans-Mississippi Exposition, Omaha:

"The cordiality of the invitation extended to me to be present at the opening of your great exposition is deeply appreciated and I more deeply regret that public duties prevent me from leaving the capital at this time. The events of the memorable half century which the trans-Mississippi and International exposition commemorates are interwoven with the history of the whole nation and are of surpassing importance.

"The mighty west affords most striking evidences of the splendid achievements and possibilities of our people.

"It is a matchless tribute to the energy and endurance of the pioneer, while its vast agricultural development, its progress in manufactures, its advancement in the arts and sciences and in all departments of education and endeavor have been an inestimable contribution to the civilization and wealth of the world.

"Nowhere have the unconquerable determination, self-reliant strength and sturdy manhood of our American citizenship been more forcibly illustrated. In peace or war the men and women of the west have ever been in the vanguard.

"I congratulate the management upon its magnificent enterprise and assure all who participate in this undertaking of the deep interest which the government has in its success."

RECEPTION FOR TROOPS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—The steamship Moana arrived here today from Australian ports via Honolulu. At the latter place everything was in readiness for the reception of the troops on their way to Manila and the most elaborate preparations had been made. The cruiser Charleston had not arrived at Honolulu when the Moana left and none of the transports were sighted on the trip to this city.

BOYS TO THE FRONT

Old Third Regiment Has Left Camp Thomas.

Fort Wayne Companies in the Detachment.

Will be Hurried on to the Tampa Camp.

General Miles and Staff Reach Tampa—Adjutant General Corbin Fixing Apportionment of Second Call.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 1.—The first of the volunteer infantry left Chickamauga for Tampa today. The regiments which left were the One Hundred and Fifty-seventy Indiana, First Ohio, First District of Columbia and Second New York. Tomorrow the Third Pennsylvania, First Illinois, Fifth Maryland and Sixty-ninth New York will leave.

The second New York, under Col. E. C. Hardin, left camp at 5 o'clock and marched five miles to Rossville station. This regiment has been in camp in Chickamauga since May 20.

The regiment is composed of companies from Troy, Cohoes, Schenectady, Saratoga, Hoosac Falls, White Hall, Mohawk, Poughkeepsie and Amsterdam.

The next regiment to leave camp was the First Ohio, which started on a nine-mile march to Ringgold, Ga., at 6 o'clock. The regiment has been at Chickamauga since May 15. Col. D. B. Hunt is in command.

The One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Indiana left camp at 9 o'clock and marched to Ringgold. This regiment has been in camp in Chickamauga since May 15.

The companies are from South Bend, Angola, Auburn, Waterloo, Fort Wayne, North Manchester, Ligonier, Elkhart, Plymouth, Knox and Goshen. Col. George M. Studebaker is one of the youngest colonels in the army, being but thirty-five years of age.

The First Regiment, District of Columbia left camp and marched to Rossville. This regiment is composed of 1,050 men from Washington under Col. George H. Harries. It has been camped in the park since May 23.

The First Illinois cavalry arrived this morning on three trains.

The command numbers 1,018 officers and men under Col. E. C. Young.

There are still 43,000 troops here. The order issued to recruit all the regiments to the standard of 1,307 men will largely increase the number and with the constant arrivals will keep the army near the 50,000 mark.

General Brockinridge continues his inspection and is doing much toward getting the various regiments in serviceable condition.

GENERAL MILES REACHES TAMPA.

TAMPA, Fla., June 1.—General Nelson A. Miles, accompanied by his entire staff and a force of clerks, arrived in Tampa at 6:30 this morning from Washington over the Florida Central and Peninsular railroad. General Miles was accompanied also by his wife, daughter and son.

General Miles was tired out from his long dusty journey and retired to his room shortly after his arrival. He refused to discuss the plan of campaign in any way. General Miles is apparently beginning to feel the terrific strain he has been under for the past few months. There is no less elasticity in his step and his sturdy figure is as upright as ever, but the lines of his face have perceptibly deepened and his hair is whiter. Lieut. J. D. Miley, of General Shafter's staff has returned from an inspection of various points along the east coast of Florida.

A firing drill of the whole brigade of light artillery of ten batteries of four guns each, was held along the beach at Port Tampa today. All the artillery manouvres were gone through with and the enthusiasm was intense. For an hour the artillery men dashed up and down the long beach through shallow water and over the hammers of Picnic Island wheeling the guns into line at command and firing. The noise of the firing at times were deafening.

FIXING THE QUOTAS UNDER SECOND CALL.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Adjutant General Corbin is engaged in making up the apportionment of troops which each state is to be asked to furnish under President McKinley's second call for 75,000 men. Because of an excess over their quota under the last call, some of the states will not be asked for any additional men at this time. So far as is possible the existing regiments will be recruited to their maximum strength. Some of the state governors in their communications with the war department have manifested a decided opposition to filling up the existing regiments, preferring to recruit entirely new organizations, and in some of these cases it is likely the department may yield, although no one will make any official statement to the effect. There is a disposition on the part of the war department to avoid unseemly wrangle over the matter, but instead to yield a point for the sake of appearances.

Ample authority, it is said, exists under the volunteer act for the war department to proceed on its own responsibility with the work of recruiting without any call on the governors to assist in that work.

MASSING RATIONS AT JACKSONVILLE.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The war department is massing rations for thirty days for the troops that are assembling at Jacksonville, Fla., under command of Major General Lee. The officials decline to say how many men are to be concentrated there or whether they will stay at that place for the full thirty days for which the rations are provided.

EARLY REGIMENTS TO BE RECRUITED ANEW.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—An order was issued by the war department today which provides that the organizations accepted and mustered into the United States service under the president's first call for troops will be expanded from the 75,000 men asked for under the second call so that each regiment shall consist of twelve companies troops, batteries, and each battalion squadrons of four companies, and of the maximum enlisted strength provided by the volunteer army act.

Regimental and independent battalion commanders are to select a recruiting party to obtain recruits in the locality where the organization was raised. Additional companies necessary for the completion of regiments and battalions are to be mustered by the same rules that obtained under the president's first proclamation.

WHAT TO SEND.

The Things Sick and Wounded Soldiers Need.

Food Delicacies, Linen Bandages and Sleeping Gowns Advised by Surgeon General Sternburg.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1.—Surgeon General Sternburg, of the army, has received numerous letters from patriotic ladies asking what articles would be most acceptable for the use of our sick and wounded soldiers in the field or in hospitals.

For the purpose of answering in a general way these inquiries, he has prepared the following memorandum, which will be sent to persons communicating with him on this subject:

"Money may be sent to the surgeon general of the army as a contribution to the hospital funds of hospital ship 'Relief' and of the United States general hospitals. This will be sent to the surgeons in charge, to be expended for delicacies for the sick, such as canned soups, jellies, lemons, oranges, etc.

"Shirts and drawers are provided by the government but will be accepted and can be given to convalescents upon their being discharged from the hospital. Pajamas made of tigh gingham will be useful for the sick in hospitals and on the hospital ship, as they can be worn by convalescents who are able to be out of bed.

"Long night shirts of light muslin can also be utilized.

"Broad bandages of light flannel to protect the abdomen are highly recommended and may be worn to advantage by our soldiers in the field.

"Those who prefer may contribute canned soups, clam broth, orange marmalade, ginger ale, biscuit, water crackers, and similar articles in hermetically sealed cans, for use on the hospital ship "Relief," and at the United States general hospitals at Key West, Fla., Fort McPherson, Ga.; Fort Thomas, Ky., and Fort Meyer, Va.

"Bandages, lint and other surgical dressings are not desired, as these can now be obtained from the manufacturers sterilized for use and of the quality which experience has shown to be best suited to our purposes.

"The articles mentioned may be sent direct to the surgeon general of the army or the surgeons in charge of the general hospitals named."

THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—When the war revenue bill was taken up the absence of a quorum was suggested and fifteen minutes were consumed in assembling the requisite number of senators. Mr. Chandler, republican, of New Hampshire, assuming, he said, that the majority of the finance committee would insist upon its proposition to coin the silver seigniorage, and that the republican minority would press its bond proposition, thought it proper to offer some remarks upon an amendment which he had offered to the pending bill. The amendment follows:

"And it is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States not to commit the country more thoroughly to the gold standard, but that the efforts of the government in all its branches shall be steadily directed to secure and maintain the use of silver as well as gold as standard money, with the free coinage of both under a system of bimetallism which will insure the parity in value of the coins of the two metals, furnish a sufficient volume of metallic money and give immunity to the world of trade from violent fluctuations in exchange.

Schley Makes an Assault on Santiago.

Spanish Fleet Keep Out of the Battle.

Land Batteries Were Badly Damaged.

Details of the Engagement Very Difficult to Procure—Havana Claims Spanish Victory.

NEW YORK, June 1.—An Evening Journal special from Cape Hayton says:

The torpedo boat Porter arrived at Mole St. Nicholas at 1 o'clock with dispatches for Washington. She left immediately. But before going to sea the following story of the bombardment of Santiago de Cuba, the refuge of Cervera and the Spanish fleet was obtained by your correspondent at the Mole:

The American squadron, augmented by the torpedo boat Porter, the auxiliary cruiser St. Paul and the protected cruiser New Orleans, approached the entrance to the harbor of Santiago at about 1:30 p. m., the Iowa leading.

Inside the entrance to the harbor was seen one of the warships of Cervera's fleet, stripped for action. As the American fleet drew near the New Orleans was detached and steamed forward, ahead of the Iowa, Texas and Massachusetts.

One of the forts opened fire on her and she replied, the other two ships directing their fire at the battery on the Punta Gorda within the harbor and to westward of the position occupied by the Spanish ship.

The latter replied to the fire and immediately became a target for all the American ships engaged in the battle.

The Spanish fleet took refuge behind a protecting headland and was not seen again during the engagement.

The Iowa, directed by Captain "Fighting Bob" Evans; the Massachusetts, Capt. F. J. Higginson; the Texas, Capt. J. W. Phillip, and the New Orleans, Capt. W. M. Folger, kept up their terrific fire against the Morro, Socapa and Punta Gorda forts for two hours, their projectiles, of enormous size, doing tremendous damage to the defenses of the harbor.

The masonry on Socapa and Morro was battered almost into dust, and the forms of Spanish artillerymen and infantry could be plainly seen flying to safety behind the neighboring hills.

The auxiliary cruiser which joined Schley's fleet just before the battle took place was hit by shells from the forts, and it is thought she was seriously damaged. After seeking the protection of a jutting headland the Spanish warships continued to fire projectiles over the hills toward the fleet, but they had no range, not even directing their shots, and they fell harmlessly into the sea.

That the number of killed and wounded on the Spanish side is enormous, no one doubts, for time and again the American shells hit the batteries squarely and made the flying masonry and dismantled guns of the enemy easily descried.

The damage done to the American fleet cannot be learned, but it is not thought any person was killed—if, indeed, anyone was wounded.

(Copyright by the Associated Press.)

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, June 1.—8:30 a. m.—The following additional details have been received here, from a Spanish source at Havana, of the engagement reported off Santiago de Cuba yesterday:

The Spanish batteries at first answered the fire of the American squadron in a lively manner. After twenty minutes of firing, directed in a superior manner upon the part of the American fleet, the Spanish batteries began to weaken their fire and the American ships concentrated a violent fire upon El Morro, destroying it completely.

The fort at Cocapa and Punta Gorda fired the last shots.

The Spanish losses must have been considerable. Details are lacking as to the American losses.

The Spaniards pretend to have struck the American vessels several times, but this information is accepted here under reserve.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the American squadron ceased firing. [illegible] Spanish vessel [illegible].

None [illegible] from the Spanish [illegible].

HAVANA REPORT OF THE ENGAGEMENT.

[illegible]—The following Spanish [illegible] of the reported engagement off Santiago de Cuba has been issued here:

The American fleet, consisting of the Iowa, Massachusetts, Brooklyn, Texas, New Orleans, Marblehead, [illegible] and another cruiser, in addition to six small vessels, took up a position on May 31 on the western side of the mouth of Santiago de Cuba channel, opening fire from the first five vessels.

The Spanish cruiser Cristobal Colon was anchored toward Punta Gorda [illegible] to be seen from the open sea. The fire of the American fleet was answered by the Morro, Socapa and Punta Gorda batteries and by the cruiser Cristobal Colon.

The American fleet fired seventy shots, with projectiles of 12," without causing the least damage.

The bombardment lasted ninety minutes, and the American fleet retired with a trans-Atlantic steamer (auxiliary cruiser) damaged. Two shells were seen to explode on the Iowa's stern and there was fire on board another battle ship. Several projectiles fell inside the harbor, near the Spanish warships.

There is great enthusiasm at Santiago de Cuba and here.

CONFLICTING REPORTS ARE HEARD IN LONDON.

LONDON, June 1.—This city is bewildered by the conflicting reports from Santiago de Cuba which are reaching here from all sources.

"The Spanish fleet destroyed or surrendered," alternates with "reported battle discredited at the navy department," on the news placards.

Some of the special dispatches have seemingly minute details as to how "the Brooklyn was standing well in shore, opened the battle yesterday afternoon and how a heavy fire was concentrated by the whole squadron on Morro and the other defenses, to which they replied furiously."

Another report says: "Commodore Schley, after exploding many mines in the channel ran the Texas far enough into the harbor to engage and sink the Reina Mercedes."

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO BAIT THE FLEET.

KEY WEST, June 1.—12:05 P. M.—Another ship just from the blockade reports that on Sunday morning a small Spanish gunboat came out of Havana and ran along the line of batteries, close in shore.

Yesterday she again came out, venturing over two miles from land. She was chased and one shot was fired at her, whereupon she scudded back to port. On Monday night a warship of the blockade squadron approached within five miles of Havana, clearly distinguishing whole rows of lighted streets, thus contradicting the rumors of Havana being in darkness. The commander of the warship said new fortifications are in course of construction on Morro Heights. A steamer carrying earth and sand is running night and day.

NAVY DEPARTMENT HAS HEARD NOTHING.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The navy department had not heard from Commodore Schley up to noon today concerning his reported engagement at Santiago yesterday, and the officials continued to treat with scepticism the accounts coming from Hayti as to the extent of the action.

At the same time official advices are anxiously awaited, for while the Haytien accounts count on a number of statements discredited by the authorities here, yet there are so many circumstances from different points indicating that some sort of action has occurred that they are accepted as plainly suggesting what the official reports will show with more accuracy and detail. Secretary Long remained at home during the morning, as he is slightly inconvenienced by a strained muscle.

Had any important dispatches arrived they would have been speedily sent to him, but nothing beyond the regular morning [illegible] was laid before him up to noon.

STOLE FLOWERS.

Officer Pageler Finds the Persons Who Have Been Molesting Flower Beds.

Officer Pageler this morning located the persons who have been molesting yards and taking flowers. The vandals are a young girl aged eleven years and her small brother aged eight years. The officer found many of the flowers at a few jardinieres which had been taken. The children were taken to the police station and held for a time but were not locked up. Superintendent Gorsline will give them a lecture and allow them to go as their mother is a poor widow.

Official Reports Confirm Rumors of Attack.

Spanish Tales Say Schley Was Severely Repulsed.

Marine Minister Aunon Says There Was an Attack on the Forts, but Declines to Give Details.

MADRID, June 1.—5 P. M.—The following official dispatch from Havana has been received here:

"The American squadron, commanded by Commodore Schley, composed of large iron clads and cruisers, attacked the fortifications at the entrance of Santiago de Cuba. Our iron clad, Cristobal Colon, closing the mouth of the port and supported by the fire of the forts, repulsed the attack, causing damage to the enemy.

"[illegible] MANTEROLA."

Admiral Manterola is the officer in command of the naval Spanish fleet in Cuban waters.

MADRID, June 1.—[illegible] P. M.—The minister of marine, Captain Aunon has received a dispatch saying the American squadron has suffered a check before Santiago de Cuba.

The fire from the Spanish forts and the fleet of Admiral Cervera is alleged to have repulsed the American ships, which are said to have retreated and to have been damaged. The Spanish fleet, it is claimed, did not suffer.

AUNON STOPS DETAILS ON THE BOMBARDMENT.

MADRID, June 1.—5 P. M.—The minister of marine, Captain Aunon, on leaving the palace this afternoon after a visit to the queen, said:

"The American squadron has bombarded and tried to force the Santiago forts, which replied vigorously. The Cristobal Colon advanced to the mouth of the harbor, exchanging shots with the enemy, who fired seventy shots against the forts. The damage done is not reported. The Colon hit an auxiliary American ship, damaging it. The Colon was not hurt. Further details are withheld."

CREW OF BELVIDERE WERE ALL RESCUED.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The passengers and crew of the freight steamer Belvidere, which was wrecked off Cape Maysi, Cuba, are on the Norwegian steamer Kong Frode from Port Antonio, which will reach this city about noon today.

The Belvidere sailed from Kingston for Boston on Wednesday last and was wrecked the following day. The Kong Frode passed Reedy Island in the Delaware Bay at 8:30 this morning, and signalled all well.

THE UNCAS DESTROYS A SPANISH BLOCKHOUSE.

KEY WEST, June 1.—8:30 A. M.—The United States auxiliary gunboat Uncas arrived here this morning from the Cuban coast. She reports that on Monday last, when about a mile and a half west of Matanzas light house she sighted a Spanish blockhouse, on shore.

Taking up a position about 500 yards off shore, the Uncas fired two shots at the house and the two shells went clear through the building, which was wrecked.

During the firing the auxiliary gunboat Leyden came up and also fired a couple of shots. It is not known whether any Spaniards were killed, but they probably fled at the first shot. The blockhouse made no reply.

This action upon the part of the Uncas and Leyden is in accordance with the policy of the patrol boats in shelling any blockhouses they may come across. The crews enjoy this target practice very much.

All was quiet on the Havana blockade when the Uncas left last night.

THE PORTER PUTS IN AT CAPE HAYTIEN.

CAPE HAYTIEN, Hayti, June 1.—8:30 A. M.—The United States torpedo boat Porter put into the harbor of Mole St. Nicholas at 1 o'clock this morning in all probability with dispatches for Washington, and left there again at 2 o'clock.

VICE PRESIDENT CAPOTE IS SAFE.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The Norwegian steamer Kong Frode reported here off this city at [illegible] this afternoon. She had on board twenty-four passengers and the crew of forty-one persons from the wrecked steamer Belvidere. Vice President Capote of the Cuban republic is one of the passengers.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT OF CAPOTE'S CAPTURE.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 1.—There is no probability of truth in the report that Vice President Capote of the Cuban republic, who was a passenger on the wrecked steamer Belvidere, has been captured by the Spanish garrison of that part of Cuba, and the [illegible] that were formerly patrolling off Maysi are now shut in blockaded harbors or staying close for fear of capture.

It is not certainly known whether the Belvidere's passengers were rescued by the Elswood (not [illegible]), of the same line.

YANKEE DEWEY.

Taught Prince Henry His Manners at Hong Kong.

American Commander Left the Prince's Banquet Table Because United States Was Slighted.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Charles N. Post, vice president of the Lyon & Healy company, who has just returned from an extended tour of the orient, saw Admiral Dewey in Hong Kong March 25. Mr. Post tells of a sword passage at arms between Dewey and Prince Henry, brother of Emperor William, commanding the German squadron at Hong Kong.

Prince Henry, immediately after his arrival at Hong Kong, gave a banquet to the higher officers of the other fleets, among whom was Rear Admiral Dewey.

At the feast the prince proposed a toast to his own country, then to Great Britain, then to all the other great powers except the United States. Finally, just before the dinner was over, the royal host proposed a toast to this country.

When Rear Admiral Dewey saw that apparently his country was to be slighted he left the banquet without ceremony. The next day a representative of Prince Henry sent a roundabout apology to the American commander.

Dewey sent word back to the emperor's brother that he would accept nothing but a written or personal apology from the prince.

The latter then called upon Dewey and apologized, saying that in the confusion of the dinner he, the prince, thoughtlessly neglected to put the American toast in its proper place on the program.

While Mr. Post was at Hong Kong Prince Henry gave a ball, but Admiral Dewey, although invited, did not attend it. The banquet incident was not allowed to get out and Mr. Post received it first-hand from one of the officers of the American fleet.

Commissioners Discuss Changes in the County Precincts.

There Will be an Increase of Several at the Coming Election—Items of Interest.

The county commissioners this morning discussed changes to be made in the voting precincts. The law requires that the precincts shall be determined in June preceding the election and the commissioners wish to dispose of the matter as soon as possible. Last election there were eighty-eight precincts, but inasmuch as there has been an increase in the vote it will be necessary to increase the number of precincts by four or five.

Township Assessor M. V. Walsh, of Wayne, yesterday turned over to the county treasurer $1,286, representing the dog tax collected in the township. This sum exceeds that collected last year by $182. The increase is not due to the new canine generation, but to the new law, which gives the assessors the authority to collect the tax.

THERE is something in a name—of times much. Schley's name is pronounced as if spelled s-l-y.

THE great problems of state which are presented to this nation are not of the war with Spain, but questions which grow out of the war and must be solved when the war is over. New and radical policies may be forced upon the United States which will alter the whole destiny of the country

THE new torpedo boat destroyers will be lighted with electricity throughout and furnished with one searchlight Each is to have two conning towers, the forward one of which will be made of one-half inch nickeled steel plates. The battery will be composed of seven rapid fire guns, to be mounted on deck and on the conning towers, and there will be mounted on the midship line two twenty-foot torpedo tubes, to carry seventeen-foot torpedos. Berth space will be required to accommodate sixty men and four officers and provision space for twenty days. The torpedo boats will also have two conning towers, on the deck of which will be mounted three fifteen foot torpedo tubes. Accommodation will be required for twenty-six men and three officers.

THE dispatches from Madrid speak with magnificent nonchalance of the "second reserve fleet" and the "third reserve fleet" and their readiness to come over the water and blow the western hemisphere to kingdom come after Cervera has been sent down to share with Montejo the hospitality of Davy Jones. The fact is that pretty nearly all of Spain's navy that is fit to cope with modern warships is now cooped up in Santiago bay. The fighting ships at Cadiz, with one or two exceptions, are antiquated iron hulks, ill-fitted with machinery and unequipped with modern armament. Vessels of the Indiana and Iowa kind would have but poor sport in an engagement with the ships Spain has at home. When this war is over Spain will be eliminated from the naval powers of the world

IN Spain one can understand the dissatisfaction which prevails. A constant series of disasters is reported, unredeemed by a single beam of comfort save such as is derived from the proved valor of the Spanish sailors at Manila, declares the London Daily Mail. Yet even this consolation is marred by the growing conviction that these gallent men offered themselves up, as it were, as a sacrifice to the incapacity and criminal negligence of successive administrations in Spain. To the ignominy of defeat are added the terrors of impending famine. In Alicante, in Barcelona and elsewhere the bakers' shops are being looted, as they were in Paris on the eve of the revolution. And the politicians at Madrid—for it is not the government only that is at fault—stand powerless, with no help in their hands. We could almost wish for the Spaniards to gain some slight advantage at sea, that their government might be encouraged, by the satisfaction of their honor, to sue for peace. As was foreseen before hostilities broke out, there can be but one end to the struggle, and its prolongation can only spread misery and anarchy in Spain without the faintest prospect of modifying the inevitable result. America has proved stronger than was anticipated, even by those who wished her best, and Spain has shown herself weaker than even her severest critics suspected. At this moment the Spanish politician who could find resolution enough to say "This war must stop" would be the truest friend of his country and not improbably its most popular figure

SOME notion of the cost of the war may be gained from the fact that Commodore Schley has been employing a couple of the big American liners now of the auxiliary navy for dispatch boats between his fleet and the cable stations in Hayti and Jamaica. The cost per day of maintaining one of these wonderful ocean grayhounds, including $2,500 lease fee every twenty four hours, coal, pay of officers and men, etc., amounts to some $6,000 or $7,000. So when Commodore Schley wants to inform the naval strategy board that "Cervera's fleet is in there and will never get home—am going to breakfast,' it means that Uncle Sam is diving into his pocket for a couple of days' pay for that ship, not to speak of the cable tolls.

THERE has been some anxiety and, indeed, complaint, because the public has heard so infrequently of late from General Gomez of the Cuban army. But this cause of discontent has been removed. General Gomez has adopted the American idea, namely, that if you wish to do business you must advertise, and it is announced that Las Villas, the official organ of the Cuban army, is to be published weekly from headquarters, two issues having already appeared. In what may be called his salutatory, General and Editor Gomez informs the troops that they are no longer insurgents, but regular soldiers of the Cuban republic, and that they are to carry on war after the manner of civilized men and not in the style of the brutal Spaniards, and so conduct themselves as to win the good will and respect of their brethren of the United States. There can be no doubt that Las Villas will supply a long felt want and meet with the circulation and patronage it deserves.

Abolish the Canteen.

[Indianapolis News.]

The establishment of "canteens" at Chickamauga is, we are convinced, aside from all moral considerations, which we do not here discuss, a mistake. There are many things in which our raw troops must be drilled before they can be effective soldiers. There are some things in which they must be tried and not found wanting before they can be good soldiers in a hot climate. One is abstemiousness. They must control their appetites, both for food and drink, especially for drink. The only safe stimulant in hot climates is coffee, which the government provides in ample quantity and of excellent quality.

Each soldier receives daily three pints of clear, strong coffee. That is stimulant enough for any man, and it is the finest stimulant for activity in a warm climate. It is the one stimulant that races living in hot countries rely on. There are no troops in the world whose stamina is greater or whose courage is higher than the Turks. Their only stimulant is coffee. The "canteen" is a mistake, and the sooner it is abolished the better.

For our boys, accustomed to alcoholic drinks to a greater or less degree, to carry their habits with them to the hot countries where they are going, is simply to invite death.

King alcohol is more potent than King Alfonso. The correspondents of some French newspapers, seeing our troops at Washington, Key West, Tampa and Chickamauga, have written letters about them, in which they recognize both good and bad qualities. But they all agree that the greatest danger that threatens the volunteers is alcohol, and surprise is expressed at the impunity with which whisky is sold in the camp. It seems to us that the government will be derelict if it does not lay a heavy hand on this traffic.

We repeat that we are not discussing it as a moral question. We are discussing it as a sanitary question. To place before our boys the opportunity of alcoholic drink is simply to fool with death, to invite suicide. Not only ought the "canteen" to be abolished, but severe penalties should be prescribed and enforced for any indulgence in alcoholic drink by the troops. Total abstinence is the only safety for men who have to work or fight in a hot climate.

Another Game Chalked Up in the Wrong Column.

New Castle Had Little Trouble Winning the Third Game From Fort Wayne—The Other Games.

Fort Wayne dropped one peg nearer the bottom of the percentage column yesterday. Alloway was in the points for the Hoosiers and the Novacastrians had no trouble hitting his curves. His support was not gilt-edged by a long ways, however. Clarence Smith tossed the ball for the New Castles and Sharp was the only member of the Fort Wayne team who hit his curves with any degree of effectiveness. The game was lost because the Hoosiers were unable to solve Smith's curves. The team plays in Youngstown today and the fight for the tail end will be on. There is one consolation. Youngstown must win four games (which is an impossibility) to head off our own. Score:

GIVES ARMY A HOSPITAL.

Mrs. L. Z. Leiter Purchases a Hotel Near Chickamauga Park.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Mrs. L. Z. Leiter has purchased and presented to the government for use as a military hospital the Chickamauga park hotel at Crawfish Springs The purchase price was $10,000 Dr. Nicholas Senn, of this city, now an assistant surgeon general of the army, conducted the negotiations for the transfer of the property, and will have personal charge of converting it into a hospital for sick and wounded soldiers. Dr. Senn found the government's arrangements for taking care of its invalided men very meager and he happened to mention the fact to Mrs. Leiter.

That lady's heart was instantly touched and she authorized the famous surgeon to purchase a building and draw on her for the amount expended. Dr. Senn purchased the Chickamauga Park hotel, and on Sunday night Mrs. Leiter wired her husband, who had come to Chicago to witness the closing of his son's wheat deal, about the transaction. Mr. Leiter promptly wired the doctor to draw on him for any amount he needed to carry out his wife's philanthropic enterprise. Mr. Leiter said yesterday that the hotel will be instantly prepared for the reception and care of patients and that there will be no presentation ceremony.

MUST TEST MILK.

Dairymen May be Compelled to Get Certificates.

An Effort Will be Made to Have the Council Pass an Ordinance—Councilmen Favor the Law.

The board of health is making an effort to have only the purest milk sold to the consumers of Fort Wayne and with this idea in view the council will be importuned to pass an ordinance compelling every dairyman who sells milk to Fort Wayne citizens to have his cattle tested for tuberculosis and receive a certificate of health for his dairy. Members of the board have talked with one-half of the councilmen and they all express themselves as in favor of such an ordinance. In the recent examinations Drs. Meyers and Drayer found more than $1,000 worth of cattle who were unhealthy and they did not examine every head. The board is going to push the matter and it is expected there will be no opposition from the councilmen.

BOARD OF WORKS.

At the regular meeting of the board of works yesterday afternoon, the engineer submitted plans and specifications for sewers as follows:

In the alley west of Barthold street, from Third street to the first alley north of High street; in the alley north of High from Barthold to Wefel; in the alley south of Third, from the alley west of Barthold street to the west line of Clark's addition, in the alley west of Wefel street, from the alley south of Third street to High street; in the alley between Third and Fourth streets, from Barthold street to the west line of Clark's addition. The plans were approved, and the board immediately passed resolutions, declaring the resolutions necessary, and work will commence as soon as bids are received.

The board approved the sewer builders' bond of Louis Areon, and the bond of Roman Zoeller, for relaying a sidewalk on the south side.

Some time was devoted to a discussion of contemplated improvements in other parts of town, but no further action was taken.

O. E. Guelick, agent for the Alcatraz Construction company, reported that work had commenced on the pavement of south side streets, and would be pushed.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

The council committee of the whole will meet at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, at the corner of Broadway and Taylor street, and proceed over the proposed route of the South Wayne sewer. It is desired that every member of the city council attend, as the matter of annexation of property adjacent to the southern part of the city is one of the utmost importance.

The police and fire departments were paid off in orders today.

The board of works has received the shipping bill for the two new LaFrance fire engines, which are en route here from Elmira, N. Y.

Contractor Guelich put about sixty men to work on East Creighton avenue this morning and as soon as the work is fairly started he may double this force.

The board of safety met last evening, but transacted no business of importance. Weighmaster Butke did not resign and Captain Reese was therefore not elected to fill a position in which there is no vacancy.

A beautiful and impressive marriage ceremony was last evening solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Foster, No. 19 Lavina street. The contracting parties were Will Sweany, the popular young druggist, of Monroeville, and Elanore, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kethcart, formerly of this city, but now of St. Louis, Mo. At 5 o'clock, to the familiar strains of Tannhausen, with Miss Maud Weingardner at the piano, the bride in a becoming gown of gray and mouseline de soie, attended by Miss Lola Foster, in white silk and lace, entered on the arm of the groom. A beautiful ceremony was preformed by Rev. C. C. Cissel, after which immediate friends were served a wedding dinner by Mrs. Foster. Covers were laid for ten. The floral decorations were carnations and smilax. After June 5 Mr. and Mrs. Sweany will be at home to a large circle of friends at Monroeville, Ind.

Walter Carey, a Western Union telegraph operator, while riding his wheel last evening met with an accident which might have resulted seriously. At the corner of Harmer and Wayne streets a dog chased after his wheel and suddenly tried to dash between the wheels of the bicycle. The hind wheel struck the dog and Walter was thrown several yards into the air and alighted on his face. He went to Carl Rastetter's drug store and an examination showed that his face was badly scratched and bruised, but there was no serious injuries. Walter is carrying his face around in a sticking plaster today

THE RIVALS.

Schley and His Antagonist at Santiago.

Men and the Fleets That Confront Each Other—Americans are Superior to the Enemy.

WASHINGTON, June 1—Admiral Cervera and Commodore Schley are the commanders of the Spanish and American naval forces now in and around the Bay of Santiago de Cuba.

The situation is very like that which prevailed in Asiatic waters before the fall of Manila. It was a Spanish admiral versus an American commodore there also. The Spaniard was in his own bay under the protection of his own guns. But it must be said that Schley has not the first-class, deep and wide entrance to the enemy's waters that Dewey had in Manila. Neither is Schley's squadron as remarkably superior to the Spaniards, in Santiago de Cuba bay as was Dewey's to those in Manila bay.

Spain's four cruisers have neither the thickness nor the toughness of the Iowa and Massachusetts in armor plate.

The perforation power of their guns is not as high as that of the Americans'. The tonnage of the Massachusetts, Iowa and Brooklyn is in total 30,959. That of Spain's ships is in total 27,840. Spain's four ships can throw a total at one discharge of 9,000 pounds. Schley's armored ships can throw one half again as much.

If the power, measured in metal, of the Harvard and the New Orleans, which will soon be a part of the squadron, be added to Schley's forces, the Americans will nearly double the Spaniards in fighting strength.

Then, speaking of the armored ships alone, the American plate is thicker and tougher, for it is believed that the armor of the Vizcaya, Oquendo, Teresa and Colon is of the "composite" kind, while ours is nickel steel. The belt armor of the Spaniards is ten to twelve inches thick, while that of the American battleships is eighteen inches thick. So much for the armored ships.

In unarmored ships the Spaniards have the Pluton and Furor, two torpedo boat destroyers, to the Americans' Marblehead and New Orleans, protected cruisers; the Harvard, unprotected cruiser; the Dupont, torpedo boat, and the Eagle and Vixen, destroyers.

It certainly looks like an uneven match, but that fact is comforting to the Americans Still, if the Spaniards can shoot at all they should certainly be able to avenge the disaster in Manila Bay on some of our unarmored ships if they go within range of the big eleven-inch guns on the Spanish cruisers, providing, of course, the Spaniards' attention is not distracted by the fire of the American battle ships, a provision that probably has already been arranged by Commodore Schley himself.

Taking it all around the outlook from any point of view is not pleasant for Admiral Cervera. He may prove the Montejo of Schley, an incident of the war that the American people can contemplate with perfect complacency.

Vermont and the north have their Dewey, Maryland and the south may have their Schley.

The appellate court has rendered a decision which will be of interest to the people of cities, to the effect that city councils have no right to grant permits to any individual or concern for any purpose that will in any manner obstruct a highway to the traveling public; that the streets belong to the people, and no one can occupy them for the vending of any article, though even a permit for a consideration has been secured from city authorities. This will shut out street fakirs and sidewalk stands.

POLICE NEWS.

Superintendent Gorsline Asked to Locate Frank J. Geiger.

Friends in Switzerland Have Not Heard of Him for Eight Years—Police Court.

Superintendent Gorsline is in receipt of a letter from the Swiss consul at Cincinnati, asking him to locate Frank J. Geiger, who at one time resided in Fort Wayne. Twelve or fifteen years ago Geiger was employed in a hotel or restaurant in this city and since 1890 his relatives and friends in Switzerland have not heard from him. The superintendent is making diligent inquiry about the man today, but finds nobody who remembers him under that name at least.

British Consul at Havana Warns Correspondents Away.

KEY WEST, Fla., June 1.—W. H. J. Taylor, the British consul here, has received a cablegram from Alexander Gollan, British consul general at Havana, in the following terms:

"Please warn British correspondents of newspapers who may be in Key West, with the intention of coming to Cuba, to avoid attempting to do so, and especially by the means adopted by Knight, Robinson and Whigham, all of whom were arrested and are now in prison.

"It is needless to say that this recommendation applies with still greater stringency to correspondents who are American citizens. Give all possible publicity to this."

The tree correspondents named in the dispatch crossed to Cuba in newspaper tugs and landed from small boats, only to be immediately captured.

Knight, who represents the London Times, is in Fortress Cabanas, at Havana; Phil Robinson, of the Pall Mall Gazette, and H. J. Whigham, who represents the London Standard, are in the Matanzas jail.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Wallen M. E. church will give a social in the church parlors next Saturday night.

A BARBAROUS RELIC.

Spanish Muleta, Found in a St. Augustine Fort, Sent to Secretary Alger.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Secretary Alger has received from Ocean Springs, Miss., a Spanish weapon known as a muleta, which is said to be used by the torradors in bull fights. It was sent by Newcomb Clark, of that place, who said that the weapon had an interesting history, having been made in the eighteenth century. The sender recalled that in dismantling a Spanish fort in St. Augustine early in the civil war in one of the casements there was found the remains of a dozen men, who, unquestionably, had been imprisoned there.

Among other things discovered with their skeletons was the muleta sent to the secretary. It came into the sender's possession in 1864 from a soldier who reported that he had found it at the place indicated. The weapon is about fourteen inches long, made of twisted hide which on the ends is fitted into a cylinder of iron or steel.

Attached to the iron cylinders are a number of small rings which presumably serve for the purpose of attaching to the thongs with instruments of torture at their end. The curiosity will be presented to the president by Secretary Alger

Messrs. John Bass, jr., and E. C. Crampton have returned from an extended sojourn in the south.

A Gunshot Wound

From Which Dangerous Blood Poison Results.

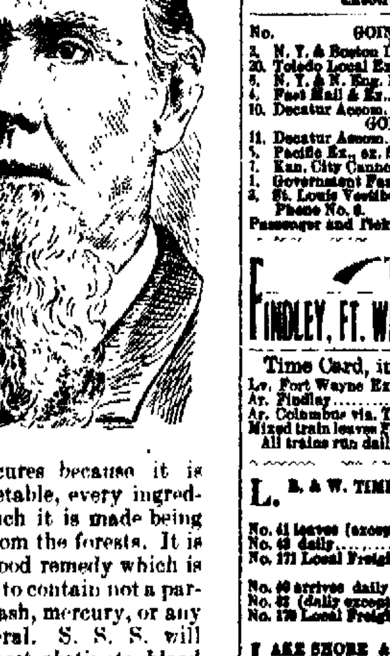

It matters not how blood poison is acquired, whether by inheritance or accident, it is a stubborn, obstinate disease and one which the doctors find themselves unable to successfully treat. Whenever there is the slightest impurity in the blood, any accident which produces even a trivial bruise or contusion of the flesh, is likely to result seriously. Chronic sores and ulcers often result from such causes, and in many cases they are so obstinate that it takes years to get rid of them.

The doctors are unable to cure such cases because potash and mercury (the only remedies which they ever prescribe for the blood) tend to shut in the poison and dry it up in the blood. Here it lies dormant for a while, only to break out in a more aggravated form than before. This treatment is continued and the same conditions exist for years, the old sore or ulcer becoming a constant companion to those whom it afflicts.

Capt. J. H. McBrayer, the well-known distiller of fine Kentucky whiskies, had just such an experience, and he is so delighted to find a cure after many years of suffering that he wants everybody to know just how to get rid of these horrible chronic sores. He now resides at Lawrenceburg, Ky., and writes:

"Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. The place was slow in healing and became much swollen, increasing in size and becoming quite angry-looking and inflamed Before long it had developed into a running sore, and gave me a great deal of pain and inconvenience I was treated by many doctors, and took a number of blood remedies but none did me any good, and did not seem to check the progress of the sore. I had heard Swift's Specific (S.S.S.) highly recommended for the blood, and concluded to give it a trial, and the result was highly gratifying. S. S. S. seemed to get right at the trouble and forced the poison out of my blood; soon afterwards the sore healed up and was cured sound and well. I am sure S. S. S. is by far the best blood remedy made."

It is easy to explain why S. S. S. is so successful in curing all manner of blood troubles, it matters not how deep-seated they are. It is a real blood remedy and goes down to the very bottom of the blood and forces out every impurity, acting on the correct principle of eliminating the poison, rather than shutting it up in the system like mineral remedies do.

S. S. S. cures because it is purely vegetable, every ingredient of which it is made being gathered from the forests. It is the only blood remedy which is guaranteed to contain not a particle of potash, mercury, or any other mineral. S. S. S. will cure the most obstinate blood disease, which other remedies can not possibly reach. Valuable books on blood diseases will be sent free to any address by the Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

SHOP AND RAIL.

The Crippled Pennsylvania Engines Taken in for Repairs.

Naval Recruits Will Pass Through the City Tonight—Local and Personal Gossip.

Passenger engine 143 and freight engine 317, which collided near Lima yesterday morning, were brought here last night and this morning taken into the shops for repairs. The freight engine escaped serious damage, but No. 142 had both cylinders and her smoke box smashed in, her cab demolished and frames broken. Engineer Tony Kelker, who was on the limited, said to a SENTINEL reporter this morning that he succeeded in stopping his train and if he had had a few more seconds, would have gotten out of harm's way. When the freight train was only a few yards away Mr. Kelker jumped from his cab, but did not get far enough away. The side of the cab fell out and struck him on the back and shoulders, inflicting painful bruises.

Foreman I. Wise, of the Pittsburg tank shop, returned home this morning. He had been to Mansfield, where his brother now lies a victim of paralysis. The unfortunate man is in a precarious condition.

The shops of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern will today begin running sixty hours a week. For three years they have been running but forty hours a week. These shops now have 600 men on the pay rolls.

The Indianapolis Journal thus compliments the general manager of the Pennsylvania company: "Mr. L. F. Loree should be gratified over what he, with his subordinate officers, have been able to accomplish in the increasing of the net earnings. The fact that the net earnings of the lines west of Pittsburg in the four months ending April 30 increase $549,200, while those of lines east of Pittsburg increased but $57,000, is a statement that any general manager may well be pleased with."

TRIES TO POISON WATER.

Soldier at Jacksonville Frustrates an Attempt by an Unknown Man.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 1.—An attempt was made early yesterday morning by an unknown man to poison the water supply here.

The guard detail for the day was from the First North Carolina regiment, and much praise is due Private A. J. Phelps, of Company M, for his strict vigilance. He was on the 2 o'clock detail, and noticed a suspicious character trying to climb the wire fence on the eastern side of the reservoir. The man was just about to throw a package into the water, when he was ordered to halt. He did not do so and the guard immediately discharged his piece. This so frightened the man that he turned and ran.

It was not possible to learn whether he was white or black. A white man was arrested today. He is a suspicious looking character and was found loitering near the new Duval hotel. He could give no satisfactory account of himself and was ordered to jail for five days pending a thorough examination by the authorities.

CRAMPS' BIG CONTRACT.

To Construct $15,000,000 of Warships for the Russians.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Information was supplied in this city from an authoritative source that the contracts secured by Charles H. Cramp from the Russian government amounted to $15,000,000.

The contracts call for the construction of twelve vessels—one first-class battleship, one first class cruiser and ten torpedo-boat destroyers.

These vessels are to be finished throughout at Cramp's with armaments, guns, cannons, etc., and are to be turned over to the Russian government complete and ready for action.

When Mr. Cramp returned from Europe a fortnight ago he announced that the contracts called for one battleship and one cruiser.

Subsequently, when reports were received that the contracts included additional vessels and thorough equipments, Mr. Cramp declined to supply any more details, saying that the news must come from the Russian government.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION.

Tar Paper Factory Wrecked and Many Men Injured in New York.

NEW YORK, June 1.—A terrific explosion occurred early today in the tar paper factory of Tobias New & Co., on East Nineteenth street, in which a number of persons were seriously injured, the entire plant was wrecked and thousands of dollars of damage was done. No one was killed, but it is feared that some of the injured may die. The injured are:

Tobias New, the proprietor; Philip Greenfield, engineer; Victor Rosche, chief engineer; John O'Neill, engineer; Joseph Lamende, rag picker; unknown Italian woman, Leo J. Kahn, Solomon Kahn, Thomas Ryan, John Judge.

New, Rosche, Greenfield and O'Neill were in the engine room when the explosion took place. The firemen think the explosion was caused by an accumulation of tar gas.

TORNADO IN MISSOURI.

Many Houses Demolished, but No One Seriously Injured.

KING CITY, Mo., June 1.—A destructive tornado passed across the country south of this place last evening. The village of Orchid, seven miles distant, was struck and the houses of J. B. Harper, William Owens, D. E. Moore, Alvis Price, Horace Gilbert and Henry Garratt were demolished.

No one in the village was seriously injured, as the people had taken warning from the condition of the atmosphere and the threatening clouds and sought places of safety.

At Berlin, eight miles east of here, the storm was accompanied by a heavy hail, which drifted two feet deep in places and which caused incalculable damage to crops and seriously damaged buildings.

TOM KEENE IS DYING.

Tragedian Fails to Rally After the Surgical Operation.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Thomas W. Keene, the tragedian, who was compelled to bring his Canadian tour to a sudden end last week because of appendicitis and was operated upon at the Smith infirmary, Staten Island, is failing to rally from it and is now at the point of death.

A PLEA FOR SPAIN.

Political Situation Discussed by Hannis Taylor.

The Former Minister Hopes the United States Will be Generous When Concluding Peace.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Hannis Taylor, recently United States minister to Spain, discusses in the June number of the North American Review the political future of Spain.

Mr. Taylor considers historically the circumstances out of which have risen the two leading political parties in the peninsular kingdom, which have been equally resolute in resisting the republicans on the one hand and the Carlists on the other, since the re-establishment in 1874 of the present dynasty.

United, Mr. Taylor says, these parties are more than a match for all their opponents.

"No matter what may happen in the external politics of Spain; no matter if she is stripped of all colonial possessions; no matter if Romero and Weyler do try to stir up civil war for their own selfish ends, Spain is safe so long as conservatives and liberals stand together to preserve social order under the existing constitution."

Mr. Taylor is strongly of the opinion that the time has not come for Spain to depart from monarchical institutions. This being the case Mr. Taylor asks why "the present dynasty should be overthrown, why the wise and devoted queen regent should be driven out on account of national misfortunes, for which neither she nor her son is in any way responsible."

"The most priceless possession of Spain," says Mr. Taylor, "is Maria Christina, because she alone bars the door to a renewal of civil war which at this moment would be destructive to the country. In this dark hour of Spain's misfortune her pure womanly character shines forth like a light in a dark place, round which all patriotic Spaniards should gather. As monarchial institutions surviving her overthrow means the accession of Don Carlos, who, apart from his utter and admitted worthlessness as a man, represents a set of mediavial ideas and aspirations that would set Spain far into the past—at least a century."

As confirming his belief that Spain is not ripe for a republic, Mr. Taylor thusrefers to the attitude of Emilio Castelar.

"If anybody clearly comprehends and loves Spain, he does," says Mr. Taylor. "In his mighty brain is stored away her whole history as a part of the history of Europe. In his heart is an unselfish and filial love of country as lofty and unselfish as ever ennobled a patriot. Convinced years ago that Spain was not prepared for a republic he resolved to retire from the political arena and to transmit his aspirations to another channel."

Mr. Taylor expresses the hope that the United States in their dealings with Spain at the end of the present war will follow a course consistent with their own moral dignity, and in the hour of victory remember that justice and generosity should characterize their dealing with a friendly nation.

"When the end comes," he says, "let us resolve to be just and generous, not only to Cuba, but to Spain too."

CADIZ FLEET A PAPER ONE.

Vessels of an Antiquated Type and Lacking in Machinery.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The frequent reports from Spain through other countries to the effect that a formidable fleet is being prepared at Cadiz to sail for West Indian waters in aid of Cevera causes little apprehension here. Naval officers, through private means of communication, have pretty well satisfied themselves that the Cadiz fleet is a paper fleet. In other words, its offensive power is altogether illusory.

More than half of the vessels whose names appear so frequently in the press dispatches as formidable war craft are of antiquated type and in a sad state of disorder.

The old Numancia is an example. She is rated as a battle ship of the first-class. In her day she was a battle ship, but she has not a turret or a sponson, and would be little more than sport for a modern ironclad.

In addition to being antiquated, most of these vessels are broken down in engines and boilers. In their reckless disregard of the simplest precautions for the preservation of the complex machinery of a war ship, the Spaniards are excelled by no people, and it is well known that they have been obliged to hire British engineers to run their engines whenever they did run.

There are some vessels at Cadiz, although a very few, of modern type, but they are not numerous or powerful enough to give our navy any serious concern.

PREPARING FOR EMERGENCY

England Buys 120,000 Barrels of Flour for Kingston.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 1.—The British government has purchased in the United States for delivery here 120,000 barrels of flour for the navy and army stores.

The order was placed with a Minneapolis company. The flour will be transported here by the Atlas Steamship company.

The transaction is significant as showing British preparation for an emergency.

Tomorrow afternoon the Home Missionary society of St. John's Lutheran church will meet at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lapp, about three miles south of the city. Friends wishing to go should meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Rothenberger at 1 o'clock. Should the weather be disagreeable, society will go the next day at same hour.

BILL SCOTT HURT.

The Candidate for Treasurer in a Runaway Today.

His Horse Frightened and He Was Thrown to the Ground Receiving Quite Serious Injuries.

William Scott, a prominent Lafayette township farmer, and candidate for county treasurer, was quite seriously injured in a runaway this morning.

Mr. Scott and Mrs. Putt were driving to the city on the Bluffton road. When near school house No. 8, Wayne township, a peddler came along the road from the city with a push cart. The horse frightened at the horseless vehicle and started to run away. Mr. Scott and Mrs. Putt were thrown to the ground and the buggy completely demolished. Jas. Cunniston, who lives near by, caught the horse. An examination showed that Mrs. Putt was uninjured. Not so with Mr. Scott, however. He was badly bruised about the face, side and arm, the injury to the side being especially painful. Assessor Thomas Greer happened along shortly after the accident and he brought Mr. Scott to the city. The injured man was taken to the home of his daughter, on Shawnee avenue, where he is being cared for. While the injuries are quite painful they are not considered at all dangerous.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The Day Was Quiet and the Usual Number of Callers Appeared.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The usual contingent of callers from congress were at the white house today. There were numerous inquiries as to the bombardment of Santiago, but up to late in the forenoon there was no official information to impart to them. Senator Jones, of Arkansas, Fairbanks, of Indiana; Thurston, of Nebraska; Money, of Mississippi; Daniel, of Virginia, and Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, were there early in conference.

Matters were very quiet at the white house and there was little indication of an important stage in the war situation.

Senator Davis and ex-Assistant Secretary of War Grant, of Minnesota; Senator Sewell, of New Jersey; Senator Foraker, of Ohio, and the Louisiana delegation in the house, who urged some staff appointments from their state, were also among those who came to talk over army matters. Representative Grosvenor, accompanied a large delegation of officers of the Seventh Ohio regiment, mostly men from his district, to pay their respects to the president. The men are in camp at Camp Alger.

The postponement is neccessary owing to the ill-health of Mr. Walker.

ETIQUETTE OF STATE.

Rigid Rules of Precedence Govern the Social Events of the Administration.

"The wife of the president makes and returns no visits. The wife of the vice president pays first visit only to the wife of the president," writes Mary Nimmo Balentine in an illustrated article on "Women of the United States Senate" in The Woman's Home Companion.

"The wives of senators make first calls on the wife of the president the wife of the vice president, the wives of the embassadors, the ladies of the supreme court and upon each other in the order of the length of service of their husbands in the senate. The wife of the vice president holds receptions on Wednesdays, cabinet day, because her husband is a member of the president's cabinet, while the day of receiving for senators' wives is Thursday, between the hours of 3 and 6 in the afternoon. These receptions begin after the 1st of January and continue to be held until Lent begins. Some ladies observe the day for receiving all the time congress is in session. The customary preparations for holding an afternoon reception are to station one man at the drive to open and shut carriage doors and call carriages and another at the hall door to admit callers and take cards. The hostess receives the visitors standing near the door of the entrance and is dressed in a high necked gown, which may otherwise be as elaborate as taste may dictate. Visitors may be announced by name to the hostess by an usher or may speak their names themselves.

"Any person is at liberty to make the visits at the homes of senators and all persons are cordially received. Those leaving cards expect their visits to be returned. Resident and nonresident sightseers who call without introduction of any sort do not leave cards. A large proportion of the official folk owe first calls to the ladies of the senate, the ladies of the cabinet, the wives of foreign ministers and the wives of the members of the house of congress. These are termed 'duty calls' and must be returned in person. A woman whose husband is in the 'upper house' can be quite as exclusive as any lady of private position if she so desire. The women of the cabinet could not close their houses to the public, however much they might wish to do so."

No Wonder.

"I say, waiter, this salmon cutlet is n't half so good as the one I had here last week."

"Can't see why, sir. It's off the same fish."—Punch.

Mamma Could Swim.

There was no little excitement in the vicinity of the Pacific Mail wharf shortly after 1 p. m. yesterday. Two native children, aged 5 and 6 respectively, jumped into a boat up near the king's boat house, and noticing that it was tied, started to have a good time. The jumping about of the children loosened the line, and the boat, aided by the wind, started out the channel. The children were powerless. The mother appeared on the walk leading from the king's boat house to shore, and immediately jumped into the water. She caught the boat off the marine railway, kissed the children, then spanked them, and rowed the boat back to position.—Pacific Commercial Advertiser.

Immortality for a Cent.

When the pedestal of the statue of Blair which Missouri has presented to statuary hall, was standing in that hall the other day awaiting its bronze figure, some one noticed that in the center of the stone block was a small square hole. The Missouri delegation was present to watch the placing of the statue, and one of the congressmen fishing through his pockets found a cent. He put the coin in the square hole, and also deposited a bit of paper with his autograph. The example was contagious. Every member of the delegation put in a cent and his name, some curious bystanders did likewise, and by the time that the statue was placed in position there was almost enough copper in the pedestal to sheathe a ship.—Washington Post.

From the Wrong Quarters.

"Hello, Mike! What are you doing there?" shouted the riding instructor to an Irish recruit who had suddenly parted company with his mount. 'You are not training to become a broom. You are wanted as an ornament for one of the cavalry regiments." 'Faix, sorr, Oi know that, but it was the animal's fault intoirely." "Well, you had better get on that horse again," said the good humored instructor. "Everything is regulated from headquarters and if you want to roll about the ground you must get permission. I don't think you received orders from headquarters to lie down there, did you?" "No, sorr," replied the recruit, entering into the spirit of the joke, "it was from hindquarters, sorr!"

Little Noise in Berlin.

Berlin, of all big cities, has most successfully dealt with the problem of keeping noises down to the minimum. Railway engines cannot blow their whistles inside the city limits. Hucksters, newsboys and street peddlers are not allowed to bawl their wares. A wagon that makes an unnecessary rattling is stopped and its driver is lucky to escape a fine. The courts never hesitate to impose a pecuniary penalty on people that make useless noise, and they have a wide discretion. Even piano playing is regulated in a town noted for its music loving inhabitants. Before a certain hour at night no one is at liberty to indulge in practice, and mere pounding on a piano is unlawful at all hours.

CERVERA will take care that the next bottle he crawls into is open at both ends.

TO SAVE time Spain can check off in advance several "sad but glorious day" for the month of June. Her troubles are going to multiply.

THE bombardment of the Santiago batteries by Commodore Schley's ships is claimed by Spain as a victory, probably because Cervera's fleet was not sent to find sea bottom.

TEN or a dozen years ago the Canadian government enfranchised the Indians who were living on reservations. A clause in the new franchise bill now before parliament revokes their franchise and puts them on a level with savages again. The main argument in favor of the cause is the Indians' susceptibility to bribery, which appears weak reasoning in this age of political knavery. Some very white men are political Indians.

PEACE may come before Spain is thoroughly whipped by the forces of the United States. Spain's exhausted credit is the most powerful ally Uncle Sam can have, for nations without credit cannot wage war.

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S son, now a resident of London, has just been declared bankrupt. This is a case where the son shows a marked contrast to the father. The latter, notwithstanding enormous expenses resulting from frequent purchases of many bonnets, gowns, etc., not only kept out of bankruptcy, but managed to lay aside a tidy fortune. There would have been some excuse for Brigham had he "gone broke," but apparently there is none for his descendant.

WHEN the first call for volunteers was issued Alaska felt slighted because she had not been asked to furnish her quota of men. Now that more volunteers are called for it is said to be the intention of the war department to permit as many Alaskans as desire to volunteer. This will be good news for the men who have been enjoying the winter season at Dyea, Skagway and other northern resorts. Most of them are pining for something hot and are ready to take it in any form. Even a hot fight or Cuban climate will do.

WHILE Americans have for the time being lost practically all interest in the Klondike, our Canadian friends are more active than ever in setting afoot plans for the development of that region. The dominion parliament will be asked to sanction a new enterprise of building a railroad to Hudson bay and thence to Dawson. It is an old plan enlarged to fit present needs, but it does not necessarily follow that the road will be built immediately. The Canadian system of granting heavy subsidies to new railroads invites schemes of this character, many of which are hardly bona fide.

WAR plans which have just been made public by Secretary Alger disclose the intention of the government to place Porto Rico under control of the United States. While it has been accepted as settled that Porto Rio is to be occupied, this is the first official intimation of the plan. The campaign of invasion contemplates the sending at once of 20,000 men to Cuba, to be followed by 50,000 more as soon as that additional number can be made ready. Doubtless it is the intention to return to the complete reduction of San Juan as soon as the American fleets have disposed of Cervera's squadron and forced the capitulation of Santiago. Sampson has already started the destruction of the San Juan defenses, and the location and strength of the batteries are known to him.

COMPLAINT has been made that "rear admiral" is an inapt title for a man so eminently equalified for keeping in front as is the conqueror of Manila. The point is not ill-taken, but designations of rank are queer, anyhow, and few of them will stand much examination by philologists. And "admiral" itself is about the queerest of the lot. The word is the remnant of an Arabic phrase, of which the beginning was "ameer," or "emir," and it came to us—alas, that the truth must be told—straight from Spain. "Amir-al-bahr" meant "ruler of the sea." When the "bahr" was dropped, of course, the article should have gone, too, but it didn't, and when some overwise person put in a "d" because he thought he knew that the word was Latin, it became as absured a muddle as the dictionary contains—which is saying a good deal.

IN spite of the fact that England and the United States are drawing closer together, the English people and press have still a great deal to learn about Americans. The misinformation extant in London is certainly remarkable. For example, one London journal has just informed its readers that in this country the professional bridesmaid is by no means a rarity. The paper proceeds to go into details and says that "at a recent fashionable marriage in New York there were fifteen bridesmaids, all paid ones. Beside their dresses, given by the bride's father, they received $25 each." According to the veracious English journalist who wrote this article, a great number of young ladies have adopted this new way of earning money. The prices charged depend upon the attractive appearance and social standing of the young women, but sometimes as much as $100 is paid, and, it is declared, one young woman has been in such great demand that she has officiated at more than 200 ceremonies and has made in a very short time more than $20,000, without counting presents. These London writers are certainly gifted in imagination.

COMPLAINTS MADE.

Key West Officials Charged With Harsh Treatment of Prisoners.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—The complaints made against the United States officers at Key West of improper treatment of the captives on prizes brought by American vessels are being daily reinforced and are creating so much dissatisfaction here that it would not be surprising if the prizes hereafter taken by naval vessels were ordered further north to Charleston for instance, thus depriving the Key West officials of the fat fees which they have been making from this source. First came the report through Admiral Sampson of cadet Jones' charges against the officials, which are now to be formally investigated by a naval court martial. The latest case is in connection with the British ship Restormel, which was captured off Santiago with a load of coal apparently destined for the Spanish fleet inside. This vessel was brought into Key West with a prize crew, and, although her British nationality was perfectly evident, the officials at that port for some explained reason, positively refused to permit the captain to communicate with the British vice consul. The British embassy here, being advised of the fact, made prompt representations to the state department, with the result that orders were forwarded without delay to the district attorney's office at Key West to at once put the captain of the Restormel in communication with the vice consul.

NEARING DAWSON.

Clarence Cook Writes a Letter From Alaska.

He Has Passed the Hardest Part of the Long Trip and is Beginning to Enjoy the Arctic Summer.

Clarence F. Cook, city editor of THE SENTINEL, writes the following interesting letter to his wife, dated Lake Bennett, May 13

"Here, twelve miles from the head of Lake Bennett, our party is camped to remain until boats are built, the rest of the journey, nearly 800 miles, to be made on water. From this time until Dawson is reached will be more like a summer outing than anything else. These grand mountain and the beautiful stretch of lakes at this time is something extraordinary to look upon, but in the mild days of spring which are fast coming, nature is in her most pleasant mood, and the picture will then be one that could inspire an artist to attain the greatest heighth of his glory.

"Lake Bennett is twenty-six miles long and has an average width of one mile. It lies next body of water northwest of lake Lindemann, which is the first of navigable waters running into the Yukon. When we left Lake Lindemann three weeks ago the mercury was down to twenty below zero, but the cold was not so severe as zero in our own country. During our stay there several of us were caught in a blizzard, lost the trail and had considerable difficulty in getting within sight of tents, but we finally got out all right. The weather here is warm, snow and ice are leaving fast. Those who have come in so far have had the advantage of bringing their freight down on the ice, using sails on the sleds and thus getting the benefit of the favorable south winds which prevail at this particular time of the year. Lakes Lindemann and Bennett occupy the same valley and the almost uninterrupted line of mountains along the shores make a good funnel for the winds which come from the ocean, and through the White and Chilcoot passes.

"When our boats are built we will launch and set sail for the land of gold with good prospects to encourage us onward. Our boat is to be twenty-four feet long and six feet wide. It will be christened the Edward, after our dear little son. We expect to reach Dawson in five weeks after starting from here. Shortly after arriving there I can write definitely about my home coming. The sacrifice of family separation, the many trials and hardships getting here are too many to leave hurriedly without clinching something substantial before departure. In a few weeks we will be sailing past rivers whose bars yield gold. All the rivers for many miles below us furnish flour gold, which increases in coarseness as the rivers are ascended. On any of these rivers a man can make good wages, but none are looked to now with much interest.

Dawson City seems to be the destination of nearly everybody, the impression being that upon reaching there information of rich strikes can be obtained. This is no doubt true, and early comers will get good claims with little trouble. The territory cut by gold-bearing streams is almost unlimited, so that there is little doubt of the truthfulness of the statement that 200,000 men could prospect the Yukon basin and be lost to one another. I can see only a bright future for the entire Yukon basin as a mining country, not only in auriferous deposits, but in vast leads of quartz and the other resources. The mountains on either side of us here at Lake Bennett are almost solid limestone. At Lake Lindemann the mountains are of granite—granite which has been polished by the weather in places until it is as beautiful as though done by hand.

"The rush this spring is hardly up to expectation, although it will be great. Many have turned back before crossing the divide unable to cope with the difficulties which are such as to test the endurance of strong, healthy and hardy men. It has been told by some writer that a trip to Alaska means most incessant toil, such as packing provisions over pathless mountains, digging in bottomless frosts, sleeping where night overtakes, enduring for seven long months a relentless cold which never rises above zero and frequently falls to 60 below. It is no doubt the truth but it is admitted by old miners that any man physically endowed to overcome these obstacles can by strict attention to business make a good stake with possibilities of a fortune.

"The summer months are delightful. Game is plentiful a few miles back from the now much traveled routes. They say that all along the line of travel from the coast range to old Fort Yukon the observer can see vast treasures of gold, marble and copper in the mountains. The day is coming when transportation facilities will make this chain of lakes and rivers one of the greatest tourist countries of the world. There is no grander scenery nor finer climate than this lake and mountain country during the three months of summer.

"We have as our guest this evening John Carroll, who has the subcontract to carry mail. He was on his way out from Dawson, having left there April 23, walking all the way. He said that very little prospecting has been done in the Klondike the past winter, but that many claims were staked on chance. Supplies at Dawson are plentiful. Many of these claims will no doubt prove rich, while others are worthless, but will serve the purpose of speculators who are preparing to do up the tenderfoot to the queen's taste when the spring rush is fully on.

"A reported rich strike on the Big Salmon river proves to be a fake gotten up for the sole purpose of lining the pockets of surveyors who charge big fees for their work. Mr. Carroll informed us that the American side offered the best inducements to the poor man. Forty Mile creek diggings, he said, at its poorest clean-up would produce $8 per day. When we get to Dawson I will most likely again join Mr. Ivey, Mr. Green and Dr. Gove and son, all of us to form a party for prospecting on equal shares. At least that is the most brilliant plan now in view. It offers an opportunity to make a few thousand dollars—possibly many.

"If in June we can get down to business I am to get on a boat as quickly as possible and return to the states, there to procure provisions and necessaries for the next winter.

"You can see women on all sides going into the gold fields, many of them being to all appearances refined and of good station in life. It is no longer a marvel that the fair sex should go to Alaska, for there is need of them there and all will do well.

"News of Dewey's victory at Manila harbor has just reached here, setting almost the entire camp in a glow of patriotic enthusiasm, showing how largely American the people here are."

NORTON & JONES' SHOW.

Season to Open Saturday--New Illuminant for Canvas.

The Norton & Jones' show will open the season Saturday evening with an exhibition on the jail flats. This show is one of the most popular and successful on the road, and starts out this season with better prospects than ever. The show has new attractions, new people, and the bill prepared for presentation to patrons is one of the best. The proprietors have introduced a decided innovation in the way of lighting tents with acetyline gas, the new illuminant. Even the best and biggest shows are clinging to the old fashioned gasoline lamp pendant from the center pole, and all the attempts made to get away from the dangers and disagreeable features of the unsteady light have been futile. Electric lights were tried, but the wires proved dangerous in case of windstorms. The proprietors of the Norton & Jones' shows have been first in the field to try acetyline gas, and believe they have solved a difficult problem. They have purchased three generators from C. R. Jenne, of this city, and the first test of the light will be made Thursday evening.

JOKE OR FRAUD.

An Alleged Appeal to German Citizens Excites Berlin Newspapers.

BERLIN, June 2.—The German press strongly criticizes an alleged appeal published in the newspapers generally and purporting to emanate from the "United States department of national coast defenses," urging German veterans residing in Germany or elsewhere who have become citizens of the United States, either to "enlist in the service of the United States or else contribute to the war funds."

Andrew D. White, United States ambassador to Germany today published a statement setting forth that the appeal is either a fraud or a joke, as no such department exists and as no such appeal has been authorized by the United States government.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Dreier & Bros.' drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Youngstown Won the First Game From Fort Wayne on a Home Run by Steen--Other Games.

Fort Wayne played its first game of the season with the Youngstowns yesterday and the rejuvinated tail enders won. Reiman and Knepper were opposing pitchers and both did fine work, the Hoosiers solving Knepper in only one inning. Joe Steen won the game for Youngstown in the eighth inning by hitting for a home run with two men on bases. A pretty feature of the game was a triple play by the Fort Waynes, the second the Hoosiers have made on the Youngstown grounds in three seasons of the Inter State leagues's existence. The attendance has increased since the Youngstown's commenced to win a few games. Score:

FIVE MILLIONS.

The Sum Dr. Herz Demands of French Government.

The State Department Interested in the Case--Was Arrested and His Property Confiscated.

LONDON, June 2.—Documents proving the American citizenship of Dr. Cornelius Herz, who was prominently connected with Panama canal matters, are now on their way to Washington. It is said that Secretary Day has informed Dr. Herz that if he can show he has done all possible without avail, through his lawyers, to obtain compensation from France for his seeming persecution, the United States will take up his case. Consequently the sworn proofs of his American citizenship are now on their way to the United States.

It was announced in January, 1897, that counsel for Dr. Herz presented at Washington a claim for indemnity in the sum of $5,000,000 against the French government, for the alleged illegal attempt to prosecute Dr. Herz.

Dr. Herz, whose name stands very high in scientific circles as an electrician and physicist, although born in France of French parents, was educated in New York, and at the age of sixteen years served in the United States army.

He married an American woman, and when his children were born in Paris he caused them to be registered as American citizens at the consulate.

On January 19, 1893, while he was stopping at Bournemouth, Eng., with his wife, he was arrested under extradition proceeding on a warrant from the French government, charging him with fraud and embezzlement growing out of the Panama canal scandal.

Under the law a prisoner wanted for extradition must appear at the Bow street police court. Dr. Herz was confined to his bed by illness and so was unable to appear. The case was kept open and he was continued under arrest in his bed for four years. Then the British parliament came to his relief and passed a special act that permitted the magistrate to attend Herz's bedside and take his testimony.

This was done and the magistrate promptly declared that the charge was invalid and scarcely deserving of notice. Herz was thereupon released from arrest. Meanwhile the French government had instituted numerous proceedings against him in France and confiscated all his property and that of his wife. Dr. Herz alleged that this was persecution, pure and simple, and that the French government knew even before his trial that the charges against him were baseless. Therefore, claiming to have been injured in name and health and in other ways, he demanded that the state department should prefer a claim against the French government. Although he mentioned no sum, the brief showed that he demanded the sum of $5,000,000 in a letter he sent the crest of the French republic, which was never answered.

RELIGIOUS MEETINGS

The Christian and Missionary Alliance Convention.

Meetings of Great Spiritual Power Being Held by Rev. Eldridge--Fine Singing.

The services of the Missionary and Christian Alliance convention being held in the city, conducted by Rev. G. N. Eldridge and wife, are growing in interest and power with every service. The attendance last evening in the Y. M. C. A. building was very large, and Rev. Eldridge preached a very powerful sermon on the baptism of power. At the close of the sermon a telegram was received from the famous Ohio quartette, composed of Rev. D. R. Myland and wife, Rev. D. W. Kurr and Edwin L. Bowyer. These special workers are on their way east from St. Louis, and will remain in this city today and tonight. The meeting today at 10 o'clock was well attended, and short addresses were delivered by Rev. Eldridge, Mrs. Eldridge and Rev. Kurr. The quartette sang several very beautiful selections. Another great service was held this afternoon in the Berry Street M. E. church. The meeting tonight will be held in the Berry street M. E. church, and it is expected that an immense crowd will attend. The quartette will be at the evening service, and a meeting of great spiritual power will be held.

NERVOUS DEPRESSION.

[A TALK WITH MRS. PINKHAM.]

A woman with the blues is a very uncomfortable person. She is illogical, unhappy and frequently hysterical.

The condition of the mind known as "the blues," nearly always, with women, results from diseased organs of generation.

It is a source of wonder that in this age of advanced medical science, any person should still believe that mere force of will and determination will overcome depressed spirits and nervousness in women. These troubles are indications of disease.

Every woman who doesn't understand her condition should write to Lynn, Mass., to Mrs. Pinkham for her advice. Her advice is thorough common sense, and is the counsel of a learned woman of great experience. Read the story of Mrs. F. S. BENNETT, Westphalia, Kansas, as told in the following letter:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered for over two years with falling, enlargement and ulceration of the womb, and this spring, being in such a weakened condition, caused me to flow for nearly six months. Some time ago, urged by friends, I wrote to you for advice. After using the treatment which you advised for a short time, that terrible flow stopped.

"I am now gaining strength and flesh, and have better health than I have had for the past ten years. I wish to say to all distressed, suffering women, do not suffer longer, when there is one so kind and willing to aid you."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a [illegible] remedy for woman's ills. More than a million women have been benefited by it. [illegible]

Charles Fisher Becomes a Government Electrician.

Has Been Assigned to Admiral Dewey's Squadron at the Philippines—Shop and Rail.

One of the employes of the Electric corporation is in receipt of a letter from Fred Mensch, now located at San Francisco, Cal., in which the writer states that Charles Fisher has enlisted in the United States navy and is now an electrician on board the Charleston, bound for the Philippines. Mr. Fisher resided in this city several years ago and was employed in the electric works. He went to San Francisco to take charge of a lighting plant and when war broke out he resigned and has been succeeded by Mr. Mensch.

WILL NOT BE BUILT HERE.

Yesterday's Indianapolis Journal stated that in case the war with Spain is soon ended the Pennsylvania will begin the building of thirty of the new class of freight locomotives at the shops in Fort Wayne and Columbus, and that 100 will be built at the Altoona shops. Inquiry at the shops in this city did not confirm this bit of news. One of the officials said that the Pennsylvania had under contemplation the building of 100 of these engines at the Altoona shops, and if the work was accomplished thirty of the engines would probably be put into service on the Fort Wayne road. But he had no information to the effect that any of the engines would be built here. A week ago a telegram from Philadelphia was published that 100 engines of the class mentioned would be built in Altoona and added that the engines would be of the largest kind, weighing, when in working order, 218,000 pounds.

As an evidence of the improved condition of business over last year, the Indianapolis Journal says that "25 to 30 per cent. more men are now employed in freight houses than at this season of 1897."

A big crowd assembled at the Pennsylvania depot last evening to greet the train load of naval recruits who passed through the city. They were all young men—some being mere boys—but they will no doubt make good sailors.

Next Sunday lower rates from the Pacific coast to Chicago and New York will go into effect, second class only being effected. The rate from San Francisco to Chicago, second class, will be $32.50; from the coast to New York, $42.55.

The Western Gas Construction company never had better business than it is enjoying at present. The shop is now working the largest force it ever had and there is talk of putting on a night force. There are enough orders on hand and in sight to keep the works running at full capacity for two or three months.

R. M. Germain, passenger engineer on the Nickel Plate, has taken a three weeks' vacation and tonight will leave for New York state to visit the scenes of his boyhood. He will be accompanied by his brother from Chicago, who is also an engineer, having a run on the Chicago and Alton road.

Roy Jackson has resigned his position at the electric works and last night left, over the Wabash, for Los Angeles, Cal., accompanied by his sister. Mr. Jackson has secured a good position at his trade at that place and expects to reside there in the future. His parents moved there about a year ago.

There is trouble brewing for the Lake Erie and Western. Some time ago the company discharged A. M. Johnson and Asa Ridenour, passenger conductors, without assigning any reason for the dismissals. The employes of the company are now demanding that the men be reinstated, and if their demands are not granted, they may try to force them.

When the Belt road at Indianapolis was first put in operation it was managed by the company which built it and owned the stock. Then $1 was charged for handling a car and the road did a business of $7,000 per week. It was a gold mine to its owners, but they leased it, fearing a falling off in business. The line is now handling 23,000 cars a week, which at the rates charged by the original company means an earning of $23,000.

A CHANCE TO ENLIST

Twenty-eighth Battery Needs Fifty-five Men.

Captain Ranke Ordered to Fort Wayne to Secure Recruits for His Company—Decoration Day in Camp.

The following letter has been received by THE SENTINEL from a soldier of the Zollinger battery and on many accounts it will be read with more than ordinary interest:

HEADQUARTERS TWENTY-EIGHT LIGHT BATTERY, IND. VOL., CHICKAMAUGA PARK, GA., Tuesday, May 31, 1898.

Decoration day for the soldier boys of Fort Wayne was spent this year in a very different manner than has been their custom heretofore. Instead of turning out in cleanly brushed and pressed uniforms, with white collars and cuffs, and parading through the streets of our home city and out to the Lindenwood Cemetery, there to wait for the never failing shower of rain to come up and drench us through to the "hide," this day found the boys of the battery enjoying a holiday in this beautiful and famous park far away from home. Most of the day was spent in sitting around camp quarters reading Fort Wayne papers, which, by the way, are now regularly received by a number of the men, and also pouring through long and apparently very interesting letters from loved ones at home, while others could be found in somewhat distant and lonely parts of the woods near the camp sitting under trees writing to M———, known only to the writers.

We were not disappointed, however, in the customary Decoration day rain, for shortly after dinner mess, dark clouds were visible in the distant northwest and soon could be heard the rumble of thunder as the rain loaded clouds drew nearer.

It was not long before the soldiers were scampering around taking in ticks, blankets, and the Monday washing out of the way of the rain. Tents were closed and fastened down tight and then all laid back and waited patiently for the shower to blow over. The rain poured down in torrents for nearly an hour and some of the men who had dug cellars under their tents were unfortunate in having them flooded, thus spoiling butter, cheese, sugar and other extras that were stored away there.

A bath is now considered a luxury as well as a necessity. Last Saturday naturally suggested a bath and quite a number of the boys mounted mules and horses and rode bare back over to Chickamauga creek, about four miles from our camp, and bathed in the stream. The mere mentioning the name of this creek will doubtless bring back to the minds of some of our Fort Wayne veterans recollections of the past. The stream is narrow, swift running and in some places quite deep and is the only good bathing place near our camp.

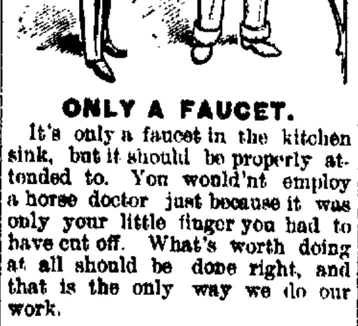

Captain Ranke has just received orders to muster enough more men to make a six-gun battery. This means that fifty-five more men are needed, as the muster roll now numbers 125 men and to make a full six-gun battery it requires 180 men, all told. It is desired that the most of this number be recruited from Fort Wayne and vicinity, and to this end Captain Ranke will leave tonight for Fort Wayne to muster in those who desire to enlist.

The artillery is considered by those who are in it as the best branch of the United States army and at Indianapolis there were considerable more applications for membership in our battery than were needed, after those who failed in the medical examination were returned home. The full quota could doubtless be obtained at this camp if the effort was made, but by special arrangement by Captain Ranke, permission has been granted to muster in the necessary number from our home town.

This will certainly be very welcome news to quite a number of men at Fort Wayne who could not get into our company when we left home.

It is advised that all who desire to enlist in the service of our country in this little brush with Spain make arrangements to muster in when Captain Ranke, representing the old Zollinger battery, comes to Fort Wayne.

Due announcement will be given through the Fort Wayne papers of the time and place for mustering.

ONLY A FAUCET.

It's only a faucet in the kitchen sink, but it should be properly attended to. You would'nt employ a horse doctor just because it was only your little finger you had to have cut off. What's worth doing at all should be done right, and that is the only way we do our work.

TOO QUIET.

Secretary Alger Escapes From Washington to Philadelphia.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The president was late in reaching his desk this morning.

During the forenoon callers from the two houses of congress were numerous, but a number that came early, including Representative Hull, of Iowa, chairman of the military affairs committee, and Representative Hager, of Iowa, did not waite to see him personally.

Others who came were mostly on war appointment seeking missions, and included Senators Morrill, of Vermont; Platt, of New York; Jones, of Arkansas, and Deboe, of Kentucky; and Representatives Foote, of New York; Richardson, of Tennessee, and Slayden, of Texas

Though there was no news afloat as to developments at the front there was a profusion of uniforms at the white house, many of the volunteers now stationed at Camp Alger appearing in full uniform among the sight seers who nowadays throng to the office and home of the president.

Many of the men at the camp are taking advantage of opportunities to secure leave of absence from their detachments to make the rounds of the capitol.

That there was a total lack of official news at the white house of developments in the war situation was evident at 11 o'clock today, when Secretary Alger went in to see the President. He spent only a few minutes and on emerging said he came over to see if there was any news and announced there was nothing of significance. He then drove off, saying he would leave for Philadelphia immediately. Senator Cullom, of Illinois, was one of the few who saw the president out of the number who sought personal interviews. He had a long conference.

A Cure for Heartburn.

The burning sensation in the stomach, the pains and suffering which I experienced for five long years, brought on by continued constipation and biliousness, are almost indescribable. I tried every known remedy without effect. Finally I tried Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets, following the directions carefully. After taking a few doses I began to improve. I have not used more than three boxes and feel as well as I ever felt. My restoration to perfect health I attribute solely to the use of Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets, and I only wish I could persuade others to do so as I did and be cured—Logan M. In olden times a leper was stoned out of town; in modern times a sick man is stoned out of all his chances in life by the crowd of busy, hustling men who have no place and no use for him. A man who has bilious turns and tired feelings and frequent "off days" might as well go out of business.

These things are bad enough in the self disgust and wretchedness they involve if they do not go any further. But you never know what is going to develop in a half-nourished, bile-poisoned constitution. If a man as soon as he feels that he is not getting the forceful strength and energy out of his food that he ought to, will begin taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, he will soon put himself in the position where he can do a man's work easily and cheerfully.

His appetite will be sharpened; his liver invigorated; his digestion strengthened; an edge put on his whole nutritive organism. Those subtle poisons which debilitate the entire organism and invite consumption and a host of other diseases, will be driven out of the system; and he will gain plenty of pure nourishing red blood, muscle-power and nerve-force. In short he will be a man among men.

There are hundreds of delusive temporary stimulants, "malt extracts," sarsaparillas and compounds, which are more or less "boomed" by merely profit-seeking druggists; but an honest druggist will give you the "Golden Medical Discovery" when you ask for it. If well informed, he knows that its sales have steadily increased for thirty years and that it is the invention of an educated, authorized physician who has devoted a life-time of active practice and profound study to chronic diseases.

A LAD IN JAIL.

Hired a Wheel from A. C. Katt and Never Returned It.

Jacob Alt, aged sixteen, is in jail, charged with larceny. While Superintendent Gosline was investigating the recent stealing of flowers he saw a wheel at the home of young Alt. The lad claimed he rented it for a friend. The superintendent made an investigation and learned that the wheel belonged to A. C. Katt and had been missing for two or three weeks. Mr. Katt doesn't recall that the lad ever rented it, but believes the bicycle was taken from in front of his store. It had been repainted, the number had been covered with putty and it did not present the appearance of the same wheel. The lad is being held. He was in the employ of L. O. Hull.

AWFUL SKIN HUMOR

My little daughter's head and face broke out in bleeding sores. One of her ears was so affected we thought it would slough off. Her suffering was intense, getting no rest unless under opiates. The physician tried every known remedy, but instead of getting better, she got worse. Distracted with her condition, I was advised to try Cuticura Remedies. Before the first week I noticed that the little sufferer was beginning to get relief, and in less than two months was entirely cured.

MAMMOTH WAR LOAN

Issue of One Billion Pesetas is Decreed.

Spain to Borrow From Internal Sources.

France and Spain Have a Secret Alliance.

Such is the Belief of the London Chronicle—American and Britain Must Get Closer.

London, June 1.—A special dispatch from Madrid says a decree has been published there authorizing the issue of an internal loan of 1,000,000,000 pesetas at 4 per cent.

Madrid, June 1.—The attention of the public today is absorbed in the condition of the Bank of Spain, which is considered more serious than any reverse of the war, inasmuch as the impossibility of the bank to help the government means impossibility to continue the war.

There was a long procession at the bank during the day. All classes of people were represented and many women were in line waiting their turn to change notes into silver, fearing the notes would soon be subjected to discount.

If the run continues there is danger of the bank's stock of silver becoming exhausted, which would compel the government to resort to a forced currency, issuing notes of small denomination. It is hoped, however, that the panic will subside, having the bank a margin of silver.

The financial outlook of Spain is rather dark. The government has entrusted the bank of Spain with the negotiations for a loan of 1,000,000,000 pesetas at 4 per cent., which sum to be increased as and when required. The bank will endeavor to raise the loan at home and abroad.

FRANCE AND SPAIN IN SECRET ALLIANCE.

London, June 1.—The London Daily Chronicle thinks the general situation is grave and says the "rumors of a secret arrangement between France and Spain continue with singular persistence and the report of French designs upon the Canary islands and Ceuta are gathering strength."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "In commercial circle it is perfectly well understood that Great Britain will regard France's taking the Canaries or Ceuta as an unfriendly act and also that if France helps Spain, public opinion here will demand that we assist America."

The Pall Mall Gazette devotes much space to the Anglo-American relations, and while disavowing its belief that any treaty of alliance exists, says:

"There will be something better, the recognition of our unities, and the rapidly consolidating sense of common interests and brotherliness. Henceforth Great Britain and America will approach these lines in the right spirit, and Anglo-Saxon solidarity will become more and more a force to be reckoned with."

SPANISH TROOPS IN CUBA ARE WELL.

Madrid, June 1.—11 a. m.—In regard to the reported illness of the Spanish troops in Cuba, the inspector general of the sanitary department says the health of the army in Cuba is excellent.

According to the last reports received the sick list has been reduced one-half "as the forced marches have ended and the food has improved."

SPAIN BUYING CATTLE AND GRAIN IN MEXICO.

Mexico City, June 1.—It is reported that the agents of the Spanish government are buying cattle and grain here, hoping to smuggle it out of the country in tramp steamers, which will endeavor to run the Cuban blockade. The matter will be looked into by the government which is determined to maintain a strict neutrality. The Spaniards are working very secretly in the matter.

Mexico has begun the export of wheat to Europe.

GOLD SEEKERS DROWNED.

Schooner Lady Jane Grey Founders Off Cape Flattery.

Seattle, Wash., June 1.—A special to the Times from Victoria, B. C., says the schooner Lady Jane Grey, foundered ninety miles west of Cape Flattery Sunday, May 22. Only twenty-seven out of sixty-one passengers were saved.

Following is the list of the saved: Crockel, Ranzen, Carlson, Olson and Johnson, of the crew.

Passengers Jungham, Lessy, Packard, Pennington, Blackwell, Livingston, Richards, Weaver, Brooke, Reilly, Coulris, Holler, Davenport, Selin, Bianchi, Colra, Wachter, Kingsbury, Roberts, Watson, Wilson and Johnson.

The survivors were brought here by the schooner Favorite. They left for Seattle at 9:30 on the Kingston.

WIDE OPEN.

Trans-Mississippi Exposition Inaugurated.

President McKinley Touches the Button in Washington and Makes a Speech by Telephone.

Omaha, Neb., June 1.—Amid the music of 100 bands, the cheers of 100,000 people, the blasts of many whistles and the waving of innumerable flags, the trans-Mississippi and international exposition was dedicated today.

Everything contributed to the smoothness of the final hours of preparations and nothing occurred to mar the occasion. At 9:30 a. m. the great civic parade started on its march from the center of the city to the grounds. The National Marine band led the splendid pageant and 100 musical organizations from the various states of the middle west contributed to the occasion.

The parade was three miles long, consisting of the officers and guests of the exposition, carriages, the semi-military organizations and all the secret societies of this and adjacent states. Early the special trains had begun to unload their crowds until the railroad men estimated that at least 100,000 people had arrived. The arrivals united with the citizens of Omaha and formed one solid phalanx along the routes of the parade for ten miles.

Rev. Dr. Nichols, of St. Louis, opened the exercises at the grounds with an appeal to Him who "doeth all things well, to shower his blessings on the enterprise and the people of the trans-Mississippi region, especially on the president, G. W. Wattles." Hon. John L. Webster, of Omaha, and Hon. John N. Baldwin, of Council Bluffs, were eulogized.

President McKinley addressed the assembled multitude by long distance telephone, touched the magic button and the exposition was dedicated. The weather could not have been more propitious and not a particle of dust was in evidence. This afternoon the Marine band will give a concert at the grounds and tonight a pyrotechnic display on the most elaborate scale will enliven the occasion.

Washington, June 1.—President McKinley today formally opened the trans-Mississippi and International exposition at Omaha, Neb., by touching an electric button at 1:30 o'clock in the telegraph office in the white house.

A few moments before 1 o'clock the president sent the following telegram of congratulations to the president of the exposition, Gordon W. Wattles:

"Hon. Gordon W. Wattles, President Trans-Mississippi Exposition, Omaha:

"The cordiality of the invitation extended to me to be present at the opening of your great exposition is deeply appreciated and I more deeply regret that public duties prevent me from leaving the capital at this time. The events of the memorable half century which the trans-Mississippi and International exposition commemorates are interwoven with the history of the whole nation and are of surpassing importance.

"The mighty west affords most striking evidences of the splendid achievements and possibilities of our people.

"It is a matchless tribute to the energy and endurance of the pioneer, while its vast agricultural development, its progress in manufactures, its advancement in the arts and sciences and in all departments of education and endeavor have been an inestimable contribution to the civilization and wealth of the world.

"Nowhere have the unconquerable determination, self-reliant strength and sturdy manhood of our American citizenship been more forcibly illustrated. In peace or war the men and women of the west have ever been in the vanguard.

"I congratulate the management upon its magnificent enterprise and assure all who participate in this undertaking of the deep interest which the government has in its success."

RECEPTION FOR TROOPS.

Honolulu Preparing to Welcome the Soldiers en Route to Philippines.

San Francisco, June 1.—The steamship Moana arrived here today from Australian ports via Honolulu. At the latter place everything was in readiness for the reception of the troops on their way to Manila and the most elaborate preparations had been made. The cruiser Charleston had not arrived at Honolulu when the Moana left and none of the transports were sighted on the trip to this city.

BOYS TO THE FRONT

Old Third Regiment Has Left Camp Thomas.

Fort Wayne Companies in the Detachment.

Will be Hurried on to the Tampa Camp.

General Miles and Staff Reach Tampa—Adjutant General Corbin Fixing Apportionment of Second Call.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 1.—The first of the volunteer infantry left Chickamauga for Tampa today. The regiments which left were the One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Indiana, First Ohio, First District of Columbia and Second New York. Tomorrow the Third Pennsylvania, First Illinois, Fifth Maryland and Sixty-ninth New York will leave.

The second New York, under Col. E. C. Hardin, left camp at 5 o'clock and marched five miles to Rossville station. This regiment has been in camp in Chickamauga since May 20.

The regiment is composed of companies from Troy, Cohoes, Schenectady, Saratoga, Hoosac Falls, White Hall, Mohawk, Poughkeepsie and Amsterdam.

The next regiment to leave camp was the First Ohio, which started on a nine-mile march to Ringgold, Ga., at 6 o'clock. The regiment has been at Chickamauga since May 15. Col. D. D. Hunt is in command.

The One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Indiana left camp at 5 o'clock and marched to Ringgold. This regiment has been in camp in Chickamauga since May 15.

The companies are from South Bend, Angola, Auburn, Waterloo, Fort Wayne, North Manchester, Ligonier, Elkhart, Plymouth, Knox and Goshen. Col. George M. Studebaker is one of the youngest colonels in the army, being but thirty-five years of age.

The First Regiment, District of Columbia left camp and marched to Rossville. This regiment is composed of 1,050 men from Washington under Col. George H. Harries. It has been camped in the park since May 24.

The First Illinois cavalry arrived this morning on three trains.

The command numbers 1,018 officers and men under Col. E. C. Young.

There are still 43,000 troops here. The order issued to recruit all the regiments to the standard of 1,307 men will largely increase the number and with the constant arrivals will keep the army near the 50,000 mark.

General Breckinridge continues his inspection and is doing much toward getting the various regiments in serviceable condition.

GENERAL MILES REACHES TAMPA.

Tampa, Fla., June 1.—General Nelson A. Miles, accompanied by his entire staff and a force of clerks, arrived in Tampa at 6:30 this morning from Washington over the Florida Central and Peninsular railroad. General Miles was accompanied also by his wife, daughter and son.

General Miles was tired out from his long dusty journey and retired to his room shortly after his arrival. He refused to discuss the plan of campaign in any way. General Miles is apparently beginning to feel the terrific strain he has been under for the past few months. There is no less elasticity in his step and his sturdy figure is as upright as ever, but the lines of his face have perceptibly deepened and his hair is whiter. Lieut. J. D. Miley, of General Shafter's staff has returned from an inspection of various points along the east coast of Florida.

A firing drill of the whole brigade of light artillery of ten batteries of four guns each, was held along the beach at Port Tampa today. All the artillery manouvres were gone through with and the enthusiasm was intense. For an hour the artillery men dashed up and down the long beach through shallow water and over the hammers of Picnic Island wheeling the guns into line at command and firing. The noise of the firing at times were deafening.

FIXING THE QUOTAS UNDER SECOND CALL.

Washington, June 1.—Adjutant General Corbin is engaged in making up the apportionment of troops which each state is to be asked to furnish under President McKinley's second call for 75,000 men. Because of an excess over their quota under the first call, some of the states will not be asked for any additional men at this time. So far as is possible the existing regiments will be recruited to their maximum strength. Some of the state governors in their communications with the war department have manifested a decided opposition to filling up the existing regiments, preferring to recruit entirely new organizations, and in some of these cases it is likely the department may yield, although no one will make any official statement to the effect. There is a disposition on the part of the war department to avoid unseemly wrangle over the matter, but instead to yield a point for the sake of appearances.

Ample authority, it is said, exists under the volunteer act for the war department to proceed on its own responsibility with the work of recruiting without any call on the governors to assist in that work.

MASSING RATIONS AT JACKSONVILLE.

Washington, June 1.—The war department is massing rations for thirty days for the troops that are assembling at Jacksonville, Fla., under command of Major General Lee. The officials decline to say how many men are to be concentrated there or whether they will stay at that place for the full thirty days for which the rations are provided.

EARLY REGIMENTS TO BE RECRUITED ANEW.

Washington, June 1.—An order was issued by the war department today which provides that the organizations accepted and mustered into the United States service under the president's first call for troops will be expanded from the 75,000 men asked for under the second call so that each regiment shall consist of twelve companies (troops, batteries,) and each battalion (squadron) of four companies, and of the maximum enlisted strength provided by the volunteer army act.

Regimental and independent battalion commanders are to select a recruiting party to obtain recruits in the locality where the organization was raised. Additional companies necessary for the completion of regiments and battalions are to be mustered by the same rules that obtained under the president's first proclamation.

WHAT TO SEND.

The Things Sick and Wounded Soldiers Need,

Food Delicacies, Linen Bandages and Sleeping Gowns Advised by Surgeon General Sternburg.

Washington, D. C., June 1.—Surgeon General Sternburg, of the army, has received numerous letters from patriotic ladies asking what articles would be most acceptable for the use of our sick and wounded soldiers in the field or in hospitals.

For the purpose of answering in a general way these inquiries, he has prepared the following memorandum, which will be sent to persons communicating with him on this subject:

"Money may be sent to the surgeon general of the army as a contribution to the hospital funds of hospital ship 'Relief' and of the United States general hospitals. This will be sent to the surgeons in charge, to be expended for delicacies for the sick, such as canned soups, jellies, lemons, oranges, etc.

"Shirts and drawers are provided by the government but will be accepted and can be given to convalescents upon their being discharged from the hospital. Pajamas made of light gingham will be useful for the sick in hospitals and on the hospital ship as they can be worn by convalescents who are able to be out of bed.

"Long night shirts of light muslin can also be utilized.

"Broad bandages of light flannel to protect the abdomen are highly recommended and may be worn to advantage by our soldiers in the field.

"Those who prefer may contribute canned soups, clam broth, orange marmalade, ginger ale, biscuit, water crackers, and similar articles in hermetically sealed cans, for use on the hospital ship "Relief," and at the United States general hospitals at Key West, Fla., Fort McPherson, Ga.; Fort Thomas, Ky., and Fort Moyer, Va.

"Bandages, lint and other surgical dressings are not desired, as these can now be obtained from the manufacturers sterilized for use and of the quality which experience has shown to be best suited to our purposes.

"The articles mentioned may be sent direct to the surgeon general of the army or the surgeons in charge of the general hospitals named."

THE SENATE.

Washington, June 1.—When the war revenue bill was taken up the absence of a quorum was suggested and fifteen minutes were consumed in assembling the requisite number of senators. Mr. Chandler, republican, of New Hampshire, assuming, he said, that the majority of the finance committee would insist upon its proposition to coin the silver seigniorage, and that the republican minority would press its bond proposition, thought it proper to offer some remarks upon an amendment which he had offered to the pending bill. The amendment follows:

"And it is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States not to commit the country more thoroughly to the gold standard, but that the efforts of the government in all its branches shall be steadily directed to secure and maintain the use of silver as well as gold as standard money, with the free coinage of both under a system of bimetallism which will insure the parity in value of the coins of the two metals, furnish a sufficient volume of metallic money and give immunity to the world of trade from violent fluctuations in exchange.

ATTACKS THE FORTS

Schley Makes an Assault on Santiago.

Spanish Fleet Keep Out of the Battle.

Land Batteries Were Badly Damaged.

Details of the Engagement Very Difficult to Procure—Havana Claims Spanish Victory.

New York, June 1.—An Evening Journal special from Cape Haytien says:

The torpedo boat Porter arrived at Mole St. Nicholas at 1 o'clock with dispatches for Washington. She left immediately. But before going to sea the following story of the bombardment of Santiago de Cuba, the refuge of Cervera and the Spanish fleet was obtained by your correspondent at the Mole:

The American squadron, augmented by the torpedo boat Porter, the auxiliary cruiser St. Paul and the protected cruiser New Orleans, approached the entrance to the harbor of Santiago at about 12:30 p. m., the Iowa leading.

Inside the entrance to the harbor was seen one of the warships of Cervera's fleet, stripped for action. As the American fleet drew near the New Orleans was detached and steamed forward, ahead of the Iowa, Texas and Massachusetts.

One of the forts opened fire on her and she replied, the other two ships directing their fire at the battery on the Punta Gorda within the harbor and to westward of the position occupied by the Spanish ship.

The latter replied to the fire and immediately became a target for all the American ships engaged in the battle.

The Spanish fleet took refuge behind a protecting headland and was not seen again during the engagement.

The Iowa, directed by Captain "Fighting Bob" Evans; the Massachusetts, Capt. F. J. Higginson; the Texas, Capt. J. W. Phillip, and the New Orleans, Capt. W. M. Folger, kept up their terrific fire against the Morro, Socapa and Punta Gorda forts for two hours, their projectiles, of enormous size, doing tremendous damage to the defenses of the harbor.

The masonry on Socapa and Morro was battered almost into dust, and the forms of Spanish artillerymen and infantry could be plainly seen flying to safety behind the neighboring hills.

The auxiliary cruiser which joined Schley's fleet just before the battle took place was hit by shells from the forts, and it is thought she was seriously damaged. After seeking the protection of a jutting headland the Spanish warships continued to fire projectiles over the hills toward the fleet, but they had no range, not even directing their shots, and they fell harmlessly into the sea.

That the number of killed and wounded on the Spanish side is enormous, no one doubts, for time and again the American shells hit the batteries squarely and made the flying masonry and dismantled guns of the enemy easily descried.

The damage done to the American fleet cannot be learned, but it is not thought any person was killed—if, indeed, anyone was wounded.

Port Au Prince, Hayti, June 1.—6:50 a. m.—The following additional details have been received here, from a Spanish source at Havana, of the engagement reported off Santiago de Cuba yesterday:

The Spanish batteries at first answered the fire of the American squadron in a lively manner. After twenty minutes of firing, directed in a superior manner upon the part of the American fleet, the Spanish batteries began to weaken their fire and the American ships concentrated a violent fire upon El Morro, destroying it completely.

The fort at Cesapa and Punta Gorda fired the last shots.

The Spanish losses must have been considerable. Details are lacking as to the American losses.

The Spaniards pretend to have struck the American vessels several times, but this information is accepted here under reserve.

At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the American squadron ceased firing. At that hour there was no Spanish vessel in sight.

No news has been received here from the Spanish boats.

HAVANA REPORT OF THE ENGAGEMENT.

(Copyright 1898, by the Associated Press.)

Havana, June 1.—The following Spanish account of the reported engagement off Santiago de Cuba has been issued here:

The American fleet, consisting of the Iowa, Massachusetts, Brooklyn, Texas, New Orleans, Marblehead, Minneapolis and another cruiser, in addition to six small vessels, took up a position on May 31 on the western side of the mouth of Santiago de Cuba channel, opening fire from the first five vessels.

The Spanish cruiser Cristobal Colon was anchored toward Punta Gorda and could be seen from the open sea. The fire of the American fleet was answered by the Morro, Socapa and Punta Gorda batteries and by the cruiser Cristobal Colon.

The American fleet fired seventy shots, "with projectiles of 32," without causing the least damage.

The bombardment lasted ninety minutes, and the American fleet retired with a trans-Atlantic steamer (auxiliary cruiser) damaged. Two shells were seen to explode on the Iowa's stern and there was fire on board another battleship. Several projectiles fell inside the harbor, near the Spanish warships.

There is great enthusiasm at Santiago de Cuba and here.

CONFLICTING REPORTS ARE HEARD IN LONDON.

London, June 1.—This city is bewildered by the conflicting reports from Santiago de Cuba which are reaching here from all sources.

"The Spanish fleet destroyed or surrendered," alternates with "reported battle discredited at the navy department," on the news placards.

Some of the special dispatches have seemingly minute details as to how "the Brooklyn was standing well in shore, opened the battle yesterday afternoon and how a heavy fire was concentrated by the whole squadron on Morro and the other defenses, to which they replied furiously."

Another report says: "Commodore Schley, after exploding many mines in the channel ran the Texas far enough into the harbor to engage and sink the Reina Mercedes."

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO BAIT THE FLEET.

Key West, June 1.—12:05 p. m.—Another ship just from the blockade reports that on Sunday morning a small Spanish gunboat came out of Havana and ran along the line of batteries, close in shore.

Yesterday she again came out, venturing over two miles from land. She was chased and one shot was fired at her, whereupon she scudded back to port. On Monday night a warship of the blockade squadron approached within five miles of Havana, clearly distinguishing whole rows of lighted streets, thus contradicting the rumors of Havana being in darkness. The commander of the warship said new fortifications are in course of construction on Morro Heights. A steamer carrying earth and sand is running night and day.

NAVY DEPARTMENT HAS HEARD NOTHING.

Washington, June 1.—The navy department had not heard from Commodore Schley up to noon today concerning his reported engagement at Santiago yesterday, and the officials continued to treat with scepticism the accounts coming from Hayti as to the extent of the action.

At the same time official advices are anxiously awaited, for while the Haytien accounts contain a number of statements discredited by the authorities here, yet there are so many circumstances from different points indicating that some sort of action has occurred that they are accepted as roughly suggesting what the official reports will show with more accuracy and detail. Secretary Long remained at home during the morning, as he is slightly inconvenienced by a strained muscle.

Had any important dispatches arrived they would have been speedily sent to him, but nothing beyond the regular morning mail was laid before him up to noon.

STOLE FLOWERS.

Officer Pageler Finds the Persons Who Have Been Molesting Flower Beds.

Officer Pageler this morning located the persons who have been invading yards and taking flowers. The vandals are a young girl aged eleven years and her small brother aged eight years. The officer found many of the flowers and a few jardinieres which had been taken. The children were taken to the police station and held for a time but were not locked up. Superintendent Gorsline will give them a lecture and allow them to go massmuch as the mother is a poor widow.

FIGHT AT SANTIAGO.

Madrid Reports the Best of the Engagement.

Official Reports Confirm Rumors of Attack.

Spanish Tales Say Schley Was Severely Repulsed.

Marine Minister Aunon Says There Was an Attack on the Forts, but Declines to Give Details.

Madrid, June 1.—5 p. m.—The following official dispatch from Havana has been received here:

"The American squadron, commanded by Commodore Schley, composed of large iron clads and cruisers, attacked the fortifications at the entrance of Santiago de Cuba. Our iron clad, Cristobal Colon, closing the mouth of the port and supported by the fire of the forts, repulsed the attack, causing damage to the enemy.

"SEN MANTEROLA."

Admiral Manterola is the officer in command of the regular Spanish fleet in Cuban waters.

Madrid, June 1.—11 a. m.—The minister of marine, Captain Aunon has received a dispatch saying the American squadron has suffered a check before Santiago de Cuba.

The fire from the Spanish forts and the fleet of Admiral Cervera is alleged to have repulsed the American ships, which are said to have retreated and to have been damaged. The Spanish fleet, it is claimed, did not suffer.

AUNON STOPS DETAILS ON THE BOMBARDMENT.

Madrid, June 1.—5 p. m.—The minister of marine, Captain Aunon, on leaving the palace this afternoon after a visit to the queen, said:

"The American squadron has bombarded and tried to force the Santiago forts, which replied vigorously. The Cristobal Colon advanced to the mouth of the harbor, exchanging shots with the enemy, who fired seventy shots against the forts. The damage done is not reported. The Colon hit an auxiliary American ship, damaging it. The Colon was not hurt. Further details are withheld."

CREW OF BELVIDERE WERE ALL RESCUED.

Philadelphia, June 1.—The passengers and crew of the freight steamer Belvidere, which was wrecked off Cape Maysi, Cuba, are on the Norwegian steamer Kong Frode from Port Antonio, which will reach this city about noon today.

The Belvidere sailed from Kingston for Boston on Wednesday last and was wrecked the following day. The Kong Frode passed Reedy Island in the Delaware Bay at 6:30 this morning, and signalled all well.

THE UNCAS DESTROYS A SPANISH BLOCKHOUSE.

Key West, June 1.—8:30 a. m.—The United States auxiliary gunboat Uncas arrived here this morning from the Cuban coast. She reports that on Monday last, when about a mile and a half west of Matanzas light house she sighted a Spanish blockhouse, on shore.

Taking up a position about 600 yards off shore, the Uncas fired two shots at the house and the two shells went clear through the building, which was wrecked.

During the firing the auxiliary gunboat Leyden came up and also fired a couple of shots. It is not known whether any Spaniards were killed, but they probably fled at the first shot. The blockhouse made no reply.

This action upon the part of the Uncas and Leyden is in accordance with the policy of the patrol boats in shelling any blockhouses they may come across. The crews enjoy this target practice very much.

All was quiet on the Havana blockade when the Uncas left last night.

THE PORTER PUTS IN AT CAPE HAYTIEN.

Cape Haytien, Hayti, June 1.—8:15 p. m.—The United States torpedo boat Porter put into the harbor of Mole St. Nicholas at 1 o'clock this morning in all probability with dispatches for Washington, and left there again at 2 o'clock.

VICE PRESIDENT CAPOTE IS SAFE.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT OF CAPOTE'S CAPTURE.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 1.—There is no probability of truth in the report that Vice President Capote of the Cuban republic, who was a passenger on the wrecked steamer Belvidere, has been captured by the Spanish. There are no Spanish garrisons in that part of Cuba, and the Spanish gunboats that were formerly patrolling off Mayasi are now shut in blockaded harbors or staying close for fear of capture.

It is not certainly known whether the Belvidere's passengers were rescued by the Ethelwold (not Ethered,) of the same line.

YANKEE DEWEY.

Taught Prince Henry His Manners at Hong Kong.

American Commander Left the Prince's Banquet Table Because United States Was Slighted.

Chicago, June 1.—Charles N. Post, vice president of the Lyon & Healy company, who has just returned from an extended tour of the orient, met Admiral Dewey in Hong Kong March 25. Mr. Post tells of a social passage at arms between Dewey and Prince Henry, brother of Emperor William, commanding the German squadron at Hong Kong.

Prince Henry, immediately after his arrival at Hong Kong, gave a banquet to the higher officers of the other fleets, among whom was Rear Admiral Dewey.

At the feast the prince proposed a toast to his own country, then to Great Britain, then to all the other great powers except the United States. Finally, just before the dinner was over, the royal host proposed a toast to this country.

When Rear Admiral Dewey saw that apparently his country was to be slighted he left the banquet without ceremony. The next day a representative of Prince Henry sent a roundabout apology to the American commander.

Dewey sent word back to the emperor's brother that he would accept nothing but a written or personal apology from the prince.

The latter then called upon Dewey and apologized, saying that in the confusion of the dinner he, the prince, thoughtlessly neglected to put the American toast in its proper place on the program.

While Mr. Post was at Hong Kong Prince Henry gave a ball, but Admiral Dewey, although invited, did not attend it. The banquet incident was not allowed to get out and Mr. Post received it first-hand from one of the officers of the American fleet.

THE COURTS.

Commissioners Discuss Changes in the County Precincts.

There Will be an Increase of Several at the Coming Election—Items of Interest.

The county commissioners this morning discussed changes to be made in the voting precincts. The law requires that the precincts shall be determined in June preceding the election and the commissioners wish to dispose of the matter as soon as possible. Last election there were eighty-eight precincts, but inasmuch as there has been an increase in the vote it will be necessary to increase the number of precincts by four or five.

Township Assessor M. V. Walsh, of Wayne, yesterday turned over to the county treasurer $1,286, representing the dog tax collected in the township. This sum exceeds that collected last year by $152. The increase is not due to the new canine generation, but to the new law, which gives the assessors the authority to collect the tax.

Cyrus T. Paine, administrator of the estate of James D. Paine, has entered suit against Jonathan and Marietta Snyder, to foreclose mortgage. Demand, $1,200. Suit is also entered against Martin and Christian Hoelle, to foreclose an $800 mortgage. P. A. Randall is attorney in both cases.

THERE is something in a name—of times much. Schley's name is pronounced as if spelled s-l-y.

THE great problems of state which are presented to this nation are not of the war with Spain, but questions which grow out of the war and must be solved when the war is over. New and radical policies may be forced upon the United States which will alter the whole destiny of the country.

THE new torpedo boat destroyers will be lighted with electricity throughout and furnished with one searchlight. Each is to have two conning towers, the forward one of which will be made of one-half inch nickeled steel plates. The battery will be composed of seven rapid fire guns, to be mounted on deck and on the conning towers, and there will be mounted on the midship line two twenty-foot torpedo tubes, to carry seventeen-foot torpedos. Berth space will be required to accommodate sixty men and four officers and provision space for twenty days. The torpedo boats will also have two conning towers, on the deck of which will be mounted three fifteen-foot torpedo tubes. Accommodation will be required for twenty-six men and three officers.

THE dispatches from Madrid speak with magnificent nonchalance of the "second reserve fleet" and the "third reserve fleet" and their readiness to come over the water and blow the western hemisphere to kingdom come after Cervera has been sent down to share with Montojo the hospitality of Davy Jones. The fact is that pretty nearly all of Spain's navy that is fit to cope with modern warships is now cooped up in Santiago bay. The fighting ships at Cadiz, with one or two exceptions, are antiquated iron hulks, illfitted with machinery and unequipped with modern armament. Vessels of the Indiana and Iowa kind would have but poor sport in an engagement with the ships Spain has at home. When this war is over Spain will be eliminated from the naval powers of the world.

IN Spain one can understand the dissatisfaction which prevails. A constant series of disasters is reported, unredeemed by a single beam of comfort save such as is derived from the proved valor of the Spanish sailors at Manila, declares the London Daily Mail. Yet even this consolation is marred by the growing conviction that these gallant men offered themselves up, as it were, as a sacrifice to the incapacity and criminal negligence of successive administrations in Spain. To the ignominy of defeat are added the terrors of impending famine. In Alicante, in Barcelona and elsewhere the bakers' shops are being looted, as they were in Paris on the eve of the revolution. And the politicians at Madrid—for it is not the government only that is at fault—stand powerless, with no help in their hands. We could almost wish for the Spaniards to gain some slight advantage at sea, that their government might be encouraged, by the satisfaction of their honor, to sue for peace. As was foreseen before hostilities broke out, there can be but one end to the struggle, and its prolongation can only spread misery and anarchy in Spain without the faintest prospect of modifying the inevitable result. America has proved stronger than was anticipated, even by those who wished her best, and Spain has shown herself weaker than even her severest critics suspected. At this moment the Spanish politician who could find resolution enough to say "This war must stop" would be the truest friend of his country and not improbably its most popular figure.

SOME notion of the cost of the war may be gained from the fact that Commodore Schley has been employing a couple of the big American liners now of the auxiliary navy for dispatch boats between his fleet and the cable stations in Hayti and Jamaica. The cost per day of maintaining one of these wonderful ocean grayhounds, including $2,500 lease fee every twenty-four hours, coal, pay of officers and men, etc., amounts to some $6,000 or $7,000. So when Commodore Schley wants to inform the naval strategy board that "Cervera's fleet is in there and will never get home—am going to breakfast," it means that Uncle Sam is diving into his pocket for a couple of days' pay for that ship, not to speak of the cable tolls.

THERE has been some anxiety and, indeed, complaint, because the public has heard so infrequently of late from General Gomez of the Cuban army. But this cause of discontent has been removed. General Gomez has adopted the American idea, namely, that if you wish to do business you must advertise, and it is announced that Las Villas, the official organ of the Cuban army, is to be published weekly from headquarters, two issues having already appeared. In what may be called his salutatory, General and Editor Gomez informs the troops that they are no longer insurgents, but regular soldiers of the Cuban republic, and that they are to carry on war after the manner of civilized men and not in the style of the brutal Spaniards, and so conduct themselves as to win the good will and respect of their brethren of the United States. There can be no doubt that Las Villas will supply a long felt want and meet with the circulation and patronage it deserves.

Abolish the Canteen.

(Indianapolis News.)

The establishment of "canteens" at Chickamauga is, we are convinced, aside from all moral considerations, which we do not here discuss, a mistake. There are many things in which our raw troops must be drilled before they can be effective soldiers. There are some things in which they must be tried and not found wanting before they can be good soldiers in a hot climate. One is abstemiousness. They must control their appetites, both for food and drink, especially for drink. The only safe stimulant in hot climates is coffee, which the government provides in ample quantity and of excellent quality.

Each soldier receives daily three pints of clear, strong coffee. That is stimulant enough for any man, and it is the finest stimulant for activity in a warm climate. It is the one stimulant that races living in hot countries rely on. There are no troops in the world whose stamina is greater or whose courage is higher than the Turks. Their only stimulant is coffee. The "canteen" is a mistake, and the sooner it is abolished the better.

For our boys, accustomed to alcoholic drinks to a greater or less degree, to carry their habits with them to the hot countries where they are going, is simply to invite death.

King alcohol is more potent than King Alfonso. The correspondents of some French newspapers, seeing our troops at Washington, Key West, Tampa and Chickamauga, have written letters about them, in which they recognize both good and bad qualities. But they all agree that the greatest danger that threatens the volunteers is alcohol, and surprise is expressed at the impunity with which whisky is sold in the camp. It seems to us that the government will be derelict if it does not lay a heavy hand on this traffic.

We repeat that we are not discussing it as a moral question. We are discussing it as a sanitary question. To place before our boys the opportunity of alcoholic drink is simply to fool with death, to invite suicide. Not only ought the "canteen" to be abolished, but severe penalties should be prescribed and enforced for any indulgence in alcoholic drink by the troops. Total abstinence is the only safety for men who have to work or fight in a hot climate.

THE SAILORS' FRIEND.

Originator of the "Plimsoll Mark" Is Dying at an Advanced Age.

LONDON, June 1.—Samuel Plimpsoll, known as "The Sailors' Friend," originator of the famous "Plimpsoll mark," to prevent the overloading of ships, is said to be dying at Folkestone. He was at one time president of the National Amalgamated Sailors' and Firemen's union of Great Britain and Ireland and is the author of "Our Seamen" and "Cattle Ships." He was born at Bristol in 1824 and went into parliament for the express purpose of helping the sailors.

Another Game Chalked Up in the Wrong Column.

New Castle Had Little Trouble Winning the Third Game From Fort Wayne—The Other Games.

Fort Wayne dropped one peg nearer the bottom of the percentage column yesterday. Alloway was in the points for the Hoosiers and the Novacastrians had no trouble hitting his curves. His support was not gilt-edged by a long ways, however. Clarence Smith tossed the ball for the New Castles and Sharp was the only member of the Fort Wayne team who hit his curves with any degree of effectiveness. The game was lost because the Hoosiers were unable to solve Smith's curves. The team plays in Youngstown today and the fight for the tail end will be on. There is one consolation. Youngstown must win four games (which is an impossibility) to head off our own. Score:

GIVES ARMY A HOSPITAL.

Mrs. L. Z. Leiter Purchases a Hotel Near Chickamauga Park.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Mrs. L. Z. Leiter has purchased and presented to the government for use as a military hospital the Chickamauga park hotel at Crawfish Springs. The purchase price was $10,000. Dr. Nicholas Senn, of this city, now an assistant surgeon general of the army, conducted the negotiations for the transfer of the property, and will have personal charge of converting it into a hospital for sick and wounded soldiers. Dr. Senn found the government's arrangements for taking care of its invalided men very meager and he happened to mention the fact to Mrs. Leiter.

That lady's heart was instantly touched and she authorized the famous surgeon to purchase a building and draw on her for the amount expended. Dr. Senn purchased the Chickamauga Park hotel, and on Sunday night Mrs. Leiter wired her husband, who had come to Chicago to witness the closing of his son's wheat deal, about the transaction. Mr. Leiter promptly wired the doctor to draw on him for any amount he needed to carry out his wife's philanthropic enterprise. Mr. Leiter said yesterday that the hotel will be instantly prepared for the reception and care of patients and that there will be no presentation ceremony.

MUST TEST MILK.

Dairymen May be Compelled to Get Certificates.

An Effort Will be Made to Have the Council Pass an Ordinance—Councilmen Favor the Law.

The board of health is making an effort to have only the purest milk sold to the consumers of Fort Wayne and with this idea in view the council will be importuned to pass an ordinance compelling every dairyman who sells milk to Fort Wayne citizens to have his cattle tested for tuberculosis and require a certificate of health for his dairy. Members of the board have talked with one-half of the councilmen and they all express themselves as in favor of such an ordinance. In the recent examinations Drs. Meyers and Drayer found more than $1,000 worth of cattle who were unhealthy and they did not examine every head. The board is going to push the matter and it is expected there will be no opposition from the councilmen.

BOARD OF WORKS.

At the regular meeting of the board of works yesterday afternoon, the engineer submitted plans and specifications for sewers as follows:

In the alley west of Barthold street, from Third street to the first alley north of High street; in the alley north of High from Barthold to Wefel; in the alley south of Third, from the alley west of Barthold street to the west line of Clark's addition; in the alley west of Wefel street, from the alley south of Third street to High street; in the alley between Third and Fourth streets, from Barthold street to the west line of Clark's addition. The plans were approved, and the board immediately passed resolutions, declaring the resolutions necessary, and work will commence as soon as bids are received.

The board approved the sewer builders' bond of Louis Arens, and the bond of Roman Zoeller, for relaying a sidewalk on the south side.

Some time was devoted to a discussion of contemplated improvements in other parts of town, but no further action was taken.

O. E. Guelick, agent for the Alcatraz Construction company, reported that work had commenced on the pavement of south side streets, and would be pushed.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

The council committee of the whole will meet at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, at the corner of Broadway and Taylor street, and proceed over the proposed route of the South Wayne sewer. It is desired that every member of the city council attend, as the matter of annexation of property adjacent to the southern part of the city is one of the utmost importance.

The police and fire departments were paid off in orders today.

The board of works has received the shipping bill for the two new LaFrance fire engines, which are en route here from Elmira, N. Y.

Contractor Guelich put about sixty men to work on East Creighton avenue this morning and as soon as the work is fairly started he may double this force.

The board of safety met last evening, but transacted no business of importance. Weighmaster Batke did not resign and Captain Reese was therefore not elected to fill a position in which there is no vacancy.

A beautiful and impressive marriage ceremony was last evening solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Foster, No. 19 Lavina street. The contracting parties were Will Sweany, the popular young druggist, of Monroeville, and Eleanore, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelhart, formerly of this city, but now of St. Louis, Mo. At 5 o'clock, to the familiar strains of Tannhausen, with Miss Maud Weingardner at the piano, the bride in a becoming gown of gray and mousseline de soie, attended by Miss Lola Foster, in white silk and lace, entered on the arm of the groom. A beautiful ceremony was preformed by Rev. C. C. Cissel, after which immediate friends were served a wedding dinner by Mrs. Foster. Covers were laid for ten. The floral decorations were carnations and smilax. After June 5 Mr. and Mrs. Sweany will be at home to a large circle of friends at Monroeville, Ind.

Walter Carey, a Western Union telegraph operator, while riding his wheel last evening met with an accident which might have resulted seriously. At the corner of Harmer and Wayne streets a dog chased after his wheel and suddenly tried to dash between the wheels of the bicycle. The hind wheel struck the dog and Walter was thrown several yards into the air and alighted on his face. He went to Carl Rastetter's drug store and an examination showed that his face was badly scratched and bruised, but there was no serious injuries. Walter is carrying his face around in a sticking plaster today.

THE RIVALS.

Schley and His Antagonist at Santiago.

Men and the Fleets That Confront Each Other—Americans are Superior to the Enemy.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Admiral Cervera and Commodore Schley are the commanders of the Spanish and American naval forces now in and around the Bay of Santiago de Cuba.

The situation is very like that which prevailed in Asiatic waters before the fall of Manila. It was a Spanish admiral versus an American commodore there also. The Spaniard was in his own bay under the protection of his own guns. But it must be said that Schley has not the first-class, deep and wide entrance to the enemy's waters that Dewey had in Manila. Neither is Schley's squadron as remarkably superior to the Spaniards, in Santiago de Cuba bay as was Dewey's to those in Manila bay.

Spain's four cruisers have neither the thickness nor the toughness of the Iowa and Massachusetts in armor plate.

The perforation power of their guns is not as high as that of the Americans'. The tonnage of the Massachusetts, Iowa and Brooklyn is in total 30,969. That of Spain's ships is in total 27,840. Spain's four ships can throw a total at one discharge of 9,900 pounds. Schley's armored ships can throw one-half again as much.

If the power, measured in metal, of the Harvard and the New Orleans, which will soon be a part of the squadron, be added to Schley's forces, the Americans will nearly double the Spaniards in fighting strength.

Then, speaking of the armored ships alone, the American plate is thicker and tougher, for it is believed that the armor of the Vizcaya, Oquendo, Teresa and Colon is of the "composite" kind, while ours is nickel steel. The belt armor of the Spaniards is ten to twelve inches thick, while that of the American battleships is eighteen inches thick. So much for the armored ships.

In unarmored ships the Spaniards have the Pluton and Furor, two torpedo boat destroyers, to the Americans' Marblehead and New Orleans, protected cruisers; the Harvard, unprotected cruiser; the Dupont, torpedo boat, and the Eagle and Vixen, destroyers.

It certainly looks like an uneven match, but that fact is comforting to the Americans. Still, if the Spaniards can shoot at all they should certainly be able to avenge the disaster in Manila Bay on some of our unarmored ships if they go within range of the big eleven-inch guns on the Spanish cruisers, providing, of course, the Spaniards' attention is not distracted by the fire of the American battle ships, a provision that probably has already been arranged by Commodore Schley himself.

Taking it all around the outlook from any point of view is not pleasant for Admiral Cervera. He may prove the Montejo of Schley, an incident of the war that the American people can contemplate with perfect complacency.

Vermont and the north have their Dewey, Maryland and the south may have their Schley.

The appellate court has rendered a decision which will be of interest to the people of cities, to the effect that city councils have no right to grant permits to any individual or concern for any purpose that will in any manner obstruct a highway to the traveling public; that the streets belong to the people, and no one can occupy them for the vending of any article, though even a permit for a consideration has been secured from city authorities. This will shut out street fakirs and sidewalk stands.

POLICE NEWS.

Superintendent Gorsline Asked to Locate Frank J. Geiger.

Friends in Switzerland Have Not Heard of Him for Eight Years—Police Court.

Superintendent Gorsline is in receipt of a letter from the Swiss consul at Cincinnati, asking him to locate Frank J. Geiger, who at one time resided in Fort Wayne. Twelve or fifteen years ago Geiger was employed in a hotel or restaurant in this city and since 1890 his relatives and friends in Switzerland have not heard from him. The superintendent is making diligent inquiry about the man today, but finds nobody who remembers him under that name at least.

British Consul at Havana Warns Correspondents Away.

KEY WEST, Fla., June 1.—W. H. J. Taylor, the British consul here, has received a cablegram from Alexander Gollan, British consul general at Havana, in the following terms:

"Please warn British correspondents of newspapers who may be in Key West, with the intention of coming to Cuba, to avoid attempting to do so, and especially by the means adopted by Knight, Robinson and Whigham, all of whom were arrested and are now in prison.

"It is needless to say that this recommendation applies with still greater stringency to correspondents who are American citizens. Give all possible publicity to this."

The tree correspondents named in the dispatch crossed to Cuba in newspaper tugs and landed from small boats, only to be immediately captured.

Knight, who represents the London Times, is in Fortress Cabanas, at Havana; Phil Robinson, of the Pall Mall Gazette, and H. J. Whigham, who represents the London Standard, are in the Matanzas jail.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Walton M. E. church will give a social in the church parlors next Saturday night.

A BARBAROUS RELIC.

Spanish Muleta, Found in a St. Augustine Fort, Sent to Secretary Alger.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Secretary Alger has received from Ocean Springs, Miss., a Spanish weapon known as a muleta, which is said to be used by the torradors in bull fights. It was sent by Newcomb Clark, of that place, who said that the weapon had an interesting history, having been made in the eighteenth century. The sender recalled that in dismantling a Spanish fort in St. Augustine early in the civil war in one of the casements there was found the remains of a dozen men, who, unquestionably, had been imprisoned there.

Among other things discovered with their skeletons was the muleta sent to the secretary. It came into the sender's possession in 1864 from a soldier who reported that he had found it at the place indicated. The weapon is about fourteen inches long, made of twisted hide which on the ends is fitted into a cylinder of iron or steel.

Attached to the iron cylinders are a number of small rings which presumably serve for the purpose of attaching to the thonge with instruments of torture at their end. The curiosity will be presented to the president by Secretary Alger.

Messrs. John Bass, jr., and E. C. Crampton have returned from an extended sojourn in the south.

A Gunshot Wound

From Which Dangerous Blood Poison Results.

It matters not how blood poison is acquired, whether by inheritance or accident, it is a stubborn, obstinate disease and one which the doctors find themselves unable to successfully treat. Whenever there is the slightest impurity in the blood, any accident which produces even a trivial bruise or contusion of the flesh, is likely to result seriously. Chronic sores and ulcers often result from such causes, and in many cases they are so obstinate that it takes years to get rid of them.

The doctors are unable to cure such cases because potash and mercury (the only remedies which they ever prescribe for the blood) tend to shut in the poison and dry it up in the blood. Here it lies dormant for a while, only to break out in a more aggravated form than before. This treatment is continued and the same conditions exist for years, the old sore or ulcer becoming a constant companion to those whom it afflicts.

Capt. J. H. McBrayer, the well-known distiller of fine Kentucky whiskies, had just such an experience, and he is so delighted to find a cure after many years of suffering that he wants everybody to know just how to get rid of these horrible chronic sores. He now resides at Lawrenceburg, Ky., and writes:

"Some years ago I was shot in the left leg, receiving what I considered only a slight wound. The place was slow in healing and became much swollen, increasing in size and becoming quite angry-looking and inflamed. Before long it had developed into a running sore, and gave me a great deal of pain and inconvenience. I was treated by many doctors, and took a number of blood remedies but none did me any good, and did not seem to check the progress of the sore. I had heard Swift's Specific (S.S.S.) highly recommended for the blood, and concluded to give it a trial, and the result was highly gratifying. S. S. S. seemed to get right at the trouble and forced the poison out of my blood; soon afterwards the sore healed up and was cured sound and well. I am sure S. S. S. is by far the best blood remedy made."

It is easy to explain why S. S. S. is so successful in curing all manner of blood troubles, it matters not how deep-seated they are. It is a real blood remedy and goes down to the very bottom of the blood and forces out every impurity, acting on the correct principle of eliminating the poison, rather than shutting it up in the system like mineral remedies do.

S. S. S. cures because it is purely vegetable, every ingredient of which it is made being gathered from the forests. It is the only blood remedy which is guaranteed to contain not a particle of potash, mercury, or any other mineral. S. S. S. will cure the most obstinate blood disease, which other remedies can not possibly reach. Valuable books on blood diseases will be sent free to any address by the Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

The Crippled Pennsylvania Engines Taken In for Repairs.

Naval Recruits Will Pass Through the City Tonight—Local and Personal Gossip.

Passenger engine 143 and freight engine 317, which collided near Lima yesterday morning, were brought here last night and this morning taken into the shops for repairs. The freight engine escaped serious damage, but No. 142 had both cylinders and her smoke box smashed in, her cab demolished and frames broken. Engineer Tony Kelker, who was on the limited, said to a SENTINEL reporter this morning that he succeeded in stopping his train and if he had had a few more seconds, would have gotten out of harm's way. When the freight train was only a few yards away Mr. Kelker jumped from his cab, but did not get far enough away. The side of the cab fell out and struck him on the back and shoulders, inflicting painful bruises.

Foreman William Madison, of the lathe department of the Pittsburg machine shop, will accompany his son, Frank, and wife as far as Chicago on their way to Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madison have been visiting here for two or three weeks.

The Indianapolis Journal thus compliments the general manager of the Pennsylvania company: "Mr. L. F. Loree should be gratified over what he, with his subordinate officers, have been able to accomplish in the increasing of the net earnings. The fact that the net earnings of the lines west of Pittsburg in the four months ending April 30 increase $549,200, while those of lines east of Pittsburg increased but $57,000, is a statement that any general manager may well be pleased with."

TRIES TO POISON WATER.

Soldier at Jacksonville Frustrates an Attempt by an Unknown Man.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 1.—An attempt was made early yesterday morning by an unknown man to poison the water supply here.

The guard detail for the day was from the First North Carolina regiment, and much praise is due Private A. J. Phelps, of Company M, for his strict vigilance. He was on the 2 o'clock detail, and noticed a suspicious character trying to climb the wire fence on the eastern side of the reservoir. The man was just about to throw a package into the water, when he was ordered to halt. He did not do so and the guard immediately discharged his piece. This so frightened the man that he turned and ran.

It was not possible to learn whether he was white or black. A white man was arrested today. He is a suspicious looking character and was found loitering near the new Duval hotel. He could give no satisfactory account of himself and was ordered to jail for five days pending a thorough examination by the authorities.

CRAMPS' BIG CONTRACT.

To Construct $15,000,000 of Warships for the Russians.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Information was supplied in this city from an authoritative source that the contracts secured by Charles H. Cramp from the Russian government amounted to $15,000,000.

The contracts call for the construction of twelve vessels—one first-class battleship, one first-class cruiser and ten torpedo-boat destroyers.

These vessels are to be finished throughout at Cramp's with armaments, guns, cannons, etc., and are to be turned over to the Russian government complete and ready for action.

When Mr. Cramp returned from Europe a fortnight ago he announced that the contracts called for one battleship and one cruiser.

Subsequently, when reports were received that the contracts included additional vessels and thorough equipments, Mr. Cramp declined to supply any more details, saying that the news must come from the Russian government.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION.

Tar Paper Factory Wrecked and Many Men Injured in New York.

NEW YORK, June 1.—A terrific explosion occurred early today in the tar paper factory of Tobias New & Co., on East Nineteenth street, in which a number of persons were seriously injured, the entire plant was wrecked and thousands of dollars of damage was done. No one was killed, but it is feared that some of the injured may die. The injured are:

Tobias New, the proprietor; Philip Greenfield, engineer; Victor Rosche, chief engineer; John O'Neill, engineer; Joseph Lamendo, rag picker; unknown Italian woman, Leo J. Kahn, Solomon Kahn, Thomas Ryan, John Judge.

New, Rosche, Greenfield and O'Neill were in the engine room when the explosion took place. The firemen think the explosion was caused by an accumulation of tar gas.

TORNADO IN MISSOURI.

Many Houses Demolished, but No One Seriously Injured.

KING CITY, Mo., June 1.—A destructive tornado passed across the country south of this place last evening. The village of Orchid, seven miles distant, was struck and the houses of J. B. Harper, William Owens, D. E. Moore, Alvis Price, Horace Gilbert and Henry Garratt were demolished.

No one in the village was seriously injured, as the people had taken warning from the condition of the atmosphere and the threatening clouds and sought places of safety.

At Berlin, eight miles east of here, the storm was accompanied by a heavy hail, which drifted two feet deep in places and which caused incalculable damage to crops and seriously damaged buildings.

TOM KEENE IS DYING.

Tragedian Fails to Rally After the Surgical Operation.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Thomas W. Keene, the tragedian, who was compelled to bring his Canadian tour to a sudden end last week because of appendicitis and was operated upon at the Smith infirmary, Staten Island, is failing to rally from it and is now at the point of death.

A PLEA FOR SPAIN.

Political Situation Discussed by Hannis Taylor.

The Former Minister Hopes the United States Will be Generous When Concluding Peace.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Hannis Taylor, recently United States minister to Spain, discusses in the June number of the North American Review the political future of Spain.

Mr. Taylor considers historically the circumstances out of which have risen the two leading political parties in the peninsular kingdom, which have been equally resolute in resisting the republicans on the one hand and the Carlists on the other, since the reestablishment in 1874 of the present dynasty.

United, Mr. Taylor says, these parties are more than a match for all their opponents.

"No matter what may happen in the external politics of Spain; no matter if she is stripped of all colonial possessions; no matter if Romero and Weyler do try to stir up civil war for their own selfish ends, Spain is safe so long as conservatives and liberals stand together to preserve social order under the existing constitution."

Mr. Taylor is strongly of the opinion that the time has not come for Spain to depart from monarchial institutions. This being the case Mr. Taylor asks why "the present dynasty should be overthrown, why the wise and devoted queen regent should be driven out on account of national misfortunes, for which neither she nor her son is in any way responsible."

"The most priceless possession of Spain," says Mr. Taylor, "is Maria Christina, because she alone bars the door to a renewal of civil war which at this moment would be destructive to the country. In this dark hour of Spain's misfortune her pure womanly character shines forth like a light in a dark place, round which all patriotic Spaniards should gather. As monarchial institutions surviving her overthrow means the accession of Don Carlos, who, apart from his utter and admitted worthlessness as a man, represents a set of mediaeval ideas and aspirations that would set Spain far into the past—at least a century."

As confirming his belief that Spain is not ripe for a republic, Mr. Taylor illustrates to the attitude of Emilio Castelar.

"If anybody clearly comprehends and loves Spain, he does," says Mr. Taylor. "In his mighty brain is stored away her whole history as a part of the history of Europe. In his heart is an unselfish and filial love of country as lofty and unselfish as ever ennobled a patriot. Convinced years ago that Spain was not prepared for a republic he resolved to retire from the political arena and to transmit his aspirations to another channel."

Mr. Taylor expresses the hope that the United States in their dealings with Spain at the end of the present war will follow a course consistent with their own moral dignity, and in the hour of victory remember that justice and generosity should characterize their dealing with a friendly nation.

"When the end comes," he says, "let us resolve to be just and generous, not only to Cuba, but to Spain too."

CADIZ FLEET A PAPER ONE.

Vessels of an Antiquated Type and Lacking in Machinery.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The frequent reports from Spain through other countries to the effect that a formidable fleet is being prepared at Cadiz to sail for West Indian waters in aid of Cevera causes little apprehension here. Naval officers, through private means of communication, have pretty well satisfied themselves that the Cadiz fleet is a paper fleet. In other words, its offensive power is altogether illusory.

More than half of the vessels whose names appear so frequently in the press dispatches as formidable war craft are of antiquated type and in a sad state of disorder.

The old Numancia is an example. She is rated as a battle ship of the first-class. In her day she was a battle ship, but she has not a turret or a sponson, and would be little more than sport for a modern ironclad.

In addition to being antiquated, most of these vessels are broken down in engines and boilers. In their reckless disregard of the simplest precautions for the preservation of the complex machinery of a war ship, the Spaniards are excelled by no people, and it is well known that they have been obliged to hire British engineers to run their engines whenever they did run.

There are some vessels at Cadiz, although a very few, of modern type, but they are not numerous or powerful enough to give our navy any serious concern.

PREPARING FOR EMERGENCY

England Buys 120,000 Barrels of Flour for Kingston.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 1.—The British government has purchased in the United States for delivery here 120,000 barrels of flour for the navy and army stores.

The order was placed with a Minneapolis company. The flour will be transported here by the Atlas Steamship company.

The transaction is significant as showing British preparation for an emergency.

Tomorrow afternoon the Home Missionary society of St. John's Lutheran church will meet at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lapp, about three miles south of the city. Friends wishing to go should meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Rothenberger at 1 o'clock. Should the weather be disagreeable, society will go the next day at same hour.

BILL SCOTT HURT.

The Candidate for Treasurer in a Runaway Today.

His Horse Frightened and He Was Thrown to the Ground, Receiving Quite Serious Injuries.

William Scott, a prominent Lafayette township farmer, and candidate for county treasurer, was quite seriously injured in a runaway this morning.

Mr. Scott and Mrs. Putt were driving to the city on the Bluffton road. When near school house No. 8, Wayne township, a peddler came along the road from the city with a push cart. The horse frightened at the horseless vehicle and started to run away. Mr. Scott and Mrs. Putt were thrown to the ground and the buggy completely demolished. Jas. Cunniston, who lives near by, caught the horse. An examination showed that Mrs. Putt was uninjured. Not so with Mr. Scott, however. He was badly bruised about the face, side and arm, the injury to the side being especially painful. Assessor Thomas Greer happened along shortly after the accident and he brought Mr. Scott to the city. The injured man was taken to the home of his daughter, on Shawnee avenue, where he is being cared for. While the injuries are quite painful they are not considered at all dangerous.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The Day Was Quiet and the Usual Number of Callers Appeared.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The usual contingent of callers from congress were at the white house today. There were numerous inquiries as to the bombardment of Santiago, but up to late in the forenoon there was no official information to impart to them. Senator Jones, of Arkansas; Fairbanks, of Indiana; Thurston, of Nebraska; Money, of Mississippi; Daniel, of Virginia, and Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, were there early in conference.

Matters were very quiet at the white house and there was little indication of an important stage in the war situation.

Senator Davis and ex-Assistant Secretary of War Grant, of Minnesota; Senator Sewell, of New Jersey; Senator Foraker, of Ohio, and the Louisiana delegation in the house, who urged some staff appointments from their state, were also among those who came to talk over army matters. Representative Grosvenor, accompanied a large delegation of officers of the Seventh Ohio regiment, mostly men from his district, to pay their respects to the president. The men are in camp at Camp Alger.

Morton, formerly a resident of Marion township, but now of Logan county, Ohio, has returned to visit his relatives and friends, and is the guests of his sons, William Morton, of Grace avenue, and Richard Morton, of Bass street. Mr. Morton, sr., was born in Marion township sixty years ago, and made his home in Allen county until he moved to Ohio. He is still hale and vigorous and is enjoying his visit among familiar scenes and old friends. Mr. Morton will remain in the city until after the democratic county convention in order to renew old acquaintances. For many years Mr. Morton has been a reader of THE SENTINEL and is still a subscriber to his favorite newspaper.

Little Noise in Berlin.

Berlin, of all big cities, has most successfully dealt with the problem of keeping noises down to the minimum. Railway engines cannot blow their whistles inside the city limits. Hucksters, newsboys and street peddlers are not allowed to bawl their wares. A wagon that makes an unnecessary rattling is stopped and its driver is lucky to escape a fine. The courts never hesitate to impose a pecuniary penalty on people that make useless noise, and they have a wide discretion. Even piano playing is regulated in a town noted for its music-loving inhabitants. Before a certain hour at night no one is at liberty to indulge in practice, and mere pounding on a piano is unlawful at all hours.

ETIQUETTE OF STATE.

Rigid Rules of Precedence Govern the Social Events of the Administration.

"The wife of the president makes and returns no visits. The wife of the vice president pays first visit only to the wife of the president," writes Mary Nimmo Balentine in an illustrated article on "Women of the United States Senate" in The Woman's Home Companion.

"The wives of senators make first calls on the wife of the president, the wife of the vice president, the wives of the embassadors, the ladies of the supreme court and upon each other in the order of the length of service of their husbands in the senate. The wife of the vice president holds receptions on Wednesdays, cabinet day, because her husband is a member of the president's cabinet, while the day of receiving for senators' wives is Thursday, between the hours of 3 and 6 in the afternoon. These receptions begin after the 1st of January and continue to be held until Lent begins. Some ladies observe the day for receiving all the time congress is in session. The customary preparations for holding an afternoon reception are to station one man at the drive to open and shut carriage doors and call carriages and another at the hall door to admit callers and take cards. The hostess receives the visitors standing near the door of the entrance and is dressed in a high necked gown, which may otherwise be as elaborate as taste may dictate. Visitors may be announced by name to the hostess by an usher or may speak their names themselves.

"Any person is at liberty to make the visits at the homes of senators, and all persons are cordially received. Those leaving cards expect their visits to be returned. Resident and nonresident sightseers who call without introduction of any sort do not leave cards. A large proportion of the official folk owe first calls to the ladies of the senate, the ladies of the cabinet, the wives of foreign ministers and the wives of the members of the house of congress. These are termed 'duty calls' and must be returned in person. A woman whose husband is in the 'upper house' can be quite as exclusive as any lady of private position if she so desire. The women of the cabinet could not close their houses to the public, however much they might wish to do so."

No Wonder.

"I say, waiter, this salmon cutlet isn't half so good as the one I had here last week."

"Can't see why, sir. It's off the same fish!"—Punch.

Mamma Could Swim.

There was no little excitement in the vicinity of the Pacific Mail wharf shortly after 1 p. m. yesterday. Two native children, aged 5 and 8 respectively, jumped into a boat up near the king's boat house, and noticing that it was tied, started to have a good time. The jumping about of the children loosened the line, and the boat, aided by the wind, started out the channel. The children were powerless. The mother appeared on the walk leading from the king's boat house to shore, and immediately jumped into the water. She caught the boat off the marine railway, kissed the children, then spanked them, and rowed the boat back to position.—Pacific Commercial Advertiser.

Immortality for a Cent.

When the pedestal of the statue of Blair, which Missouri has presented to statuary hall, was standing in that hall the other day awaiting its bronze figure, some one noticed that in the center of the stone block was a small square hole. The Missouri delegation was present to watch the placing of the statue, and one of the congressmen fishing through his pockets found a cent. He put the coin in the square hole, and also deposited a bit of paper with his autograph. The example was contagious. Every member of the delegation put in a cent and his name, some curious bystanders did likewise, and by the time that the statue was placed in position there was almost enough copper in the pedestal to sheathe a ship.—Washington Post.

From the Wrong Quarters.

"Hello, Mike! What are you doing there?" shouted the riding instructor to an Irish recruit who had suddenly parted company with his mount. "You are not training to become a broom. You are wanted as an ornament for one of the cavalry regiments." "Faix, sorr, Oi know that, but it was the animal's fault intoirely." "Well, you had better get on that horse again," said the good-humored instructor. "Everything is regulated from headquarters, and if you want to roll about the ground you must get permission. I don't think you received orders from headquarters to lie down there, did you?" "No, sorr," replied the recruit, entering into the spirit of the joke, "it was from hindquarters, sorr!"

Worship by Telephone.

Three churches in England are now using telephones to reach the aged members, those who are ill, and doubtless some of the lazy. The plan is soon to be tried in our larger cities. A transmitter will be placed in front of the pulpit and another before the choir. These will be connected by a main wire to a point where, on diverging wires, the volume of sound will be distributed to the different subscribers. Some of our livelier pastors will be obliged to stand still if they wish to be rightly interpreted. This is the only difficulty which the plan presents.

FIFTY YEARS

Have Mr. and Mrs. Short Been Married.

The Venerable Couple Celebrate Their Golden Wedding, Surrounded by Children and Grandchildren.

Fifty years ago today, in an humble home in a sparsely settled portion of Starke county, Ind., occurred a ceremony which united in marriage Miss Lydia Whited and Mr. G. R. Short.

Today, in their commodious and pleasant home at 53 Elm street, this estimable couple is commemorating that event. Surrounded by their children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters and a few old friends, they repeated the vows of a half-century ago, pledges which have been sacredly observed during the many intervening years. Rev. G. E. Davies officiated today, speaking the words spoken by the clergyman at the original wedding and performing the quaint marriage service then in vogue. At its close congratulations were showered upon the aged couple and shortly afterward the entire party sat down to a repast, such as has gained for that venerable pair an enviable reputation for good cheer and hospitality.

At the dinner table three generations were represented. Mr. and Mrs. Short occupied the heads of the table and ranged on either side were the children, relatives and friends. Only one chair was vacant, J. C. Short, of Pasadena, being unable to get here in time for the celebration. The children present were Dr. R. B. Short, of Union Mills, Ind.; F. A. Short, of Kankakee, Ill.; R. A. and T. E. Short, of Fort Wayne, William H. Whited and Stephen Whited, of Angola; Mrs. Maria Crees and Mrs. P. Goddell, of Plymouth, brothers and sisters of Mrs. Short, are also here, participating in the golden wedding.

Mr. Short is seventy-three years old and his wife is sixty-six. They are still healthy and active and bid fair to live to celebrate their diamond wedding. For many years he worked at house building, but for the past decade he has lived a retired life.
